About a thousand fathers from all parts of the Northwest, whose sons and daughters are students at the Minnesota university, visited that institution on "Dad's Day," Saturday. County Auditor T. P. GERMANY ENTERING ERA OF PROSPERITY SENATOR DECLARES

Sen. C. L. Hansen Relates Observations on European Trip at Club Luncheon

Senator C. L. Hansen, formerly president of the First National bank of this city, who recently returned from a three months' tour in Europe, addressed members of the Commercial club at the regular noon luncheon Thursday, Nov. 6, giving an interesting talk on conditions in Europe as he saw them.

"What impressed me most," said the senator, "was the amazing rapidity with which the countries on the Continent are recovering from the effects of the late World War. Viewing only conditions as they are today, one would scarcely believe that either Germany or France had been in so devastating a combat. Industry is thriving and business is apparently good. For an illustration, in the city of Cologne, Germany, a 16 story building is now in the process of construction which certainly does not indicate commercial stagnation. New buildings are under construction in no small degree in all parts of Germany.

"In Germany the mortgage and bondholders were the heaviest losers in the recent war, and not the property owners, as a result of the drop in the value of the mark. Only a large estate would be likely to have a mortgage of a million or two marks and after the drop in the value of German currency, the farmer whose property was mortgaged needed to sell only a chicken or two to pay off the obligation. I was informed that ninety days ago not a single piece of property in Germany was encumbered, for the simple reason that all mortgages had been retired due to the depleted value of the mark.

"However, now a 'gold mark' has been established in Germany which is on a par with American money, making Germany the only country which has a currency on a par basis with the American dollar, and all banking paper is now based on the 'gold mark.' One step has been taken to reimburse German investors. The German government is making payment of 30 per cent of the money lost thru the drop in currency value, payments to begin in 1930.

"France suffered great property loses and the government is reimbursing private parties by restoring buildings to as near their former condition as possible, and it is indeed surprising how near to their former condition they can be repaired. Where structures are enlarged in rebuilding the additional cost must be borne by the owner. In cities where cathedrals were ruined, the exact architectural design is being restored. Large agricultural districts were made almost uncultivatable by the trenches, large shell holes and barbed wire entanglements, which are now in rapid progress of restoration.

"Air transportation is well established in all parts of central Europe and England. Fare is approximately the same as first class rail transportation and the planes seem as safe a means of travel as the railroad. Only one air passenger accident has been recorded in Europe to date, as compared with many train catastrophies, and I believe air travel will soon be quite common in this country.

"Among interesting places I visited were Rheims and Chateau Thierry, about 100 miles in extent. I also visited the grave of Quinton Roosevelt, which is visited by thousands of tourists every year."

Prichard Company Loading Sugar Beets in District; First Payment This Week

The Prichard company of this city has been awarded the contract for loading all the sugar beets in the Thief River Falls district for shipment to the refinery at Mason City, Iowa. A special conveyor for the loading of beets arrived this week and shipments will be made as fast as cars can be loaded, the factory being able to handle the entire crop upon arrival.

Beets are now being shipped on the Soo line from this city, other loading points in the district being St. Hilaire, Steiner, Engen Spur, Silverton and Newfolden. At Rosewood the growers loaded the beets on the cars as they were hauled from the field.

The first payment on the 1924 beet crop contracted by the Minnesota Sugar company is to be made this week, and growers will receive the $5.00 a ton guarantee on beets hauled before Oct. 20, less $25 an acre for Mexican labor and $2.25 an acre for seed. A considerable sum will be received at this time by farmers near Thief River Falls, about 250 acres being grown this year in the immediate vicinity. Another payment will be made Dec. 20. It is expected that growers will receive a total of between $8 and $9 a ton for their beets this year.

Construction of the foundation for the first warehouse for storing sugar beets to be erected by the Red River sugar company at East Grand Forks is expected to be started this week, it is announced in the Grand Forks Herald. Tracks are now being laid by the Great Northern railway for the spur to be used by the company to be completed in time for the first shipment of beets next year.

Farmers thruout the Red River valley are signing contracts to furnish beets for the factory next year. It is planned to arrange for about 12,000 acres of land upon which sugar beets will be raised.

Big Game Hunters Enjoy Ideal Weather. Many Local Nimrods Return with Deer

Few big game hunters can boast having killed their first deer in an hour's hunt, but that is the record of Alfred Paulson, local expressman, who returned Wednesday of last week from Big Forks with a buck that dressed 280 pounds. O. A. Rambeck shot one weighing 240 pounds. Oscar R. Smith shot his first deer six miles out of Middle River Wednesday of last week, other Thief Riverites successful in bringing down the wary animals being Dr. J. T. Bowers, Julien Provencher, Jack Houfek, Walter Jung, Sheriff O. L. Ihle, M. T. McFarland, Ted Hunt and Ed. Skoglund.

Deer hunters welcomed the snowfall the past week making tracking an easy matter, and a large number of those who secured big game licenses from the county auditor this year have returned with their buck. The coveted animals are reported to be numerous in many parts of this section, north and east from here. One deer is the limit for the season, which closes today, having been open since the 10th. With ideal weather conditions many will feel rather reluctant about leaving the hunting grounds.

14 Gals. Alcohol Found in Garage Near Warren Jail; Hunter Quistgaard is Held

Storing 14 gallons of liquor in a garage 50 feet from a county jail on the court house grounds, may sound improbable but such seems to have been the case at Warren recently. Hunter Quistgaard, 23, son of Ed. Quistgaard and proprietor of the Warren Pharmacy the past year during his father's illness, was on Wednesday of last week bound over to the grand jury under bonds of $800 following his arrest when 14 gallons of alcohol were said to have been discovered in a garage used by him.

The supply of "fire water" was found by the Marshall county authorities, by whom Quistgaard is said to have been suspected for some time. The garage in which the liquor was discovered belongs to the court house janitor but was used by Quistgaard. The arrest was made Friday, Nov. 7 and it is expected that the case will be brought before the Marshall county grand jury which convenes Nov. 24.

VISIT SCHOOLS NEXT WEEK

Each citizen of the United States is asked during the coming week, Nov. 17 to 23 to devote some time to a consideration of our schools and our education system. One way for parents to comply with the purpose of the week is to visit the local schools.

Last week several reasons were listed why parents should visit schools. Attention was also called to what parents might observe and what information they might seek.

Additional reasons why parents might visit school are:

To make it more possible for school officials to interpret to parents the policies under which the school operates.

To advise school authorities as to the needs of the district as seen from the parent's standpoint.

To better understand.

To know the conditions and needs of the school so that they may intelligently defend the reputation of the schools and assist in keeping the schools from being commercialized and propagandized.

To view their children from an angle other than that of the home and thus be able to guide more wisely their development.

In order that parents themselves may understand and appreciate changes in courses of study.

To secure an accurate idea of the objectives of modern education and to find out how these objectives are being worked out in practice.

To aid in developing the real school spirit in the community.

Among points to be observed in addition to those listed last week might be mentioned:

The physical conditions under which teachers and pupils are working.

Facilities offered for the development of the health of the children—playgrounds, nurses' quarters, etc.

To what extent their own children participate in school activities.

Equipment of school especially as relates to library, gymnasium, shop, instructional material, etc.

Parents will also derive a great deal of information from visiting schools. For instance:

What are the vocational tendencies of the child if any are manifest.

Purposes of the various courses of study.

Reasons for making or not making changes in course of study.

Finances of school districts, tax rate, indebtedness, etc.

Is pupil in course best suited to his capacity and needs?

tudes; disabilities?

Has pupil too many outside activities?

Is pupil courteous and helpful?

Does pupil enter into a sufficient number of student activities?

What provisions are made for backward and for superior children?

Many parents never look inside a school room but depend upon "gossip" for information. Firsthand information is always the best; therefore those parents who are really interested in the schools will visit them several times each term.

Many parents do not visit the schools because they feel that they are not competent to judge the classroom work. They say that teaching is a profession and that the layman should no more make suggestions to the teachers as to methods of instruction than he would to a physician as to the kind and quantity of medicine to administer. All of this is true, but there are numerous reasons why parents should visit the schools. There are many things that they can observe.

The Warren Sheaf in advising farmers in that community to "Stick to the Cow" makes the following statements which are well worth considering:

"Farmers are just completing the threshing of a bumper crop—the largest in years. As a consequence there is danger that an industry, which pulled many through the near cropless year of 1923 and which gave many extra spending money (to spend for necessities) during this summer, will go by the board with many.

"But the crop that was harvested this fall is an unusual occurence. It may not occur again for the next five years. For several years then, there may not be any great profit in grain farming.

"So the farmer who has made a start in dairying should stick right by it. By adopting a consistent dairy program over a period of years he is bound to come out ahead—especially if he is at all fitted for the dairy game."

Don't advocate giving the devil his just due if you believe there is any danger of reaction.

It's easy enough to speculate on what is going to happen to the man who specializes on the "sit" in situation.

A campaign fund investigation after election would be about as interesting as a moving picture without a hero and a villian.

Having a mind of your own is one thing and knowing how to use it is another.

This would be a better world if men thought less about money and women less about clothes.

When one egotist describes another, you get a touch of real art in the matter of hammar swinging.

To appreciate good music is one thing and enjoy jazz is another.

Live and Dressed Poultry Wanted

We will need a lot of dressed turkeys, geese and ducks to fill our orders for the Thanksgiving trade. We would advise marketing only the very best birds at this time, as No 2 birds are a drudge on the market, and they probably would be a No. 1 bird for the Christmas market. Turkeys may look fat, but would advise examining them carefully before killing.

We can handle them alive just as well if you do not care to dress them.

Get our prices before selling elsewhere as you are sure of getting the right weight and grade when selling to us. We need a lot of both kinds, so when you are ready to sell, bring them in, see them weighed and graded and know what you are getting when you bring your poultry to town.

We also have barrels for sale, and we want to buy clover seed of all kinds.

Yours very truly,

Peterson-Biddick Co.

Poultry Association Advises Care in Dressing of Poultry

Poultry should be well fed and watered and kept from 18 to 24 hours without food before killing, is the advice sent out to members of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association from the headquarters in this city. Great care and the proper methods are necessary to prepare birds for Thanksgiving or Christmas trade.

"No kind of poultry should be killed by wringing the neck," the announcement says. "Kill by bleeding in the mouth or opening the veins of the neck and allow to hang by the neck until properly bled. Head and feet should be left on and the crop and the intestines should not be removed. For country dressing it is better to scald chickens than to dry-pick them. For scalding the water should be as close to the boiling point as possible, about 160-170 degrees. Hold the bird by the head and legs and immerse, dipping up and down five or six times.

"The feathers and pin feathers should then be removed immediately, while the body is warm, very cleanly and without breaking the skin. Then plump by dipping for about ten seconds in water nearly at the boiling point. After this has been done, hang the birds in a cool place, or better, place them on shelves in the shape you wish them to appear when cool. Hanging by the legs draws the breast muscles and makes them look thinner when they cool and much harder to pack. Cool them until the animal heat is entirely out of the body.

Turkeys

"Observe the same instructions as given for perparing chickens, but instead of scalding, always dry pick. To dry pick turkeys properly the work should be done while the birds are bleeding. Do not wait until the bodies are cold, as the dry picking is done much more easily while the bodies are warm. Care should be taken not to break or tear the skin. The secret of success in dry picking is in getting a proper stick when killing. This is done by piercing the nerve centers in the roof of the mouth, which loosens the feathers to such an extent that they are easily picked off.

"Turkeys that are dry picked sell best, and command better prices than when scalded, as the appearance is brighter and more attractive. It is advisable to market all old and heavy gobblers before January first, as after the holidays the demand is for small fat hen turkeys only. Old toms at this time are sold at a discount to canners."

SUPPORT THE TEACHER

There are approximately eight hundred thousand school teachers in the United States, not including superintendents, supervisors and principals.

Here are eight hundred thousand opportunities for service that can not be measured in ordinary terms, if they are appreciated.

Teachers who live up to their possibilities do more than teach children facts that may be learned from books.

They teach them to appreciate the good things in life; tolerance for others; that joy comes not from selfish pursuits, but by making others happy, and that the well-rounded man or woman is not self-centered.

Though they have a powerful influence over children, school teachers can not accomplish the results most to be desired without the aid of parents in providing the proper environment at home.

Every community is proud of its schools and its boys and girls. The measure in which their lives rebound to the glory of their home community depends upon the support which the teachers receive.

Back them up for results that count in later years.

Auditor Issues Many Big Game Licenses This Year. Season Opened Nov. 10th

Deer hunting is now on in Minnesota, the season having opened Monday, Nov. 10, and will continue thru the 20th. That there is considerable interest in big game hunting among Pennington county residents is indicated by the fact that up to yesterday a total of 91 big game licenses had been issued by Auditor T. P. Anderson. This is above the usual number issued here in former years. A number of hunters from other parts of the state are passing thru this city on their way to northern Minnesota points.

Many deer are reported in the vicinity of the Canadian border and a number of nimrods are invading Itasca county.

A number of local hunters have returned with a buck.

In order to take out a hunting license the applicant must have been a resident of the state for six months or more and must make affidavit that he is a citizen or has declared intention to become a citizen. Also that he has reported in writing to the state game and fish commissioner game taken under license for season of 1922. It is unlawful to kill moose at any time or to kill deer with dogs or to keep dogs about any hunting camp. Licenses must be carried on the person at the time of taking any wild animal and while going to and from the hunting grounds.

Deer carcasses without license tags attached are contraband and subject to seizure wherever found. Metal locking seal is required to be attached to each carcas when transported. The limit of one deer is the same to residents and non-residents.

THANKS TO VOTERS

I wish by this means to extend to the voters of Pennington county my heartfelt thanks for re-electing me to the office of Clerk of Court. The fact that I had no opposition does not in any any manner lessen my appreciation of your confidence and support. My experience in the work of the office puts me in a position to give efficient service and I assure you that I shall do my utmost to merit that confidence and support which you have reposed in me.

ON VARIOUS TOPICS

By Martin Widsten
in Crookston Daily Times

Reports from all parts of the valley are that more debts are being paid than has ever happened in any one year before and that the volume of sales has not increased as much as had been expected from the good crop.

The fact is that there is a general sentiment for clearing up debts and getting on a cash basis. It is a healthy sentiment, and should be encouraged as far as possible. Not only should it be encouraged in private affairs, but also in those of the public. What the country needs more than anything else is a steady decrease in the public debt.

Every dollar used in paying off debt increases the available working capital of the country by that much. Releasing a lot of capital now tied up in debts means lower interest rates and greater activity in establishing new industries. Less debts means more opportunity for employment and more prosperity.

The new potato co-operative is registering a considerable increase in membership as a result of the low price for potatoes. Only a few carloads of the crop signed up with the co-operative have been sold so far. They are sitting back and permitting the independents to unload their crops at around twenty cents a bushel. It is expected that when this movement is past, the co-operative will be able to get a better price for what they have. It is reasonable to expect that they will.

Now that election is over it will be well to reflect that they couldn't all be elected—some win and some lose. That is the natural course of events. However, you will soon note that the sun keeps traveling around in the same orbit, the seasons will come and go, and those that are industrious without being foolish will prosper while those who are foolish without being industrious will fail, and the rest will manage to get along somehow.

Has No Cash Left

The state rural credits bureau is being flooded with applications for loans that it cannot fill, Thomas Ofsthun, a member of the commission, announces. These applications only clutter up the affairs of the bureau, he said and gain nothing for the senders. All money in the hands of the bureau has been lent, it is stated, and no more will be available for some time, until a new loan can be negotiated.

Magnifies Voice Many Thousand Times

VOICE currents which travel great distances become weak and indistinct. Vacuum tube repeaters, therefore, are installed at intervals when it is necessary to "boost up" or magnify the telephone conversations.

The vacuum tube repeater—the simple looking glass bulb shown in the illustration above—magnifies long-distance telephone conversations thousands of times.

Years of research and experiment were required to invent and perfect this little device which has helped so greatly to make long distance telephone service in America the marvel of the world.

Engineering and research work such as produced the vacuum tube, has a very important part in our constant effort to provide the best possible service at the lowest possible cost to the public.

THE PERFECT MOTOR OIL

Read what Mr. Clark has to say about it. He has placed an order for 60 barrels.

Standard Oil Co., (Indiana).
Sioux City, Iowa.

Gentlemen:-

It gives us pleasure to inform you concerning the wonderful success which we are having with Polarine "F" Oil.

We have always been more or less skeptical of the different kinds of oil which have been placed on the market, especially where they were designed and produced to act on the transmission bands. Therefore, we hesitated in using this oil at the start for fear that we would have the same experience as we have had on other oils in the past.

However, we purchased two barrels to start with, and used a big part of this in our own service cars and in the care of our fourteen salesmen. The results were satisfactory in every respect. We then offered it to our Ford customers. All of them are very highly pleased and are having the best possible results.

We believe that it will eliminate band trouble to a large extent and it also gives perfect lubrication in the motor.

We have not hesitated to contract for sixty barrels, and we wish you much success in the marketing of this oil.

Very truly yours,
FRANKLIN H. CLARK COMPANY
President.

THE SUPERIORITY OF MAN

Sunshine White was dreaming peacefully and a broad smile completely covered his ebony features. Suddenly the smile flickered, died out, and was replaced by a look of sadness and gloom.

Sunshine was drowning. Great volumes of water engulfed him. He was suffocating. He thought of all his past evils. How he had cheated all his fellow brethern of the Colored Peoples' Baptist church by playing with loaded dice and lastly of the unforgiveable sin of putting Idle Hour Pool Hall chips in the collection box. He was ready to receive his harp when he awakened.

The first object that met his wandering gaze was a bucket at the business end of which he perceived his wife's hamlike hand. Her gentle voice in cyclonic tones calmly advised him to appear on the ground floor for breakfast inside of two minutes or forever lead the life of an invalid. He took the hint and in less than the specified time breezed into the kitchen where his morning's repast awaited. After he had eaten so much that his esophagus became paralyzed, he quit.

As he was doing his daily dozen by turning the Armstrong power wringer he turned to his brawny frau and remarked: "Ah guess Rastus Green mus' a been to a stag party last night."

"Why, man?"

"Well, ah saw him doin' considerable staggerin'."

"Say, Sunshine, am yo shure you didn't marry me for ma job?"

"Suttunly not, dear, you jes' go on an keep yo ole job."

"Say woman, yo shure am dumb. Did yo eber do any classical readin'?"

"Man, ah shure did. By de way did yo eber read 'Lonspoke?'"

"Ya, woman, ah shu did read 'Lonespoke.' It was written by a guy named Sheakfellow."

"Man, why do you call dat two-bit watch of yours a wondah watch?"

"Well, woman, dat am a wondah because when ah looks at it, I has to wondah what time it is."

As Sunshine stood in the door he passed his last witty remark:

"Well, woman why do a stork lift one leg when it stands? You don't know? Well, if he'd lif de odder one he'd fall down."

LOCALS LOSE TO E. GRAND FORKS 12-6

Cold and Snow Makes last Game of Season Uncomfortable—Locals Score in Third

With snow half an inch deep on the ground, and the thermometer registering below freezing, the Lincoln High school football team was defeated by the East Grand Forks eleven by a score of 12 to 6. As the ground was slippery, and the air very cold, there was quite a lot of fumbling on the part of both of the teams, and there were no long runs. At the first of the game a comparatively large crowd was there to witness the contest, but at the end of the first half, few remained to see the rest of the game. The ones who did brave the cold were satisfied with the game, which furnished lots of thrills. The stars for the locals were Penney and Zeh. Penney was the producer of thrills with his ability to pick passes out of the air, while Zeh showed his prowess in going around end for many big gains, which no doubt would have been greater had the ground been free of snow.

The game by quarters:

First Quarter

Thief River kicked off and the visitors returned the pik-skin to their 30 yard line. On their first and second downs they made 20 yards. Then they tried some line smashes which netted them first down two times and the next time they shoved the ball over for a touch down. The try-for-point failed. Thief River seemed to be slow in getting started. The locals received and returned the ball to their 20 yard line. They tried end-runs but could not make anything through East Grand's heavy line and were forced to punt on the fourth down. The visitors likewise were unable to gain and they, too, were forced to punt. The locals were held, and punted again. East Grand fumbled and Penney recovered, but on Thief River's fourth down they punted. Then a punting duel began, and in a little while the visitors made another touchdown, the score now being 12-0. The locals received and returned the ball to their 30 yard line. On the first down the Lincolnites lost six yards, but gained seven on the next play. Time was called out, as Penney was knocked unconscious, but in a little while was as good as ever. Thief River was going better now and they made a 23 yard gain, with Zeh carrying the ball. Again they made their downs and were in the scoring zone when they made a costly fumble, and East Grand recovered. The visitors made their downs twice and then were forced to punt. Thief River could not gain anything so they too punted, and East Grand fumbled. The locals recovered the ball and made their downs three times until they were close to the goal line. With one minute left of the half to play a pass to Penney was incomplete and East Grand got the ball on their 20 yard line. Then the half ended.

Third Quarter

Thief River received and returned the ball 20 yards. On the third down they were forced to punt. East Grand made seven yards, when on the fourth down one of their men was tackled pretty hard and he slugged the tackler. The visitors were penalized, but the locals chose to keep the ball and not accept the penalty. Then the ball went back and forth on the field, however, it was going closer and closer to the visitor's goal. A fifteen yard penalty for holding put the ball in the scoring zone again, and Zeh carried the ball over for a counter of six. The try-for-point failed. The score was 12-6 in favor of the visitors. East Grand received and returned the ball ten yards. The visitors could gain nothing, and were penalized five yards for off-side. They punted. The locals also punted out of danger and the visitors did the same.

Fourth Quarter

Zeh reeled off 20 yards for the locals, but on the next fourth down the Lincolnites were forced to punt. East Grand punted 70 yards with the wind. Then the locals coaxed the ball up near the goal line but lost it on an intercepted pass. Then the whistle blew, ending the game. The score: East Grand Forks 12, Thief River Falls 6.

This was the last game of the season.

ALL THEY DO IS GRUNT

There are many, so we find,
as on our way we jog,
Who want to do their lifting on the small end of the log;
They do a lot of blowing, and they strive to make it known
That were there no one else to help, they'd do it all alone.
If talking were effective, there are scores and scores of men,
Who'd move a mountain off its base,
and move it back again.
But as a class, to state it plain,
in language true and blunt,
They're never worth a cent to life, for all they do is grunt.

Local Schools Represented at M. E. A. Meet Last Week

I. T. Simley, superintendent of the city schools, Maude L. Johnson, music supervisor, Alice Stapleton and Loretta Kopriva, normal training department, Minnie S. Leavitt, English instructor and librarian, Lawrence T. Mickelson, English and public speaking instructor, and Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, returned the past week from St. Paul where they attended the annual convention of the Minnesota Educational association. More than 5,000 Minnesota teachers were in attendance. Mr. Sande and Mr. Simley took part in the convention assembly of 100 members which functioned for the first time, the former as a delegate from the Northwest division and the latter as president of the division. Mr. Simley also attended the meeting of the state athletic boards. Miss Johnson was chairman of the music division and Miss Leavitt appeared on the program of the library section.

R. B. McLean, president of the state teachers' college at Moorhead, was named president of the association, and Supt. G. H. Sanberg of Crookston was elected a member of the executive board, as was also M. W. Deputy, head of the Bemidji college. Supt. J. W. McNeal of Red Lake Falls and Supt. M. C. Hayes of East Grand Forks were named delegates to the national convention from this division. An effort will be made to insure the adoption of a sound teachers' retirement law by the 1925 legislative session. Considerable attention was devoted to consideration of the equitable distribution of tax money thruout the state.

During the absence of the local teachers Mrs. W. W. Prichard, Jr., substituted for Mr. Mickelson and Mrs. L. G. Larsen for Miss Leavitt.

THE TEAM

Now don't any of you stall,
Tomorrow is grand football.
Mike's the captain of the team,
He wastes no time in idle dream.
Speed's what Penney doesn't lack,
We can pat him on the back.
Let's give three cheers for Syl,
He uses all his might and will.
Big little boy McCrum,
Will make the whole game hum.
There's nothing wrong with Bennes,
He'll fight to the very finis.
Hurrah for tiny little Dutch!
Even if he don't amount to much.
Elofson, Froseth, Arne and Bjork;
All know the meaning of real hard work.
And at the end of that memorial day
As homeward we wend our weary way
In our very hearts we'll feel
Our team is made of hardest steel.

WHY MEN LEAVE COLLEGE

I've taken my drinks till I've floundered,
I've staggered and reeled in my time;
I've had my pick of the likkers.
When likker was in it's prime.

I started to drink as a Freshman,
Bitter the stuff was at first;
But now I can drink with the best 'uns,
Alcohol now scarce slacks my thirst.

'Twas the night of my first cotillion
A Sophomore gave me a sip
From an 'arf pint of Sherwood
That he carried on his hip.

I coughed and gagged for a moment;
A tear welled up in my eye,
But I smiled through my eyes misty dimness,
At an 'arf snooted Senior nearby.

The rest is a sad, hard story
Of a college man's downward path:
How the D. F.'s finally got me,
And the Profs. kicked me out at last.
(With apologies to R. Kipling.)

THE LOVING CUP

Silently we stood together in the darkening shadows of the November evening. After an interval that seemed like ages to me, I lowered my head to catch the sweet odor which pervaded the cool air. I looked long and fervently at the well rounded mouth and thought of the pleasure to be found there. I could restrain myself no longer. With an almost brutal eagerness, I grasped the smooth round neck in my two hands and pressed my hot lips to the moist little mouth. Draining the last drop, I put down the bottle, and, chewing a clove sauntered out into the darkness.

A Toast

You stand so silent on the shelf,
Who once so gaily filled my life;
Hoy merry was that other self
You used to show when joy was rife.

A thousand thoughts of other days
Creep in upon me as I ponder
Upon your once so prankish ways
That made me fond of you—and fonder.

A toast to You, O Silent One!
A tribute glowing to your maker.
A sigh, a thought of work well done,
My gleaming, silver Cocktail Shaker!

Fattening, Marketing The Thanksgiving Bird

Turkeys are best fattened on range, and corn gives the quickest and best gains, says Cora Cooke, state poultry specialist with the agricultural extension service of the university. The corn ration should be begun gradually, for if the corn is not well matured digestive troubles may develop. It is best to begin with a light feeding of mixed grain, gradually changing to corn and increasing the ration steadily. For the last ten days before the birds are marketed they should receive all the corn they will clean up every day, with the largest feedings night and morning.

It is important, Miss Cooke warns, to ship turkeys from the farms ten days to two weeks before Thanksgiving Day. Dealers often have to reship and if the turkeys are received too late they may have to be held over at a lower price.

Good quality turkeys will be in strong demand, says Miss Cooke. The crop is small. Turkeys well matured and in good flesh should bring a good price on the Thanksgiving market.

A large number of turkeys brought to this city this season have been of inferior quality, especially the spring birds, the older birds being in good condition. Many farmers are planning to fatten their flocks for the Christmas market rather than to sell at this time.

Plummer Farmer Killed While Unhitching Team

John Foldoe, 56, one of the prominent farmers of Garnes township, Red Lake county, and a brother-in-law of John Bundy of this city, met a tragic death Monday night of last week as a result of injuries received when trampled on by his horses which he was unhitching.

Mr. Foldoe had hauled a load of grain to town and returned about 7:30 in the evening. While he was unhitching it appears that the horses had become frightened and bolted, pinning him between the near horse and an oak tree. Judging by the position in which he was found lying it seems that the near horse had stepped on his head and the wagon, which was carried along by the neckyoke, passed over his chest.

Mrs. Foldoe and son Gustaf, who were in the house, upon hearing noise outside immediately ran to the rescue but found the victim of the accident unconscious and in a mutilated condition. Medical aid was summoned at once but he did not regain consciousness and died at 1:30 that night.

Mr. Foldoe, who was a native of Osterdal, Norway, came to this country with his parents at the age of nine, living at first in Fillmore county and later in northern Minnesota. In 1890 he married Miss Anna Swenby at Dindahl, Norman county, eight children, all of whom are living, being born to their union. He took a homestead in Garnes township in 1896, lived there for 10 years and moved to Bagley and later to Erskine. In 1909 he returned, having bought a farm from Octave Lefaivre.

Surviving are his widow, four sons, Alfred of Garnes, Carl of Bagley, Gustaf and Joseph living at home, and four daughters, Mrs. V. H. Healy of Red Lake Falls, Mrs. D. A. Nelson and Laura of St. Paul and Mable living at home. A brother, Lars, resides at Highlanding, east of this city. He is also survived by three other brothers, Nels of Bagley, Pete of Seattle, Wash., and Carl of Roosevelt. Two sisters also mourn his departure, another sister, Mrs. John Bundy of this city having died 16 years ago.

The funeral services conducted last Thursday from the Garnes Lutheran church by Rev. J. K. Lerohl of Oklee, was attended by Misses Myrtle, Olga and Norma and Hjalmer Bundy of this city.

The Larger Service

The larger service is not typified by the storekeeper who delivered a spool of cotton in a five-ton truck manned by three men.

Nor is it typified by the man who attempts to unload the contents of a freight car with a market basket.

The larger service consists of giving the people what they want, when they want it, at a minimum cost of time, labor and money. This, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) does.

Cost and waste are closely related. Cost is controlled and waste is eliminated by the same factors—capable management and intensive organization.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has lowered consistently its manufacturing costs by creating new and useful products from that residue of petroleum which had been acknowledged as waste.

Each new product created has been made to bear its true proportion of the manufacturing costs of all products taken from the single base—crude petroleum.

The benefits accruing from this economy have been passed to the consumer in lower prices and improved service.

Because the business of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is balanced to a fine point there is no slack season. A shut-down in its manufacturing plants seldom occurs. There is no waste effort or unnecessary overhead expense to be absorbed. Products flow through the manufacturing channels of this Company uninterruptedly and are sold at natural—not artificially maintained—prices.

Such a condition in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is not a circumstance, it is a policy—for experience has demonstrated that manufacturing cost, selling price and quantity production are inseparable.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is inspired by a determination to render the most comprehensive service—the larger service. This means a tremendous turn-over, with a small profit per unit of sale.

It is on this foundation that the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has become one of the truly great institutions of America—a constructive force for good—and an influencing factor in solving problems closely related to the social and economic welfare of the thirty millions of people in the Middle West.

DAIRY INDUSTRY GIVEN BOOST AT BIGGEST CONVENTION EVER HELD BY DAIRYMEN OF VALLEY

Representation From Entire Northwestern Minnesota. Holt Wins Attendance Award.

S. McLEOD AND OTHER OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

Alfalfa Emphasized As Important Feed—Farmers Here Praised For Gains

Unanimous in their declarations that the 21st annual convention is the best ever held in the history of the organization, members of the Red River Valley Dairymen's association closed their sessions here Thursday afternoon. It is estimated that approximately 500 dairymen and creamery operators from every part of the valley attended to discuss dairy problems and hear talks on various phases of the dairy industry by prominent experts and authorities. Every one of the programs was of an instructive nature and those in attendance returned with new and better ideas of making dairying more profitable.

At the closing session of the convention the present officers were reelected for the third term, the choice being unanimous and the election by acclamation. The officers are Stuart McLeod, Goodridge, president; A. R. Knutson, Pelican Rapids, first vice president; Marius Waldal, Plummer, second vice president; Leonard Houske, Halstad, secretary; and E. E. Thorson, Hendrum, treasurer. Mr. Houske, who is inspector for the dairy and food department, was selected secretary for the 12th term, his excellent service being regarded as invaluable to the association. President McLeod is a young, enterprising Guernsey breeder in the eastern part of Pennington county and Mr. Waldal, Red Lake county farmer, is well known to local readers as legislative representative from this district and a director of the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange. The efficient and live set of officers was to a large degree responsible for the success of the convention and are deserving of the highest praise for what they are doing in the interest of dairying in this section.

The following resolution thanking local citizens for their hospitality was adopted: "Resolved, That the Red River Valley Dairymen's association express its thanks to the business men and citizens of Thief River Falls for their hospitable treatment while in convention. We also express our hearty thanks to the State Dairymen's association for its financial and moral support and to the commercial men for their advertising patronage and enthusiastic support."

Higher Butter Tariff Asked

Other resolutions adopted were: That a movement be started to have President Coolidge raise the present tariff of 8 cents a pound on butter to 12 cents a pound temporarily until congress can investigate the matter thoroly in hopes that a still further raise may be secured, the low wage and living standards of European countries being mentioned as materially affecting the butter industry in America. Copies of the resolution were ordered sent to the president, the chairman of the tariff commission, members of the newly appointed agricultural commission, chairman of the senate and house agricultural committees, Minnesota congressmen and various farm organizations.

Adoption of legislation embracing the principle of the McNary-Haugen export corporation was urged as fulfilment of the pledge that agriculture be placed upon an equality with industry, and labor.

Appreciation of the splendid work done by A. J. McGuire as manager of Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association, in the interest of Minnesota dairymen, in raising the standard of Minnesota butter and finding of new markets.

Endorsing the reappointment of Chris Heen, secretary of the state dairymen's association, for state dairy and food commissioner by the incoming administration.

Moral and financial support of boys' and girls' club work was pledged.

Members of the Thief River Falls Co-operative creamery were commended for their spirit of co-operation, evidenced by their new creamery building, and farmers and dairymen of the territory tributary to Thief River Falls were congratulated upon the progress made in the growing of

Proposed Amendment No. 4 Fails to Carry in State; Final Election Majorities

Proposed amendment No. 4, which would authorize the legislature to enact legislation for forestation and reforestation of public and private lands, was defeated in the Nov. 4 election, it has been disclosed by a check of the official returns. It is indicated that the total vote is in excess of 869,000, a majority of which Amendment No. 4 failed to receive. Amendments No. 1 and No. 5 were the only two that received the required majority.

Mike Holm, secretary of state, was returned with a majority of more than 184,000, according to official figures from all counties except Red Lake. Pluralities of other candidates are: Calvin Coolidge, for president, 81,280; Theodor Christianson, for governor, 40,667; Thomas Schall, for senator, 7,912; W. I. Nolan, for lieutenant governor, 64,804; Henry Rines, for state treasurer, 100,804; Clifford L. Hilton, for attorney general, 75,146; Frank Mattson, for railroad and warehouse commissioner, 69,230; S. B. Wilson, for chief justice, 54,406; Andrew Holt, as associate justice, 67,741 and Royal A. Stone, 47,683.

WOMAN MEETS MAN AT HIS OWN GAME MRS. JACOBSON PROVES

In these days of Woman's Suffrage, the men can't even go out and get a deer and be alone about it. Mrs. H. L. Jacobson, residing at 218 Duluth ave. south, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Teal, proved her prowess with the rifle by bringing down a member of the much hunted big game tribe near International Falls, where she was hunting with a cousin. Now that the fairer sex finds diversion in bringing down big game, perhaps their lesser opposites will find less amusement in telling tales of the intrigue and diplomacy necessary to capture the big animals, which they are wont to insist their wives lack.

PROSPECTS FOR NEW RAILROAD TO THIS CITY

Building of Railway From International Falls Heading to Thief River Falls

RIGHT-OF-WAY BOUGHT, BAUDETTE REGION SAYS

Thirty Miles to be Built Next Year and Balance to Goodridge Following Year

If the present intentions of the Backus interests are carried out as announced in the Baudete Region, Thief River Falls will be the western terminus of a railroad controlled by that company, the other end of which is International Falls. This road now runs from International Falls westward to Loman and an extension to the west and south thru parts of Lake of the Woods and Beltrami counties connecting with this city has been contemplated for a number of years. In 1916 it was reported that the Backus railroad company had secured the right of way thru the state lands in the counties to be traversed, but no further developments were made.

Following is an article which appeared in last week's issue of The Region giving the details of present prospects:

"The long looked for new railroad in Lake of the Woods county is coming at last. According to announcement made late last week thirty miles will be added next year to the road running from International Falls to Loman, and the remainder of the road will be extended the following year to Goodridge, which already has a railroad to Thief River Falls.

"Backing up the announcement and demonstrating that it is no mere railroad rumor, two representatives of E. W. Backus have purchased most of the right of way from Loman, to a point south of Baudette and including two townships in Lake of the Woods county. The balance will be purchased as rapidly as possible.

"The road will run in a straight line from Loman to Goodridge and will pass through four townships in Lake of the Woods county and then into Beltrami county on its way to Goodridge. While representatives of Mr. Backus have been purchasing the road, it is generally supposed that the road will eventually be controlled by the Soo, which owns the line from Goodridge to Thief River Falls.

The Route

"As near as can be learned, the road will enter Lake of the Woods county from Koochiching county near the north boundary of Township 157, Range 30. From there it will go thru Township 31 (Kiel), then through Township 32 (Pioneer), then through townships 33, and possibly touch Township 34 before going into Beltrami county on its way to Goodridge. This route is subject to change, but it is approximately the territory in which the road will pass through this county.

"The coming of the road will mean a tremendous development south of Baudette and will be a veritable godsend to the homesteaders in that section. In addition to good land the district is full of merchantable timber, which in many cases was almost worthless because it was too far from a railroad.

"The sudden announcement of the building of this road is taken as an indication that the men behind it are endeavoring to beat the promoters of the road from Big Falls to road to Pine Island to the territory. The road to Pine Island was built this summer and it is a well known fact that its ultimate destination is Baudette. The building of the road from Loman to Goodridge will undoubtedly hasten the construction of the Pine Island road.

"Altogether the situation has taken on a very rosy hue, and the next few years will see a lot of railroad building and development in the district south of Baudette. It has already given the homesteaders new heart and will mean that the vast undeveloped empire south of Baudette will come into its own. It is an exceptionally easy country through which to build a railroad, and it is estimated that a big crew could construct three-quarters of a mile a day.

"The men purchasing the right of way state that they were more than pleased with the cooperation of the homesteaders, who did not in a single case try to hold them up for a high price and who in most cases volunteered to give the land necessary for the road."

Brief Council Sessions Held—Claim for Funds in Closed Bank to be Filed

The city council held a short meeting last Friday with Aldermen Oscar Rambeck and T. A. Fossum absent, adjournment being taken at nine o'clock until Tuesday night of this week.

The Trinity Lutheran church Sunday school was granted the use of the auditorium for Christmas night for their usual Christmas exercises; a resolution was passed, authorizing the levying of the special assessment for cutting the weeds the past year and shoveling snow a year ago, the total cost of which was a little over $200; an exceedingly long list of bills was allowed (the first this month); the appointment of Mrs. O. F. Mellby to succeed Mrs. E. O. Mogensen on the library board for the unexpired term was duly approved.

The council also instructed the city clerk and treasurer to execute and file proof of claims with the State Banking department for the $9,000 on deposit in the Citizens State bank when it closed Jan. 5. This in no manner releases the bondsmen, with whom the city treasurer was authorized to meet to arrange for a time for settlement.

The Tuesday night meeting of the city council was also a short one, alderman T. A. Fossum being the only absentee. Merely routine matters were up for consideration.

Supt. I. T. Simley and Coach L. A. Thune appeared before the alderman asking for free use of the auditorium for the basket ball games this winter, together with other nights for practice, and the request was granted, the coach being placed in charge of the building when used.

The free use of the auditorium was also granted for the big alfalfa meeting to be held here Dec. 11.

A milk dealer's license was granted Jens Klerk, a new dairyman living west of the city and having a herd of 20 cows, the application having been duly approved by City Dairy Inspector L. R. Twete.

The list of city bills was also given the customary allowance and the council adjourned at 9:30 till the next regular meeting, Dec. 9.

BIG INCREASE IN EXPRESS BUSINESS OFFICIALS REPORT

Improved Condition of Community Indicated—Poultry Shipments 80,000 Lbs. Daily

That conditions in this section are better this year than last is indicated by the increased business reported this fall by local officials of the American Railway Express company.

"The package express business has doubled since harvest time and the present volume is about four times that of last year's," states Oscar C. Paulson, agent of the office in this city.

Heavy shipments of poultry are also reported for the last week. From Monday, Nov. 17, to Monday of this week, inclusive, an average of 80,000 pounds of poultry from Thief River Falls and transfer points were handled each evening. Shipments are received here and transferred from points along the Duluth and Wheat lines and No. 112 on the Soo railway, a large proportion, however, being shipped by farmers in the vicinity of Thief River Falls. The company has been loading here one car to Chicago and another to Minneapolis daily.

Only 20 per cent of the turkey crop is shipped for the Thanksgiving market, it is estimated by Mr. Paulson, who predicts a huge business when the Christmas rush opens. "The Express company will maintain a thru-car service from Thief River Falls and connecting points to give patrons the best service possible for the Christmas rush to Chicago and eastern markets, which will start about Dec. 6," he announces. The force employed by the local office will also be increased.

With an increased volume of business officials of the local office are hampered on account of the small quarters, but are able to handle shipments in a very orderly manner.

Returns of from 36 to 40 cents a pound for express shipments of dressed turkeys are reported by Mr. Paulson.

Dr. Billings, U. of M. Expert, To Give Poultry Demonstrations Here Sat. Nov. 29

Dr. W. A. Billings, extension veterinarian of the University of Minnesota, will arrive in the city Saturday to spend a few days in the community testing poultry flocks for tuberculosis and conducting demonstrations.

Demonstrations will be conducted Saturday afternoon at the Hans Anton, W. I. McCrum and Owen Weckworth farms. It is urged that farmers who have flocks which they believe are infected notify County Agent J. J. McCann of this city. Few flocks in this vicinity have been tested in the past, and poultry men should make it a point to see this expert on poultry ailments. A talk on poultry diseases will be given by Dr. Billings Monday evening at the annual meeting of the Pennington County Poultry association. Dr. Billings will remain here over Monday.

People Are Urged to Send Christmas Packages Early

People are urged to mail their Christmas packages early this year in order that delivery may be insured on or before Christmas. Postmaster Daniel Shaw points out that packages mailed late clog the mail distributing system and result in many of the packages being delivered after Christmas. Owing to the small quarters occupied by the local post office early mailing will aid greatly in the handling of the mail here.

AUXILIARY AND LEGION HEADS COMING DEC. 5

President Spencer and Commander Lindell to Visit 1925 Convention City

TO CONSIDER PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR'S MEET

Big Mass Meeting May be Held at Auditorium to Hear State Leaders

Edwin L. Lindell of Minneapolis, commander of the Minnesota department of the American Legion, and Mrs. Milton Spencer of Winona, president of the Minnesota Legion Auxiliary, will visit Thief River Falls Friday of next week, Dec. 5, to meet with local Legion and Auxiliary members regarding plans for the 1925 state convention to be held in this city.

This will be the first visit of the state officers in Thief River Falls and is awaited with a great deal of interest among members of the two organizations and the general citizenry, which is being called upon to co-operate in making next year's convention a great success. It is expected that definite plans for the organization work preliminary to the convention will be lined up at this time.

It is planned to hold a big mass meeting at the auditorium in the evening, to which the general public will be invited to hear the Legion and Auxiliary leaders. Arrangements for the mass meeting and a banquet in their honor will be made at a meeting of the Eklund post Friday night, this week. It is also likely that Mrs. Spencer and Mr. Lindell will address various civic organizations of the city during their stay here. Every effort will be made by both organizations to entertain the distinguished guests in a fitting manner.

Details of the events decided upon for the occasion will be announced next week.

Many Being Vaccinated for Smallpox—No Cases in City

So far local health authorities have discovered no cases of the dread small pox in this city, which many towns and cities are contending with. Only two cases of scarlet fever are known and three cases of chicken pox in a mild form have been reported. The school nurse reports that school children are complying with the precautions of vaccination and physicians believe that in this manner, the epidemic may be avoided. The smallpox which has attacked many communities, is the black form, which is fatal in many cases. Local physicians are vaccinating up to 70 persons a day each.

One case of small pox is reported at St. Hilaire. From Jan. 1 to Nov. 15 there were 2,319 cases of small pox in Minnesota, the deaths totaling 121.

Contractor Finishes Graveling T. R. F.-St. Hilaire Road

Graveling of trunk highway No. 32 between this city and St. Hilaire was completed Saturday morning and the fleet of more than 20 trucks engaged by S. J. Reader of Minneapolis left that day for Red Lake Falls to work on the stretch north of that city, which it is expected will be completed in two-three weeks if the weather continues favorable. Crews are at work night and day, the north half of the job here being finished in an exceptionally short time.

The new road is one of the best constructed highways in the state and is a splendid improvement of the system in this section. The improved route will undoubtedly affect greater traffic on the Jefferson Highway thru this city next season and will provide easier winter traveling.

Vivid Account of Oscar Smith's Deer Hunt Given In Middle River Paper

The following under the caption of "Brave Commander Calls For Help," appeared in the Middle River Record last week:

"Oscar Smith, Commander of the Legion Post at Thief River Falls, and one of the bravest of the brave who followed the Stars and Stripes to France, ate TNT as his daily ration and quenched his thirst with nitroglycerine, lit his cigarettes with "liquid fire," played baseball with hand-grenades, picked his teeth with "dum-dum" bullets, awoke in the morning to the booming of the "Big Berthas" instead of the ringing of a "Big Ben," and was lulled to sleep in the evenings by the sweet music of the roaring hell of no-man's land. But times have changed. Oscar for once was scared—lost his nerve—and called for help—yea, hath even yelled lustily for assistance! Proceed:—

"Our hero was walking merrily through the woods, singing, whistling and chattering cheerfully to his companions, on a chase of the wild Eastern Marshall County Deer. Suddenly he stumbled over a reclining spruce and landed on something soft, furry, wooly—it moved—in his excitement he kicked at it viciously, rudely and thereby disturbed the peaceful slumbers of a big buck. Friend deer, decided there was only room for one in his chosen resting place and started to change his address to Greenland. Oscar gathered his wits—and his scattered belongings—picked himself up—and gazed for a moment at the fleeing beauty—suddenly his valuable training came to his assistance—"Halt, who goes there?" No answer. "Stop or I'll Shoot!" Shoot—that was the thing he had been trying to think of for the past three minutes! Up came the trusty Springfield! Boom! Down went Mr. Buck and Oscar yelled for help! Latest reports are that he will recover. Oscar, we mean."

FINE DISPLAY OF POULTRY AT SHOW HERE LAST WEEK

Kreuger of Plummer and Wm. Yonke Win Loving Cups. Many Special Prizes

Altho with a smaller number of entries than last year, the quality of birds displayed at the eighth annual show put on by the Pennington County Poultry association Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week, made the event one of the leading in the state, according to a statement by Ed. L. Hayes, judge of the exhibits. The display of more than 400 birds, all of best obtainable and representing a variety of breeds, was viewed with much interest and amazement by hundreds of townspeople and farmers.

Being held during the valley dairymen's convention, the show was also attended by a large number from outlying points, which will tend to spread the fame of Pennington county poultry far and wide.

Every coop in the spacious auditorium was filled, 65 per cent of the entries being by fanciers of this vicinity. There were but a few turkeys owing to their poor condition at this time.

The $50 silver loving cup awarded by the First and Peoples State bank for the best female in the show was won by G. A. Kreuger of Plummer, who had a display of White Rocks. This cup was won by Ed. Hance in 1920, Olaf Neset in 1921 and 1922 and L. A. Westphal in 1923. It has to be won three times before it becomes the property of the owner, as does also the cup offered by the Sunnyside Poultry Yards for the best S. C. W. Leghorn cockerel in the show, this year awarded to Wm. Yonke, who also won the cup in 1922 and 1923 and is now its permanent possessor.

The following were awarded cash specials for the best displays, a display consisting of not less than ten birds: Minorcas, Fred Dols; Plymouth Rocks, Mr. Kreuger; Wyandottes, L. A. Westphal; Rhode Island Reds, Olaf Neset; Leghorns, Mr. Yonke, Orpingtons, E. Ranum; turkeys, W. Janda; best dispuly in show, Mr. Yonke; second best display in show, Mr. Westphal; largest display, Mr. Janda.

A number of special prizes were awarded by business and professional men of the city, the winners and donors of which were Mr. Kreuger, $5.00 savings account, First National Bank, for best cockerel and W. J. Maland, for best pullet; Mr. Westphal, set of spoons, Olaf Neset, for best utility pen; Mr. Janda, rug, Larson Furniture Co., for largest display; Mr. Westphal, case of Del Monte fruit, Thief River Grocery Co., for second largest display; Mr. Janda, poultry feeder, Oen Mercantile Co., best Barred Rock cockerel; Mr. Westphal, set of spoons, F. J. Stebbins, for best cock bird; Mr. Kreuger, rug, J. C. Penney Co., for best hen; Mr. Kreuger, $5 saving account, Farmers & Merchants State bank, for best male; C. H. Fuller, Christenson Hardware Co., kettle, for best turkey; Mr. Kreuger, 3 years subscription to "Better Home and Garden," Dr. O. F. Mellby, for best White Rock cockerel; Olaf Neset, first aid kit, Dr. H. W. Froehlich, for best S. C. Rhode Island Red cockerel; Mr. Janda, leather bill fold, Dr. J. T. Bowers, for best Barred Rock pen. Sweepstakes were won by Westphal, Kreuger and Meland.

Liberal prizes were also given by the association, winners of which will be published next week.

In the junior club division prizes were won by Aeriel Westphal, Wyandottes; Clifford Froehlich, Jersey Giants; and Joan Neset, Rhode Island Reds.

President Olaf Neset and Secretary J. J. McCann are deserving of much credit for the success of the show.

Coffee Demonstration

White House Coffee and sandwiches will be served free to all comers at Oen's department store Friday and Saturday. It is announced elsewhere in this issue.

PENNINGTON COUNTY BANKERS LAUNCH ANOTHER BIG DRIVE FOR MORE ALFALFA ACREAGE

SAYS ALFALFA HAY AND WANT ADS PAY

O. N. Lawson of this city, who operates a farm seven miles southeast of this city, finds a profitable combination in alfalfa hay and Times want ads, and from a seven-acre crop of the former and 75 cents worth of the latter, he is on the better side of the fence to the tune of $187.

He harvested a good crop of alfalfa hay and after the haying season was over, advertised it for sale in the stack. A few days after the insertion of the ad, the hay was sold and Mr. Lawson had disposed of his entire crop, realizing better than $25 per acre. If you've got the stuff, The Times' Want Ads will sell it for you.

STATE AID IN COUNTY TOTALS NEARLY $30,000

High and Elementary Schools Get Less But Rural Districts More Than in 1923

$14,280 FOR SCHOOLS OF THIEF RIVER FALLS

More Tuition Money for Local District—61 Rural Schools Get Aid This Year

Pennington county schools will receive $29,862 in special aid for the school year ending July 31, 1924, from the state, according to a report received from J. M. McConnell, state commissioner of education, by Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools. This is a decrease of $1,658 from last year, when the total was $31,520. The drop is in aid to the high school and graded districts, Thief River Falls, St. Hilaire and Goodridge, which receive $2,612 less than in 1923, while the rural schools get $954 more this year. The total for the rural districts is $7,887, or 86 per cent of the entire sum received by the county.

The $14,280 credited to Independent district No. 18, Thief River Falls, is divided as follows: $1900 for flat aid, $2014 for teacher training, $585 for transportation, $1500 for special departments, and $8281 for tuition. In 1923 a total of $4037 was received for teacher training, and normal department of the local high school, the reduction this year being due to the fact that only one teacher was employed during the last term. The transportation item remains practically the same but the tuition money this year amounts to $875 more than for previous year. The state pays $7 for each non-district pupil. The aid to special departments was cut from $1985 in 1923 to $1500 this year because of a special legislative act reducing appropriations to special departments from $600 to $500 each.

Supplemental aid for the Thief River Falls district would amount to $23,163.88 this year, if paid in full. However, it is not expected that the schools will receive more than about one-half of what they are entitled to under the state laws because of failure of the state legislature to appropriate enough money at its last session, according to Supt. I. T. Simley, who states that only 53 per cent of the aid was received by the district last year. The supplemental aid is now being computed by the state department and will be made public later, the report states.

Of the two elementary districts in the county Goodridge receives $4,552—$800 for flat aid, $2653 for transportation and $1099 for tuition and St. Hilaire gets $3,143—$800 for flat aid, $775 for transportation and $1568 for tuition.

Many Districts Get $150

Last year only $33 was paid for transportation of isolated pupils in district No. 47, while this year districts No. 56 and 127 get $98 and $164, respectively.

Twenty-seven rural districts having a first grade teacher and an eight-months term receive $150 each or a total of $4,050. They are Nos. 2, 4, 6, 7, 12, 15, 25, 26, 31, 35, 37, 38, 50, 54, 55, 56, 59, 73, 125, 127, 133Jt, 135, 149, 165, 166, 178 and 219Jt. Last year there were 29 districts in this class.

Twenty-six districts having a first-grade teacher and seven months of school get $112.50 each or a total of $2,925. They are Nos. 3, 5, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 28, 29, 39, 41, 44, 47, 48, 51, 55, 57, 60, 64, 65, 68, 69, 147, 194 and 221. Last year 18 districts were in this class.

Only two districts are in the $100 class, having a second-grade teacher and eight-months term, namely Nos. 94 and 180. Last year there were no districts in this class, but seven in the $75 class of which there are six this year. Districts having second-grade teachers and seven-month term getting $100 each are Nos. 16Jt, 34, 42, 66, 99 and 154. Sixty-one rural districts receive aid this year compared to 54 last year.

Library Aid

District No. 18, Thief River Falls, receives the largest library aid, $195, Goodridge being next with $26.50 and St. Hilaire $19.50. Nos. 4 and 15 get $10 each and No. 66 gets $4.50. The following are allowed $5 each: Nos. 2, 3, 5, 7, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, 26, 29, 34, 38, 39, 41, 42, 48, 51, 53, 59, 60, 64, 65, 67, 69, 99, 127, 147, 149, 180, 194, 221, 228 and 153. Nos. 9, 35 and 50 receive $5.50 each.

Another Carload of Certified Grimm Seed Will Be Distributed Among Farmers

DEC. 11 TO BE ALFALFA DAY IN THIEF R. FALLS

Wallace, Jaffray, Lyman and Others Will Address Booster Meeting Here

December 11 is scheduled to be a red-letter day in the annals of alfalfa raising in Pennington county and surrounding territory. That is the date set for the biggest booster meeting ever held in Thief River Falls and promises to be "Alfalfa Day" in every sense of the word. Prominent speakers have been secured and the entire city and surrounding communities will join in paying tribute and learning more about alfalfa, the king of crops.

The big mass meeting is a feature of the second alfalfa campaign instigated by Pennington county bankers, bankers of eastern Marshall county also co-operating in this effort to increase the alfalfa acreage in this territory. The results of the last year's campaign headed by H. S. Dahlen of the First and Peoples State bank, T. M. Thronson of the First National bank and F. J. Stebbins brought such wonderful results that no hesitation was made in launching another at this time. An entire carload of certified Grimm seed was purchased and distributed thru the efforts of Pennington bankers last winter resulting in a gain of 6,000 acres in the county, making a total acreage of about 10,000. This year it is planned to increase the acreage another 10,000 acres, orders for 15,000 pounds already having been received as a part of the carload that will be shipped here for distribution this year. The seed purchases are financed by the banks but paid for by the farmers.

The phenomenal gains and the success experienced by farmers here in the raising of alfalfa clearly demonstrates the adaptability of the soil for this crop. It is pointed out that no movement ever started in Pennington county has had as far reaching results as the alfalfa campaign.

Afternoon and evening programs are being arranged for the "Alfalfa Day" celebration Dec. 11, and plans are being made to decorate the city appropriately for the occasion.

A huge alfalfa "palace" may be built on one of the city's squares. Speakers secured for the occasion are among the most prominent men in the country. They include:

Dan Wallace, editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, brother of the late Secretary of Agriculture Wallace, and considered for appointment as his successor.

C. T. Jaffray, president of the Soo Line and head of the Agricultural Credit corporation.

A. B. Lyman of Excelsior, alfalfa culturist and grower of pure Grimm seed, from whom seed was bought for distribution here. Mr. Lyman was a visitor in the city Saturday.

O. H. Smith, state immigration commissioner.

Other speakers are also being lined up. Representatives of the twin city papers will attend the meeting to spread the news of this important event.

Banks of Thief River Falls, Goodridge, St. Hilaire, Hazel, Newfolden Holt and Grygla were represented at a meeting held in this city Monday to consider plans for the campaign and booster meeting.

Prizes will be awarded to pupils in the Pennington or Marshall county rural schools submitting the best alfalfa song and slogan.

Sanatorium Will Have Radio Soon

The Thief River Music company has been awarded the contract for installing the radio receiving set at the Oakland Park sanatorium and installation will begin next week, according to present plans. The set selected is a six tube Super-Heterodyne and including thirty-five head phones, will cost approximately $500, which has been raised by the local W. C. T. U.

Stores Closed Today

Business places of Thief River Falls are closed today in observance of Thanksgiving and everyone is given opportunity to enjoy a holiday. Special services are held in the local churches.

O. R. Sande Not Eligible Legion Commander; Another Election Next Friday Nite

Ole R. Sande, elected commander of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion, at a meeting two weeks ago, cannot serve the post in that capacity, owing to restrictions in the department constitution barring renumerative, elective public officials from acting as officers of Legion posts, and as a result a meeting of post members will be held Friday night, Nov. 28, to elect a commander for the coming year. Mr. Sande is superintendent of the county schools and as such cannot be elected to the commandership, for the past year held by Oscar Smith.

Another important matter scheduled for consideration Friday night is the matter of making arrangements for the visit of State Legion Auxiliary Commander Mrs. Milton Spencer of Winona and State Legion Commander Edwin Lindell of Minneapolis who will be in Thief River Falls Dec. 5 in the interest of the 1925 state convention to be held here.

The membership drive will also be launched at this time and it is urgently requested by Legion officers that all members report on duty Friday night.

Small Crowd Hears Concert By Noted Danish Violinist

Axel Skovgaard, talented Danish violinist, and his wife, a pianist of unusual ability, appeared in a concert at the Sons of Norway hall Thursday night but were heard by but a small audience. There being so few listeners a short program was given. The selections played by Skovgaard with a most artistic touch as well as the piano numbers by Madame McClung-Skovgaard were received with the greatest enthusiasm and appreciation. The most difficult classics were executed in a masterful way and the more simple music produced with a tonefulness that but an artist can bring forth. It is to be regretted that so few attended this concert, which was regarded by those who understand music as one of the leading musical events of the season.

"Babcock Test" History

Stephen Moulton Babcock of the University of Wisconsin, who gave the dairy industry the "Babcock test" to measure the richness of milk in 1890, is still hale and hearty at the age of 81. He invented the test while in the service of the state and for that reason refused to patent it. The world began using it at once without paying any royalty. But it paid him richly in honor. No doubt he feels better over the grand prize of honor given by France in 1900 and a similar recognition from his own country in 1904 than he could possibly have felt if he had feathered his nest with the sale of patent rights. Among his possessions are three paintings and water colors of dairy scenes sent him from New Zealand and Australia.—Lincoln Journal.

TYPICALLY AMERICAN

The bitter winter of the Pilgrims' first year in America reduced the number of colonists by almost half. One hundred and one came over on the Mayflower, but only 55 remained to enjoy the summer, when nature smiled on them.

The crops were bountiful and their hearts were filled with the spirit of hope and thankfulness. To give thanks to a kindly providence that had rewarded their labor, the first real harvest festival was held in America in 1621. It was instituted by Governor Bradford, the first governor of the Massachusetts colony.

Thus originated Thanksgiving Day as we know it in America. It slowly spread to the other colonies, and since 1863, when President Lincoln issued a proclamation calling on the people to observe the day, his example has been followed by each succeeding president, the last Thursday in November being chosen as Thanksgiving day and observed as a holiday throughout the union.

It is typically American, celebrated throughout the width and breadth of the land. It breathes the spirit of America and keeps alive a tradition that has been handed down to us by those truly thankful colonists who braved the perils of an unexplored land that they might be free to worship as they pleased and work out their own destiny, unhindered by the whims of those who believed themselves divinely ordained to rule.

Its significance may be lost to some extent in the present generation, but the church and the schools have kept alive the fine sentiment that it typifies and good Americans will continue to teach their children the true meaning of the holiday.

It is a time for counting our blessings, one by one. It is a season to give thanks to a good Ruler who has blessed us in larger measure than we have deserved. It is a day for looking hopefully into the future and preparing to merit blessings that will be the reward of honest work and right living.

Education Week should be made the means of setting forth the school viewpoint and bringing about a more hearty response from the school patrons to the school program. Visit the school and see for yourself what is being done. This is a means of showing the proper interest in the welfare of your children.

Much work was done by the officers who served the local American Legion post the past year, particularly in the seemingly impossible task of landing the 1925 state convention for Thief River Falls, for which the set of officers was to a large extent responsible. They worked hard and under the enthusiastic leadership of Commander Smith have brought the Thief River Falls post to the front. The efficient and energetic men who have been placed in charge of Legion affairs here during the coming year will undoubtedly bring laurels to this city as host to Minnesota Legionaires in August, 1925. The utmost confidence is placed in these men that they will work in the best interests of the community and that they will direct Legion activities in such a manner that the organization will be a beneficial and helpful agency in the upbuilding and progress of this city and surrounding country, and its citizens. The Legion can do a tremendous work in community service; as defenders and builders of the nation in time of peace.

Even tho no cases of smallpox have been discovered in Thief River Falls or immediate vicinity, the precaution of vaccination is not to be disregarded. People should not delay in being vaccinated in order to insure the community against the epidemic, which is of the most dread, the black smallpox. Thief River Falls has been unusually free from contagious diseases during the past summer and fall but smallpox has broken out in cities south of here, many fatalities being reported.

The health authorities urge that every person who has never been vaccinated before be vaccinated at once, and that those who have been vaccinated or had smallpox more than four years ago be revaccinated.

Even tho grain farmers did well this year it must be remembered that bumper crops are not harvested every year. Stick by the dairy cow. Get good ones and more of them. The value of high grade stock has been demonstrated by numerous farmers in this community and should encourage others to get in line.

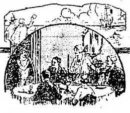
Farmers in attendance at the Dairymen's convention last week learned a great deal about the proper care of Bossy and returned to their respective farms with many new ideas which will help them in getting bigger returns from their herds.

The state health department urges that people get as much fresh air as possible. One way to heed this admonition is to have a skating rink.

This country needs less propaganda and more good, solid, loyal American citizenship.

Community improvement, like physical improvement, comes from exercise. Somebody has to do something.

Some folks never resist temptation because they are afraid that it will never come again.



254 Thanksgiving Days
Until We Had Telephones

A struggling little group of Pilgrim colonists at Plymouth, Massachusetts, founded Thanksgiving Day in 1621. It was 254 years later, in 1875, that the telephone was born.

The Pilgrims led a rigorous life beset with dangers and hardships. Their only means of communication called for tedious journeys on foot over unbeaten trails or along the treacherous waters of an uncharted coast.

Today, we commemorate Thanksgiving with all the conveniences of modern civilization, and the celebration is a much more joyous occasion because of them.

We are now a nation of 110 million people, spread over a land 3,000 miles from coast to coast. But we are all linked together by 36 million miles of wire of the Bell System and connecting companies, so that everyone may talk to anyone, anywhere.

PENNINGTON DAIRY MEN PLAN TO FORM COW TESTING ASS'N

Meeting to Perfect Organization Will be Held Here Next Friday Afternoon

That a Pennington County Cow Testing association will be a reality is now practically certain as a result of a talk given by L. V. Wilson, dairy specialist at the University of Minnesota, at the dairymen's convention in this city last week, and the action of progressive farmers of this community. About 20 farmers have already pledged themselves to join the association and it is expected that the necessary 26 will have been lined up by Friday, Nov. 28, when a meeting will be held at the Commercial club rooms for the purpose of perfecting the organization. The meeting is scheduled to be held at 1:30 p. m.

A committee composed of S. E. Hunt, chairman, Stuart McLeod, Herbert Fuller, Paul Engelstad, Hans Anton and County Agent J. J. McCann was named at the dairymen's convention last week to line up the necessary membership, make plans for the organization and present a set of by-laws to the meeting Friday.

The plan is for the association to employ a man who will spend one day each month on each farm, testing and measuring the milk produced by each cow, which will enable the member to determine whether or not his cows are returning a profit. The man employed by the association will be one who is an expert in the work and recognized by the state department, which will have a bearing on the sale of the animals on test. He will not only take care of the testing but will also assist members in feeding and preparing balanced rations for their cows. With a membership of 26 the cost to each member will be $3.00 a month, it is pointed out.

Of the 2,000,000 cows in Minnesota only 31,000 are on test, 30,000 of which are tested thru testing associations, Mr. Wilson told dairymen at the meeting last week. In pointing out the benefits of such an organization he cited instances where unprofitable cows had been discovered thru this method, and the productiveness in many instances increased by proper feeding.

Sales of cows tested in testing associations show that their sales value increases from $20 to $50 a head, he declared in speaking of the benefits of the records.

An effort was made to organize an association in this county a few years ago but the movement did not materialize at that time.

"Jens" Erickson Dies Sat. After Two Months Illness

Olaf J. "Jens" Erickson, for 25 years a resident of Thief River Falls, died at a Warren hospital Saturday evening, Nov. 22, at 6:15 o'clock after a two weeks' confinement there and two months illness, death being caused by bloodpoisoning from an abcess of the stomach.

Mr. Erickson was born in Offerdahl, Sweden, June 26, 1891, and came to Thief River Falls in 1900 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Erickson, the latter of whom died Nov. 28, 1923. He married Miss Alice Hawkins of this city nine years ago. The past two years he has been engaged in selling insurance, recently for the Old Colony Life company. Prior to that he was employed on the rip track on the Soo Line. In the winter of 1923 he served as clerk in the senate in St. Paul. He was also engaged as a surveyor by Drainage Engineer Geo. Walker a number of years ago.

To mourn his passing he leaves his father, wife, three children, Elaine, 8 years, Lucille, 6, and Helen, 2, and a brother, Nels, and two sisters, Mrs. William Fitzgerald of Craik, Sask., and Mrs. Charles Ryan, St. Vincent.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist church yesterday, Rev. J. T. Dixon and Rev. O. J. Lundell officiating and interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Those who attended the funeral were Mrs. Fitzgerald, who arrived on Monday; Mrs. Ryan, who arrived a month ago to assist in the care of her brother; Mr. and Mrs. Christ Brandvik and Mrs. Johanna Hawkins of Harwood, N. D., Mrs. E. A. Arnberg and Nels Kleppe of Averill and Mrs. Emil Hawkins and Mr. Bueing and son of Twin Valley.

A large circle of friends extend to the bereaved family condolences and sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

Members of the resolutions committee were L. Jensen, Paul Engelstad, J. R. Bloomquist, Elis Grahn and H. M. Magneson.

83 Holt Patrons Attended

The creamery association of Holt, 12 miles north of this city, was awarded the silver trophy loving cup for the largest representation at the convention, 83 patrons being in attendance. The Rindahl association, about 60 miles distant, had 32 members and was awarded a cup as a second prize. P. L. Anderson, operator of the Holt creamery and Fritz Wahlin of Rindahl were given much praise for the interest created among the patrons of the respective creameries. Plummer was represented by 26 patrons, Goodridge 17 and Hazel 14. Holt won third place at the Crookston meeting last year.

In the butter makers' judging contest first honors went to B. J. Omodt of Flom, second to J. C. Woeste of Calloway and third to Richard Nelson of Maple Bay.

Winners of the dairymen's contests who were awarded liberal prizes were announced in last week's issue. The Rindahl and Pelican Rapids creameries led in the most contests.

Butter experts complimented buttermakers of the 17 valley counties who entered tubs in the scoring contest, upon the fine quality of their butter, declaring that Red River Valley butter will displace Red River Valley wheat in reputation in the world. Seventy 20-pound tubs were entered in the contest won by J. J. Harms of Dent with a score of 93 3-4. Scores of buttermakers in this vicinity not mentioned last week are: Harold Olson, Barnesville, 92½; Gunsten Bergland, Thief River Falls, 92½; Albert Martin, Plummer, 90½; Henry Anderson, Viking, 92; J. C. Hendrickson, Red Lake Falls, 91 3-4; A. J. Hed, St. Hilaire, 91½; O. C. Peterson, Hazel, 92; P. L. Anderson, Holt, 91 3-4; O. N. Rhodegaard, Newfolden, 91½.

Richard Houske, Halstad, a brother of Secretary Houske, scored 98 per cent in the herd record contest, but would have been given 100 per cent grade if he had as many cows as others in the contest. There were 13 entries, among them being Fred Cuno, P. Johnson and G. Lee of Grygla.

Many Silos in Ottertail

Ninety-four out of 136 patrons of the Ottertail creamery are using silos, one of the contests showed, while 23 of the 257 patrons of Bagley creamery built silos during 1924.

Co-operation and better understanding between the creamery operators and creamery association boards was urged by James Sorenson, secretary of the Minnesota Creamery Operators' association, in his talk Thursday morning. The operators are experts in their work, he said, and are striving for more efficiency and better quality of butter, the buttermakers of this section being among the best in the country.

Inability of C. C. Kershaw of St. Paul to be present caused substitution of O. A. Storvick of Albert Lea, who spoke on "Boiler Operation, Care and Abuse" and related some of his experiences as one of the first inspectors in this district in the pioneer days.

Promotion of boys' and girls' club work, particularly in the dairy calf division, was urged by A. J. Kittelson, Crookston, district club leader. The value of club work was pointed out and individuals called upon to become leaders in their respective communities.

Wild Hay Expensive

The value of alfalfa hay and silage as feed for livestock was emphasized in a talk on feeding trials at the Northwest Experiment Station, Crookston, by O. M. Kiser, animal husbandry instructor. The experiment tried at the Northwest station was made with 28 young steers, divided into four groups, each of which received different rations. Group 1 was fed alfalfa, corn silage and oat straw; group 2, sweet clover, corn silage and oat straw; group 3, sweet clover and oat straw; and group 4, oat straw and wild hay, the latter of which was upland hay from a Pennington county farm near Goodridge.

Groups 1 and 2 made practically the same gain, but more than three times as much as the animals in group 4, where little gain was made, the test showed. It was pointed out that wild hay is expensive feed for fattening, as the gain is so small. Where silage is added to a ration feed costs are reduced, Mr. Kiser stated.

Alfalfa was also emphasized as the best feed for dairy cows by Hans Anton, successful dairyman near Thief River Falls, who spoke interestingly on the subject of "Feeding the Dairy Herd for Production." He cited a number of his own experiences, urging farmers to take good care of their stock if they expect to get profitable returns.

The address on co-operative marketing of poultry and eggs by A. McPheeters, manager of the state association is given elsewhere in this issue, other features of the programs being given in last week's issue of The Times.

Next year's convention city will be decided later by the officers of the association, Crookston and Detroit having extended invitations.

A total of 250 members, 50 more than at any other convention, were signed up here by "Dad" M. J. Cort, former creamery supply salesman and veteran organizer of creameries in this section.

The Baltimore jury evidently didn't think the Volstead act applied to congress, who enacted it.

Schools of Beltrami county received $56,801, Bemidji getting $12,431, while the total received by Marshall county is $56,907, Warren receiving $9,000. Roseau county gets $19,384. More than 6,000 districts in the state will share in the $4,458,455 distributed by the state auditor. The money will be received here as soon as the local county treasurer submits the settlement of tax money, which will be done this month.

Minnesota during the past year raised $57,789,194 for educational purposes, or an increase of 94 per cent as compared to the amount raised in the state ten years ago, according to a compilation of reports in the office of Ray P. Chase, state auditor. There are 7,876 districts in the state.

The average local tax rate for the maintenance of the high and graded elementary school districts of the state is 34.8 mills, and the average local tax rate for ungraded elementary schools is 12.51 mills.

ENUMERATORS TAKE FARM CENSUS HERE

Agricultural Census Covers Many Phases of Farm Activities and Conditions

Organization has now been completed for the farm census by the Department of Commerce, covering the crop year 1924 and relating to conditions on or near January 1, 1925. This is the first census of agriculture taken between the decennial censuses, an act of Congress authorizing that there should be stock-taking every five years. The work of taking the census will begin generally thruout the country on December 1, and is to be completed on or before January 31. As rapidly as possible after the blanks are returned, statements will be released for the press by the Census Bureau, relative to production of the principal farm crops and the values of farm properties, including land, buildings, machinery and livestock.

The enumeration will require the services of 15,000 to 20,000 enumerators acting under the direction of 212 supervisors. Hart Momsen of Bemidji has been appointed supervisor of the First and Second districts of Minnesota, comprised of the following 14 counties: Pennington, Beltrami, Clearwater, Itasca, Kittson, Koochiching, Mahnomen, Marshall, Norman, Polk, Red Lake, Roseau, Lake of the Woods and St. Louis. These two districts contain 26,136 farms according to the 1920 census, about 150 enumerators having been appointed here.

Enumerators are now busy in the six Pennington county districts, some of them having started the latter part of October. They are: S. E. Hunt of Thief River Falls, Black River, River Falls and Rocksbury townships and St. Hilaire village; R. J. McKercher, of St. Hilaire, Bray, Numedal, Sanders and Polk Centre townships; Chas. Thompson of Goodridge, Cloverleaf, Kratka, Silverton and Smiley townships; Paul Borgie of Hazel, Deer Park, Hickory, Mayfield and Wyandotte townships; Stuart McLeod of Goodridge, Goodridge, Highlanding and Star townships. The enumerator in the district comprising Norden and North townships and the city of Thief River Falls has not been announced yet.

Sample questionnaires have been widely distributed to the farmers, the census covering the farm population only. Heretofore the farm census has been taken together with a complete census of population.

The schedule calls for the amount of taxes paid by the farm operator on farm property, including real estate tax, personal property tax, and special assessments. It is important to ascertain just what the burden of taxation resting upon the farm really is and how it compares with the amount of taxes paid by other interests. This may point the way to a more equitable adjustment of the tax burden.

The extent to which farm operators used the purchasing and selling facilities of farmers' organizations will be brought out by two inquiries; one calling for the value of products of the farm sold through a farmers' marketing organization, and the other calling for the value of all farm supplies purchased from or through a farmers' organization. An additional index to the marketing conditions will be brot out by answers to inquiries as to the kind of road adjoining the farm, whether concrete, brick, macadam, gravel, improved dirt, or unimproved dirt, and the distance to the nearest market town. Through inquiries of this character the Census seeks to secure information relative to conditions upon which to a considerable degree the success of farm operation depends.

Says He'll Hike to Coast

John A. Stahlberg of Karlstad, according to the Karlstad Advocate, will leave shortly for the Pacific coast, via Denver, Col., Phoenix, Ariz., San Diego and San Francisco, a distance of 2200 miles, for his health's sake, and says he will do it without the assistance of the railroads and commercial busses. He doesn't intend to refuse any kindly motorist who may chance his way and "give him a lift," but is depending mainly on his own motive power.

He has it doped out that he will be able to cover about 30 or 40 miles per day and even without an occasional ride, will make the trip in three months.

On Thanksgiving Day, and the following day there is no school in Lincoln High. On these two days the students and the teachers will have time to go to their homes and have a Thanksgiving turkey and the other goodies which generally grace the table at that time. But not only should we stuff ourselves with those things which are delightful to the palate, but we should consider what the day really means. We should consider the suffering of the Pilgrim fathers in the first year of their arrival on this soil, and the hardships that they had to undergo before they could have a great holiday which has been proclaimed as a national one by the President of the United States. We are blessed with good health and a clear brain, and far more important—We are the citizens of a free nation which is the richest in the world today. We should thank the Almighty that we are not a people living on the devastated soils of Europe without anything to eat and without a bed to sleep upon.

After all these considerations, then we can, in a more thoughtful manner, be thankful that we may be allowed to eat our Thanksgiving turkey.

Walking through the halls, and back and forth to school, we hear quite a few of the students, most Freshmen, complaining about the work being too hard. We ask anyone of them where he was last night. "Oh," he answers, "I was at the show last night, and didn't get in until late, and then I was so tired out I couldn't study." And so it is with the rest of them, they "don't find time to study." No, they don't find time to study, but when a good show comes along, there is always time to see it. They find time to stay on the streets up to the late hours of the night—but there simply is no time for study for them. This is wrong. You who are contemplating on quitting school should think it over first, and consider if it will be beneficial for you to quit school. Would you throw away your future, because one subject bothers you, would you throw away your obligations that you owe to your parents who send you here to school, because you don't like to study? Again—think it over.

Mayor Arneson Gives Interesting Assembly Talk

During the regular chapel period Friday morning the student body was fortunate to be able to hear two good speakers. Because it was Physical Education day of Education Week, Thomas Melgaard appropriately gave a short, interesting speech on that subject. Mayor J. S. Arneson then gave an address in which he, in an interesting and instructive way, made a successful effort to impress upon his listeners his knowledge of education and habits which he had learned thru a half century of experience.

Courtesy and a thorough knowledge of the work in hand were attributes that he especially stressed a student should have. One of the outstanding rules that we should follow he declared was: "Never to be satisfied with one's self, but to always strive to do and to be something bigger than any other person. This rule has been the basis of the success of many great people, in the way that it has always spurred them on to do something bigger and better than they had ever done before." The cigarette habit that is so generally prevalent in the younger generation of today, was especially attacked by Mr. Arneson. He stated that in an overwhelming number of cases many young men lose their chances to get good positions or to succeed in their chosen life work because of their cigarette smoking habit. The person who is addicted to cigarettes often is of a very nervous and weak temperament and because of this fact, it is undesirable to have persons of this kind in the office forces and in public places, as it gives a very poor appearance.

MORE THAN 1,400 PUPILS MARCH IN PARADE THURSDAY

Parade Brings Out Reasons for Education Week—Country Meetings Well Attended

When more than 1400 young Americans in the grades and high school of Thief River Falls, accompanied by their teachers, passed in parade thru the business section of the city last Thursday afternoon, local people understood why it is timely to observe National Education Week and give thought to the schools. This was the second parade of this kind staged under the direction of I. T. Simley, superintendent of the city schools, and his staff of teachers, and proved an impressive event in demonstrating to school patrons the size of the local system, reasons why a large portion of the tax money is spent for the schools.

The line of youngsters was four blocks long, three and four abreast, and all marched like soldiers, from the first graders to the high school students. Appropriate banners were carried, on which were slogans such as "Children Today, Citizens Tomorrow," "We are Your Children," "Can You Expect to Educate Us Without Money?" "It Costs but Aren't We Worth It?" and numerous others. Pupils of the Central School were dressed up in special caps and the Knox pupils carried flags and sleeve emblems.

After parading thru the city and viewed by hundreds of parents and friends the pupils gathered on the High school grounds where they passed in review before the school board members, the mayor, superintendent and principal of the high school, and representatives of the American Legion and local newspapers, the flag retreat closing the event.

Supt. Simley and his associates are well pleased with results of the special week, during which visiting the schools by parents and patrons was particularly urged. Many persons who had never visited the schools before came as a result of the publicity thru the newspapers, special programs in the schools and talks by members of the high school public speaking class and representatives of civic organizations at the theatre each evening last week.

Highly gratifying results are also reported from the rural districts, community meetings being held in 14 out of the 17 sections into which the county is divided. Able speakers were provided and the large attendance at each meeting evidenced interest in educational matters. O. R. Sande, superintendent of the county schools declares that the week was decidedly worth while and that he is highly pleased with the way in which parents responded to the movement.

Speeches on Education Week Given by Students

Each day last week was specificially set aside for some certain definite phase of education and accordingly on these days the student-body and theatre-goers were favored with short appropriate talks given by members of the public speaking classes. A period of ten minutes was cut from the morning classes of that week to allow time for the speaker of the day to address the assembly.

On Monday, known as Constitution Day, Maurice Holzknecht delivered a very interesting talk to the students on the real meaning and value of a good Constitution such as the citizens of this country now boast of. At the Lyceum Theatre on the evening of the same day Emmett Shanahan spoke on the above topic. Tuesday Ruby Aaseby gave a speech on the meaning conveyed behind our national symbol, the American flag, while Lylian Arnold took up that topic before the audience at the school-house that night.

Ruth Mellby spoke Wednesday at the school and theatre on the subject of "Patriotism." On the following day Ward Mathewson and Birdie Pierson did honor to the public speaking classes in their talks on "Illiteracy" as it exists in this country. On Friday Thomas Melgaard spoke on the topic of the day, namely—Physical Education. Jesse Joyce was the speaker of the evening.

BASKET BALL TEAM BEGINS PRACTISING

Two Letter Men of Last Year on Squad—Penney elected Captain of Team

Last Saturday afternoon basket ball practice was started in earnest in the high school gymnasium. A squad of 15 men was picked by Coach Leonard E. Thune, two of this squad are lettermen of last year. They are, Michael Parenteau and Arthur Penney. At a meeting of the squad Arthur Penney was elected to the position of captain of the team for the coming year. He is a very good man for connecting with the hoop for counters. Last year he made nearly half of the points which the locals ran up against their opponents. Especially is he a fast man on the floor, with his accurate passing and lightning-like speed. Not only is Penney the captain of this year's outfit, but he was also captain of last year's team also. In the history of the school there has not been a player who has been captain of his team for two years in succession.

The schedule as yet for the year is tentative, but will be announced definitely in the near future in this paper. It is hoped that basket ball will continue through the Christmas vacation and that a series of games will be played then. As a feature an effort is being made to have the Moorhead high school basket ball team come up here during the vacation days. Moorhead last year was the runner-up in the State tournament held in Minneapolis last March. Two Harbors beat them in the finals by a close score. It is also interesting to note that the coach at Moorhead is a brother of Coach Thune here. If this game can be arranged, it will undoubtedly be one of the best played here during the coming season. Whether this game can be booked will be announced later on.

The inter-class basketball will be conducted the same as last year. Each class will be given two days of the week for practice. All the members of the classes can try out for the first few weeks. Coach Thune will then pick a squad from each of the classes and then they will practice two days a week.

Grade school basketball practice will be conducted whenever the gymnasium is available for the use of the grade boys. After a few months of practice for them a tournament similar to last year will be held wherein all the grades will make an effort for the grade school title.

High School Debate Team

At the final debate try-out which was held between the eight who were successful in the preliminary contests, the following were selected by the judges to be on the first team in debating at Thief River Falls: Lylian Arnold, Emmett Shanahan, Ward Mathewson and Thomas Melgaard, first alternate.)

The people who acted as judges were Rev. Charles Gerlinger, Supt. Ole R. Sande, and Principal Morris Bye. The judges were instructed to consider both subject matter and form of delivery, however, delivery was to be considered secondary. A large crowd of townspeople and students were present at the debate and all enjoyed it immensely. The participants in the contest deserve a great deal of credit for the way they delivered their speeches and for the subject-matter therein.

PERSONALS

Among those who visited school last Friday were: Mrs. Green, Mrs. Hovie, Mrs. Shaw, Misses Hazelle Fricker and Mae Kenney, and Mr. Guss.

Miss Eva Ayers spent the week-end at the home of Miss Manda Kilen who lives near Kratka.

Miss Myrtle Hofdahl resumed her duties at school after a few days absense on account of the illness of her mother.

Miss Hilda Waale spent the week-end at her parental home near Kratka.

Fortune smiles on some people because they never frown at it, but grab at it.

Folks born without a silver spoon in their mouth may find consolation in the fact that they migh have choked to death on it.

"Herb" Keene Editor of "Wizard"

Herbert Keene, a former student of Lincoln high, and who is now attending school at Edison in Minneapolis, is making as great a mark in that school as he did here. The "Edison Record" states in its last issue that Herb is captain of the 1924-1925 basket ball team of his school and also is editor-in-chief of the "Wizard," a publication of Edison high. Herb was selected to represent the "Wizard" at the fourth annual convention of the Interscholastic Press association to be held in Madison, Wis., this year.

Through the "Progress" Coach Leonard E. Thune wishes to express his appreciation of the enthusiasm shown at the foot ball games held here this fall by the high school students and the citizens of the city as well. Mr. Thune states that there were never less than 125 students at the games this fall, while last year there was at one game only 25 students there and only a handful of townspeople. It is hoped that during the season of basketball even more interest will be shown towards high school athletics. This should be the case, for in this section of the state that sport has far more popularity than is shown in football. This may be on account of the weather and the desires of the people of the community.

Popularity of Education

Education has become popular. The large increase in attendance at colleges and universities in recent years and the vast sums being expended for modern high school buildings has raised the question whether education is being overdone. Complaint comes from taxpayers that the present pace cannot continue, and there are those who question the value of giving a college education to so large a portion of our population. We do not intend to settle these questions. We might suggest, should the demand for a college education become too great, a natural elimination of incapable students would solve one of these problems. The situation challenges us as college students to answer individually the question, "Are you worth educating?"—Concordian.

Being courteous is much more to one's credit than merely being respectable.

Livestock Conditions Reviewed

J. S. Montgomery, manager of the Central Cooperative Commission association, of South St. Paul, reports that owing to heavy receipts of cattle from North Dakota and from Montana, the cattle market has been seriously depressed. He advises, therefore, that shippers from local territory in Minnesota hold back shipments until the western run is cleared up, which will be about December 1.

"About this time of the year," said Mr. Montgomery, "there is a severe discrimination against light weight hogs—those weighing from 100 to 190 pounds. Such animals should be held for a little more weight."

In Mr. Montgomery's opinion this is a most desirable time to buy stocker and feeder cattle, as the market has apparently reached the lowest point it is likely to touch.

Road Bonds Voted

The county board of Norman county last week voted a $250,000 bond issue for improvement of trunk highways Nos. 6 and 31. This is pleasing news to motorists who have traveled over Norman county roads following heavy rains.

State Butter Co-operative Will Oppose Freight Rise

The Minnesota Cooperative Creameries association is on record as opposing the increase in freight rates which the western railroads are preparing to ask for the Interstate Commerce Commission, on the ground that such an increase will add 25 per cent, or an average of 45 cents a hundred pounds, to the freight on butter.

"The Association is going to head off this increase if there is any possible way of doing it," said Manager A. J. McGuire. "We believe butter is now paying more than its share for transportation. The cost of shipping a carload of butter to New York runs as high as $1,000. A representative of the Association's traffic department is now in Chicago protesting this increase in freight."

New $250,000 Power House At Red Lake Falls Running

After using steam-generated electricity from Grand Forks since the destruction of the generators at the power house in Red Lake Falls last January, that city is again using homemade current from its new powerhouse constructed by the Red River Power company at a cost of about $250,000. Two 375 kilowatt generators have been installed but due to the low water in the Red Lake river only one is being run at present at a rate of 300 kilowatts. Richard Lange, formerly chief operator for the Northern States Power company's plant in Chippewa Falls, Wis., has arrived to take charge of the plant, which includes the best equipment obtainable.

Milestones of Service

THIS rioting, pushing, fast-stepping age of ours, with all its complexity, concentration and achievements, never could have attained its present development had it not been for petroleum and the long list of useful products which stem from this one widely distributed raw material.

Today, when almost everything we do, from the felling of trees to the keeping of accounts, is accomplished with mechanical assistance, the refining of crude oil and the compounding of the numberless products derived from this base is one, if not the most essential of all industries.

From crude petroleum come the most readily procured, best and cheapest lubricating oils and greases, and from the same source we get gasoline, the most economical, most mobile and most compact source of power yet discovered.

In the upbuilding of this great industry the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been a pioneer; an advanced worker on the forefront of progress.

Today, skillful, highly trained men working with every facility which science, or their own ingenuity can suggest, are striving to perfect still further, the scores of useful products going to the public under the brands of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

Throughout the ten middle western states in which this company maintains distributing facilities, is an ever-growing organization working, building to insure every person in the territory getting standardized, superior quality petroleum products he needs, when and where he wants them.

And always the company is looking forward, building and training for the years to come.

Office boys of thirty years ago are Directors of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) today—office boys of today are being schooled, trained and developed for places on the Board thirty years from now.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of the record it has made in keeping ahead of the times, and believes that each progressive step has been marked by a milestone of service to the thirty million people of the Middle West.

Gets Deer With Cow Catcher

It was 10:50 p. m. November 20 and the southbound Soo flier from Winnipeg was more than an hour late. The deer hunting season would be over in an hour and ten minutes, and Engineer John Mitchell had not laid off to get his deer.

Out of the darkness leaped a fine large buck, half a mile beyond the city limits. It was impossible to stop the train within the short distance intervening.

Engineer Mitchell reported the "killing" to the switch crew who went out and brot in the carcass.

HELP FOR OLD FOLKS

Old Age Should Be Happy—Not a Time of Sickness and Suffering.

Too many people begin to suffer at middle age with constant backache, urinary ills and rheumatic pains and aches. Weak kidneys are usually the cause and, if neglected, there is danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Help your weakened kidneys with a stimulant diuretic before kidney disease gets a firm hold. Use Doan's Pills. Thousands of old folks recommend Doan's. Here is Thief River Falls proof:

John Aase, farmer, says: "A cold settled on my kidneys and caused trouble when I was working. When I stooped, my back was so stiff and lame it was hard for me to get up again. I felt tired before my work was half finished. Doan's Pills, from Newell's Drug Store, cured me."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mr. Aase had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

BEET GROWING GIVEN IMPETUS THRU BIG DEAL

American Beet Sugar Co., of New York Buys 3 Northwest Concerns for $4,500,000

PURCHASE INCLUDES RED RIVER COMPANY

Deal Will Influence Growth of Industry Here—May Mean Factory for T. R. F.

A transaction of far reaching importance to the Red River valley was consumated last week when the American Beet Sugar company of New York agreed to purchase two Minnesota and one Iowa beet sugar company with headquarters in Minneapolis at a cost of $4,500,000. The purchase will be a cash transaction, $2,900,000 for the Northern Sugar Corporation with factory in Mason City, Iowa, and $1,500,000 to $1,600,000 for the Minnesota Sugar Company with factory in Chaska, the announcement in Sunday's Minneapolis Journal states. The Red River Sugar company, a newly formed concern with undeveloped properities at East Grand Forks, owned jointly by the Northern and Minnesota companies, will also be included in these prices.

With the work started by the Red River company at East Grand Forks carried out by the American Beet Sugar company, one of the leading concerns in the country, it is expected that much larger supplies of sugar beets will be required from the territory immediately surrounding and, if additional plants are installed, further acreage in Northern Minnesota will be secured. No mention is made of leases on additional properties, but there is talk of establishing a plant at Moorhead and this will probably be worked out in the near future, according to a statement by W. E. Groom of Minneapolis, treasurer of the Northern Sugar Corporation, in The Journal.

It is reported that when the option was taken by the New York company a month ago construction work at East Grand Forks was halted pending negotiations. The probability now is that the American Beet Sugar Company will move one of its southern California plants there and—if it decides to move the Oxard plant, East Grand Forks will have one of the largest manufactories of its kind in the country. Truck gardening and fruit raising has tended to curtail the supply of raw materials for the sugar companies there, the report states.

To Expand Industry

This strongly financed New York Company will provide new means of financing the expanding sugar beet industry in Minnesota and the company can be expected to take steps at once to arrange for enlargement of the beet sugar output in the Northern Iowa, Minnesota and North Dakota fields, where the industry is assuming large proportions in the farm diversification movement.

Local business men are of the opinion that indications are favorable for the establishment of a sugar factory in Thief River Falls as a part of the company's development program in the near future. The location is favorable and farmers in this locality have proven themselves successful growers of beets in past years. Last year applications were made for more than 3,000 acres in the Thief River Falls district, which will be greatly increased this year, according to present indications.

Already in the Northwest territory the annual output of sugar beets is placed at more than $5,000,000 including sugar and by-products. This year the territory has 55,000 acres devoted to beet culture. The production of beet sugar this year in the United States will show an increase of 35 to 40 per cent over last year, figures compiled by trade authorities indicate. However, only a small portion of the sugar consumed is raised in the country.

Several Western Plants

By the purchase of these two companies the American Beet Sugar will acquire properties from the far west to include territory surrounding Chicago. The principal properties of American Beet Sugar are in California, Colorado and Nebraska.

The Northern Sugar Corporation, which was incorporated in June, 1916, in New York state, has constructed at Mason City, Iowa, a modern beet factory with a capacity of 14,000 tons of beets daily and can produce 3,000,000 tons of granulated sugar annually. The corporation has contracted for acreage in the vicinity of the factory sufficient to afford a steady supply of sugar beets. The Minnesota Sugar Company, which was incorporated October, 1911, in Michigan, acquired the property of the Carver County Sugar Company at Chaska, Minn., where it has a factory with a daily capacity of 1,000 tons of beets. The northwest properties envolved employ 650 persons.

H. A. Douglas of Minneapolis, president of the companies bought by the New York concern, will be the executive in charge of the northwest properties. The American Beet Sugar Company is said to have a net working capital of $5,500,000. It has cash on hand and in banks amounting to $3,000,000.

Sugar Beet Men in City

J. D. Markwood of Mason City, Ia., and David Wigand of Grand Forks, representatives of the Red River Sugar company, were callers in this city Tuesday of last week in an effort to place some stock in the new factory at East Grand Forks. Some stock was sold among local business men when Mr. Markwood was here a month ago. Meetings have been held in communities thruout the valley and a considerable amount of stock has been placed, a portion among farmers.

Member of St. Paul Farmer Staff at Convention Here

Berry H. Akers, associate editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, attended the Red River Valley Dairymen's convention in this city Thursday, an account of which will appear in The Farmer. Mr. Akers declared to a Times representative that the meeting here was one of the livest and most instructive of its kind he had ever attended and that he was particularly impressed with the large attendance, indicating a general interest in dairying thruout the valley. Mr. Akers is a firm believer in alfalfa for dairy cows and spoke in high terms of the gains made by Pennington county farmers in the growing of this crop during the past year, and commended Thief River Falls business men upon their enterprise in co-operation with the farmers in an effort to get more alfalfa acreage.

FR. MERTH ASSUMES CHARGE OF PARISH

Rev. Rr. A. L. Merth of Stephen Succeeds Fr. Noesen at St. Bernard's Parish

Rev. Fr. A. L. Merth, for the past two and a half years in charge of the St. Stephen's parish at Stephen, conducted his first mass here Sunday morning, having arrived a week ago from his former charge, with his hunt, Miss Schneider, to take up the work in his new field.

Fr. Merth is a native of Sleepy Eye, this state, receiving his grammar school education there and preparing for the work in the church at Columbus, Ohio, spending twelve years at the school there. He was ordained at the school five years ago for this diocese and the first two and a half years he assisted at the Cathedral at Crookston.

The following statement regarding Fr. Merth was taken from the Stephen Messenger:

"During his stay in Stephen, Fr. Merth has been an especially zealous worker, not alone in religious affairs, but in civic and patriotic activities as well. His departure from the community will be generally regretted in circles outside of St. Stephen's congregation as well as among the congregation to which he has given his endeavors."

Fr. Merth states that he is favorably impressed with his new field of endeavor and acknowledges the fine spirit of welcome he is being received with.

He will be succeeded at Stephen by Rev. Fr. Nicolai of Dilworth who arrived at his new charge last week.

Father M. J. Noesen, for eight years priest in charge of the congregation of St. Bernard's Catholic church, left about a week ago for Crookston and is at present in the St. Vincent hospital. His resignation was due to his continued illness of about a year and a half, a considerable part of which time he was under treatment at Rochester and Crookston.

Father Noesen also organized the this parish in Sept. 1916, coming here from Park Rapids. He celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination in the priesthood in June, 1822, and was known in his various parishes as an untiring worker for the good of both the parish and the community at large. In 1916 the local church property consisted of the church, parsonage and six lots. The congregation now owns the entire block on which are also located a dwelling and a four-room frame school building. In addition the parish debt has been reduced considerably over one-half.

Father Noesen also organized the Missions at Mavie, Goodridge and Jane, located east of Middle River. At each of these points he has built comfortable little churches which are free of encumbrances.

His leaving Thief River Falls is regretted by all his friends and wide scope of acquaintances.

MANY TURKEYS ARE DRESSED AT CO-OP. HEADQUARTERS HERE

Valley Marketing Association Ships 111,000 Lbs. Dressed Thanksgiving Turkeys

Nearly 111,000 pounds of dressed turkeys were shipped for the Thanksgiving market by the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association, according to announcement this week by B. O. Norby, manager. This is a greater volume than any other unit in the state. In addition to this 62,000 pounds of live poultry were shipped during the same period.

Heavy receipts at the headquarters here for the Thanksgiving market were halted Saturday, but the crew is preparing to handle an unusually large quantity expected for the Christmas marketing, from Dec. 1 to Dec. 15 being designated as the time for turkey shipments. Poultry is still being received here and dressing of turkeys will continue.

Following is the association's payment plan: Everything delivered from the first to the 15th of each month is paid on the fifth of the following month and everything delivered from the 16th to the end of the month is paid on the 20th of the following month. In other words, members will receive payment for deliveries between Nov. 1 and 15 on Dec. 5.

A net price of 46 cents a dozen was received for extra first eggs in the pool covering the last half of October, 37 cents for firsts and 27 cents for seconds. Seventy per cent of the 10,063 dozens graded extra firsts. Payments were received Nov. 20.

Directors of the marketing association and the Thief River Falls Co-operative Creamery association will meet at the Commercial club rooms Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, to discuss plans for future quarters of the poultry association, the present building being too small. Directors of the poultry association are: Olaf Neset and H. L. Schuster of Thief River Falls, president and secretary; Willis Warring, Holt; O. A. Holmes, Wylie; A. V. Dahlberg, Newfolden; E. L. Piper, Wylie; Stuart McLeod, Goodridge; Mrs. Geo. Breitsprecher, Hazel; Geo. Gusa, Middle River; J. W. Taylor, Roseau; J. J. McCann and Waldie Christensen, Thief River Falls.

ANNUAL MEETING OF COUNTY POULTRY ASS'N NEXT MONDAY

Election of Officers and Address By University Expert Feature of Meeting

Members of the Pennington County Poultry association will hold their annual meeting at the Commercial club rooms Monday evening, Dec. 1, at 7:30 o'clock to elect officers and attend to other matters which may come up at that time. The association has at present a membership of about 50, each exhibitor at the annual show being a member, and it is urged that all attend the meeting Monday night.

A feature of the annual meeting this year will be a talk by Dr. W. A. Pillings, extension veterinarian of the University of Minnesota, who will address Pennington county poultry fanciers on diseses of farm flocks and other phases of poultry care. Dr. Billings will arrive here Saturday to conduct demonstrations in tuberculosis testing of chickens and will visit a number of farms in the vicinity to test flocks thought to be infected. His talk will be of much interest and value to every poultry breeder.

The present officers of the poultry association are: Olaf Neset, president; C. M. Buoen, vice president; J. J. McCann, secretary; H. L. Schuster, treasurer; F. B. Conklin, L. A. Westphal, Ed. Eattenfeldt, C. D. Gustafson and Waldie Christensen, directors. All are of Thief River Falls except Mr. Westphal, who is of St. Hilaire. These men have done a great deal in the interest of better poultry in this community and are deserving of much credit. The annual show put on last week is one which merits the highest praise and is rated among the best in the state. Officers of the county association, particularly President Neset, have also been active in launching the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association, which is is now marketing a tremendou quantity of turkeys and poultry produced in this section.

POULTRY AND EGG CO-OP. MEANS GAIN DAIRYMEN TOLD

Standarization and Quality Improvement Factors of Plan, McPheeters Says

"Thru co-operative marketing farmers will get a better price and all around more satisfactory returns for their eggs and poultry than they have been receiving," A. A. McPheeters, manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Egg and Poultry Exchange told farmers in attendance at the dairymen's convention in this city last Thursday afternoon. The Minnesota Exchange is the largest in the world, the speaker declared.

He spoke in high terms of the manner in which the local Thief River valley unit under the managership of B. O. Norby and his assistants handled the tremendous influx of turkeys and poultry for the Thanksgiving market, stating that altho the task was a difficult one on account of inadequate facilities, the situation was met and the shipments prepared properly.

He predicted that the local association will be one of the largest in the state, it having already handled more turkeys for the Thanksgiving market than any other unit. This is the finest section in the state for raising turkeys, he declared.

"Standardization and improved quality of products will build a reputation for Minnesota eggs and poultry enabling producers to command the highest market," the speaker pointed out. "One of the chief parts of the co-operative program is the education of the producers to aim to get better quality, which has not been done in a systematic or effective manner in the past. Eggs from Minnesota have not reached the consumer as a quality product and as a result farmers have not been paid for what the hen produced, the quality not being preserved in the handling. Under the co-operative system the farmers are educated to gather their eggs at the proper time and shipments made direct to the consuming centers, in this way preserving the quality.

"By having 12 associations the state exchange is able to handle a large volume and standardization is possible so as to gain a reputation for quality and enabling marketing to advantage."

The speaker told about the Faribault association which greatly improved the quality of eggs after a short period of operation, so that its members are now being paid on quality basis; which is essential in bringing the industry on a profitable basis. "With ideal conditions for the poultry industry in this state there is no reason why it cannot be developed to a larger degree, instead of only a sideline," Mr. McPheeters asserted.

"The poultry associations are working hand in hand with the co-operative creameries, which are deserving of much credit in the development of dairying in Minnesota, where it has been brought to a profitable basis," he said.

Mr. McPheeters stated that he was certain that the co-operative contracts between associations and members will be held valid, 15 supreme courts having declared them binding. The association is governed in a thoroly democratic way, he said in explaining the features of the organization.

A brief talk was also given by Manager Norby, who reviewed the activities of the local association.

Contract Let For Graveling 52.2 Miles T. H. No. 6 Between Crookston and Noyes

Winter work on Minnesota trunk highways, comprising 130 miles of graveling and 3 miles of grading on which low bids total $376,660, is being placed under contract this week. Highway engineers said figures were reasonable, grading going at 22 cents a cubic yard and gravel hauling as low as 13.3 cents a yard mile.

The improvements are to be made during the winter when the work can be done cheapest and also that their earliest use may benefit the public. Clay, Nicollet and Wadena county bond funds make possible some of the jobs at this time. The list of graveling projects and apparently low bidders includes the following in Northern Minnesota: T. H. No. 2, Glyndon-Hawley, 8.1 miles at $10,845 to J. H. Boltz, Barnesville; T. H. No. 6, Crookston-Euclid, 14.2 miles at $32,474 to Tobin & Maloney, Madison, S. D.; T. H. No. 6, Hallock-Donaldson, 17.6 miles at $53,385 to Tobin & Maloney; T. H. No. 6, Noyes-Hallock, 20.1 miles at $75,040 to Tobin & Maloney; T. H. No. 8, Deer River-Ball Club, 7.2 miles at $18,488 to L. Cudd, Foxhome; T. H. No. 64, Barnesville-Moorhead, 23.1 miles at $69,031 to Super-Way Inc., Fergus Falls. Three other projects are included in the list. Among bidders was P. W. Rourk of Thief River Falls, who is at present working on a project near Brainard.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS WILL BE HEARD HERE AT "ALFALFA DAY" CELEBRATION THURSDAY, DEC. 11

Dan Wallace and Jaffray, Soo President, Head Program Of Speakers

FAMOUS CLOWN BAND TO PLAY—FREE LUNCH

Alfalfa Palace on LaBree and Third to Be Lighted by Colored Electric Lights

Arrangements have now been completed for the celebration of "Alfalfa Day" in Thief River Falls next Thursday, Dec. 11, when alfalfa boosters from the entire northwest section of Minnesota will gather in this city to hear the messages of several prominent speakers and learn more about the value of this great crop, which is now taking a leading part in the farm program in Pennington county. At a meeting of the general committee of citizens Tuesday evening final details of the event were outlined.

It is planned to have two sessions at the auditorium—one beginning at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and the other at 8 o'clock in the evening. At both sessions and during the entire day and evening, music will be furnished by the 20-piece clown band, which made such a hit at the St. Cloud Legion convention last August. That this group of talented musicians will arouse much enthusiasm for alfalfa goes without saying.

Dan Wallace, directing editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon meeting, when he will discuss the agricultural situation in general with particular reference to the part that alfalfa plays in good farming. He is thoroly familiar with farming conditions and has a message worth hearing.

List of Speakers

Brief talks will be given by W. A. Lyman, of Excelsior, Grimm seed grower; W. E. Hutcheson, alfalfa specialist of the Northwest Farmstead; Dan E. Willard of the Great Northern railway; H. S. Funston of the Soo Line, and T. O. Ofsthun of the Minnesota Rural Credits Bureau. Some of these will speak at the evening session.

Following the afternoon meeting a free lunch will be served to visitors by a committee of citizens.

The principal address at the evening program will be given by C. T. Jaffray, president of the Soo Line and head of the Agricultural Credits Corporation. As he is himself an alfalfa grower his message on the necessity for diversification and the advantage of cultivating more alfalfa will be of particular interest and value.

A feature of the celebration will be an "Alfalfa Palace" or arch which will be erected from alfalfa bales on the intersection of LaBree avenue and Third street. This will be illuminated by colored electric lights. The design for the structure was made by Theo. Thronson.

Will Decorate City

The decorations committee has called upon the merchants of the city to put out their flags and mimiature bales and loose alfalfa hay will be furnished for window displays. A prize will be awarded for the best display. Prizes have also been offered for the best Alfalfa song and slogan submitted by pupils in the rural schools of Pennington and eastern Marshall counties. Supt. I. T. Simley and two others selected by him will select the winners.

The celebration next week is the finale of another campaign by Pennington and Marshall county bankers in getting more alfalfa acres in the community. Orders are now being received for a carload of pure Grimm seed which will be distributed here next spring. This will mean an increased acreage of nearly 10,000 acres. Only certified seed is being purchased in an effort to make this the home of certified Grimm. Pennington county's gains in the alfalfa game in recent years have been nothing short of phenomenal.

OPENING OF BASKET BALL SEASON TONITE

High School Regulars Will Meet With Alumni Veterans in Season's First Game

The basketball season in Thief River Falls will be ushered in tonight with a game between the high school basketeers and a quintet of former regulars on the auditorium floor. Coach Thune's proteges have been put thru some stiff practise the last couple weeks and are showing splendid signs of becoming a dangerous aggregation. There is a long list of candidates for berths on the first team and it is likely that Coach Thune will try out a number of them in tonight's tossle. Captain Arthur Penney will be among the regulars to clash with former stars.

The Alumni aggregation will be composed of a number of former Lincoln high representatives, who have been limbering up in good form. Among veterans mentioned for the lineup tonight are Math Barzen, star member of last year's quint, John Sether, "Kip" LaBree, Stanley Sorenson, Roy Brown, Elmer Lrson, Forest Rlston, Charles Herron, Dennis McGinn. The game promises to be an interesting one from start to finish and it is hoped that a large number of fans will turn out for this opening contest. The game is called for 8 o'clock.

Tuesday of next week, Dec. 9, the locals play the Middle River team coached by [illegible] Tandberg, at the auditorium [illegible] the Roseau five comes here Friday, Dec. 12.

House Members are Listed. Repr. Johnson of Fillmore Co. Endorsed for Speaker

Representatives to the 1925 state legislature from this section have been announced. Marius Waldal of Plummer and Walter E. Day of Bagley represent the 65th district; F. A. Green of Stephen, Louis Enstrom of Malung and Ludwig Peterson of Kennedy, the 67th district; J. C. Pratt of Crookston and B. M. Benson of Erskine, the 66th district; and Gus A. K. Anderson of Ada, the 64th district.

Representative John A. Johnson of Preston, Fillmore county, received 73 votes to 18 for Representative Oscar A. Swenson, Nicollet, when the caucus of the majority members of the house balloted Saturday afternoon in St. Paul. The endorsement was later made unanimous and this assures Johnson as the choice for speaker at the opening of the session in January, his 73 votes being seven more than a majority of the house membership. Among candidates for the speakership was mentioned Representative Green from Marshall county, farmer and stock raiser, but he was not nominated.

The caucus was attended by Representative Waldal from this distoriet.

POULTRY FANCIERS SELECT GUSTAFSON AS NEW PRESIDENT

Neset and McCann Retire After Long and Active Service. Schuster Secretary

C. D. Gustafson, prominent Thief River Falls implement dealer and breeder of Barred Rocks, was elected preisident of the Pennington County Poultry association at the election held Monday. Mr. Gustafson succeeds Olaf Neset, who has headed the organization the past three years. Other officers chosen Monday are: W. J. Janda, vice president; succeeding C. M. Buoen, Harry Schuster, secretary, succeeding County Agent McCann who has served for six years; and Chester Dols, treasurer, succeeding Mr. Schuster. The five directors will be named later by the president. The meeting was well attended, about 30 fanciers being present.

A committee composed of Mr. McCann, Mr. Neset, Mr. Janda, L. A. Westphal and B. Ranum was appointed to revise the premium list for next year, this to be done by Jan. 1.

President Neset and Secretary McCann during their period of service have done a tremendous amount of work in bringing the Pennington county association to the front ranks and making it one of the leading in the state. They have done much in promoting the poultry industry in this community and last summer they took the lead in organizing the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association, which is now handling a huge amount of eggs, poultry and turkeys from the entire Northwestern Minnesota. The new officers are also well known poultry boosters and fanciers and everything points towards a bigger and better show in 1925 with the expansion of the poultry industry now under way.

Following the business session Dr. W. A. Billings, extension veterinarian of the Minnesota university, spoke on poultry feeding, breeding and diseases. Mr. Billings told his hearers that flocks should be tested for tuberculosis, 50 per cent of the flocks in Pennington county being infected, according to an estimate made following the testing of flocks in the vicinity. If some of the birds are infected the entire flock should be disposed of, the building disinfected and new stock obtained. He told how it can be recognized and urged that poultry producers get bulletins on the subject from the county agent's office. Birds may also be sent to the university for diagnosis of the disease free of charge. Black-head was also pointed to as one of the worst diseases of poultry.

"Chickens must be fed a balanced ration", Mr. Billings said. "All oats or all barley will not produce eggs. Oyster shells and meat scraps must be added in order to balance up protein with starch feed."

On Saturday and Monday Dr. Billings tested flocks on the Hans Anton, W. I. McCrum and Owen Wickwerth farms, a number of infected birds being discovered.

DISTRICT POULTRY CO-OP TO USE NEW CREAMERY BLDG.

Old Building Will Also Be Occupied, Directors of Two Associations Decided

Poultry and eggs will be handled in the new building of the Thief River Falls Creamery association and the old building will be used for packing dressed poultry and turkeys and for a feeding plant by the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association as a result of action taken at a meeting of directors of both associations Saturday. The liberal offer of the creamery board was accepted by the poultry directors at once. Much interest in the new poultry and egg marketing association was indicated and plans are for the two organizations to work hand in hand in an effort to produce quality products and obtain favorable markets.

Practically the entire basement of the new creamery building will be used for candling of eggs and for cooling and freezing purposes. The new quarters will have cooling facilities for two carloads of eggs and one carload of dressed poultry, it is said. Storage space will also be allowed jointly with the creamery on the second floor, and separate offices for the poultry association, which is now doing a tremendous business, will be prepared in the west section of the first floor. The old creamery building will be used for packing and later a feeding plant where poultry is prepared for market, may be established, if thought a practical move.

The present quarters are entirely inadequate for the large volume of business, Manager B. O. Norby declares, and the completion of the new creamery is awaited with much interest. The Northwestern Garage is now being used for packing purposes while the Hall Hardware building is being crowded again as turkeys for the Christmas market comes in. It is estimated that a much larger volume will be handled for the Christmas trade than for Thanksgiving. It is not likely, however, that a change of location can be made until after the first of the year.

A car of live poultry will be on track Monday and pickers are on hand to dress live turkeys received at the headquarters here.

A check of $4,687.53 was received Tuesday for 31,259 pounds of live poultry shipped between Nov. 1 and 15th. The prices are very satisfactory, Mr. Norby states.

For the first half of November members are now getting payments for eggs as follows: 54 cents a dozen net for extra firsts, 40 cents for firsts and 30 cents for seconds. More than 70 per cent of the pool graded extra firsts, which is considered a splendid showing.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASS'N HEADED BY MRS. E. J. RICHARES

New Officers Chosen Monday. High School Students Give Brief Talks

Mrs. E. J. Richards, for two years secretary of the Parent-Teachers association, was elected president of that organization at the annual election Monday evening, succeeding Mrs. R. Arnold. Mrs. Daniel Shaw was elected first vice president, Morris Bye, second vice president, Miss Lyda Batten, secretary and Mrs. H. W. Froehlich, treasurer. Mrs. Richards was secretary of the association the first two years it was organized and has taken an ctive hand in all of the association's ffairs.

An interesting program of educational value was arranged for and included talks by students; Miss Kathryn Barzen, "Why I, a Girl Should Attend High School"; Lloyd Bennes, "Why I, a Boy, Should Attend High School" and Maurice Holzknecht, "Physical Training From a Boy's Viewpoint." Three numbers were given by the Boys' Glee club and a piano solo by Miss Mildred Engen, all of which were very well received.

An exhibit of the sewing of the freshmen and sophomore classes in high school was placed before the association and proved a very creditable showing.

The annual report of the secretary and treasurer was given that evening and showed an active year's work, with gratifying results.

The Parent-Teachers association now begins its fourth year of activities. In the past it has been an agency of a better spirit of co-operation between parents and teachers.

Remainder of Beets Here Being Loaded This Week

Shipping of sugar beets from this city over the Soo line to the factory at Mason City, Iowa, will be completed this week, according to W. W. Prichard Jr., of The Prichard company, which was awarded the contract for loading the beets into cars the large piles near the Soo tracks. Fifty-four cars had been loaded and shipped by the company up to Tuesday night, six-seven cars a day being loaded by means of the new loading device put into operation Tuesday of last week. A crew of 25 men, including the drivers of 10 teams to haul the beets from the piles to the tracks, are employed on the job. The beets are loaded into open cars with a capacity of 40 tons. Farmers are now loading at Silverton and Steiner and The Prichard company will continue their operations at St. Hilaire and Newfolden as soon as the loading here is finished.

FORD CAR WILL BE GIVEN AWAY ON JANUARY 17

American Legion Post to Stage Coupon Contest For 44 Days, Beginning Friday

RAISING FUNDS FOR '25 CONVENTION HERE

Merchants of City to Give Coupons With Purchases of $1.00 and Upwards

A day awaited with more than usual interest will be January 17, 1925, the day when a Ford car will be given away free by the American Legion post of Thief River Falls. Who is going to be the proud owner of the brand new touring car? That question will be decided between Friday, the opening day of the Legion coupon contest and January 17.

During the 44 days merchants of Thief River Falls, whose names appear on the page announcement elsewhere in this issue, will give away coupons for each purchase of $1.00 or more, coupons also to be given on payment of old accounts at the discretion of merchants. A majority of local merchants are participating in this enterprise and every shopper should make it a point to read the details of the contest given in the page advertisement.

The contest is being sponsored by the American Legion in an effort to raise funds for the 1925 state convention.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE OPENS

Tuberculosis Takes 71 Lives In Pennington County During Last Five Years

That 71 Pennington county people died of tuberculosis in the past five years is information contained in a report received this week from the Minnesota Public Health association in connection with the 17th Christmas Seal sale, which is being conducted to raise funds for the 1925 fight against the White Plague.

"Many of the people who are now infected do not realize it, for one of the tragedies of tuberculosis is that none of its early symptoms are alarming, and very often by the time a person feels ill enough to visit a doctor, the disease has made considerable progress. If every case of tuberculosis could be discovered in the incipient stages, and proper treatment started promptly, there would be fewer deaths from this disease. Sanatorium statistics show that more than 90 per cent of the patients who enter the institutions when tuberculosis is in its incipiency and who continue the treatment long enough get well. Every county should have for its slogan "No unknown and no untreated cases of tuberculosis."

"The Christmas Seal makes possible free clinics, which ferret out unsuspected cases of tuberculosis and carry into every community the message of cure and prevention. This year the state association could not nearly meet the demand for clinics. Every Christmas Seal bought will help extend this work."

The seals are being sold thru the rural schools under the supervision of O. R. Sande; county superintendent, altho they are sent direct to the teachers and the teachers requested to remit to the state association instead of to local persons in charge.

In Thief River Falls the seals will be sold largely by school children with Supt. I. T. Simley and the various teachers in charge. In Goodridge it is reported that sales will be in charge of Supt. P. J. Ovrebo and in St. Hilaire, Mrs. O. Gunstad.

LEGION BASKETBALL TEAM

Thief River Falls is again going to have a Legion basketball team. That was the decision made at the meeting of the Eklund Post Friday night, when a committee composed of L. A. Hermanson, Francis Burns, Ray Kiland and Roy Brown was appointed to form an organization and arrange a schedule of games with other strong teams of the state. The committee met Tuesday night and perfected an organization and active practice of veterans of the hoop game will begin at once. Local fans will again have opportunity to see such thrilling contests as they witnessed during the 1921 season, when Thief River Falls was known far and wide for its strong aggregation. L. A. Thune, local high school coach and former all-state center in South Dakota, will coach and play with the Legion team.

INGEBORG NYSTUL REPORTED HELD BY CHINESE BANDITS

Parents of Captured Missionary Reside at Goodridge—Mission Post Seized

Two Minnesota women, alone at "the loneliest mission outpost in Central China," far from the coast and shut off from communication with any coast city, have been captured and carried away by bandits who raided the Augustana Lutheran Mission at Juchow, Honan Province, China, according to Associated Press dispatches last Thursday. One of the reported captives is Miss Ingeborg Nystul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Nystul, who live on a farm 13 miles north of Goodridge. She is 46 years old and has served in the mission field of China for 16 years, this being her third term of seven years. She has visited here and is known to a number of local people.

The other missionary reported kidnapped, Miss Elizabeth Berglund of Hopkins, Minn., a graduate of the Lutheran Bible Institute and former twin city teacher, is said to be safe in Fuchow, according to a dispatch from the American consul to the state department in Washington. A telegram from another missionary did not say whether Miss Berglund had been held by bandits. Miss Nystul had been at the mission outpost since in 1923 together with Miss Berglund. Altho no definite reports have been received regarding Miss Nystul, her companion's safety brings fresh hope to her parents here. One dispatch stated that the missionairies may have remained in the city altho all other foreigners fled for their lives.

Miss Nystul last visited with her parents at Goodridge in 1923, when she stayed for three months, leaving in August. She was here in 1914 on her first furlough. The last letter from her received here arrived about three weeks ago. In recent letters she told of how Chinese bandits were terrorizing missionary settlements and that they had to prepare to flee for their lives any moment, as conditions in the Honan province were hazardous.

The news of Miss Nyatul's capture was first heard by the Nystul family over radio Thursday evening. A sister, Miss Anna Nystul, who is employed as stenographer in the Farmers State bank in Goodridge, was listening in on station WCAY, broadcasting newspaper reports. The first words that came told of her sister's reported capture and she immediately notified her parents and a brother on the farm.

Another brother, John, who is now dean of men at Concordia college, Moorhead, was superintendent of the Middle River schools the last two years and prior to that head of the Goodridge schools. Three brothers reside at Leonard, N. D. The Nystuls have resided at Goodridge for 16 years.

Miss Nystul received training as a nurse at the Bethesda hospital, St. Paul, and was later engaged as a deaconess at that institution.

COMMANDER LINDELL TO ADDRESS CITIZENS AT MASS MEETING AT AUDITORIUM TOMORROW EVENING

State Heads of Legion and Auxiliary to Visit 1925 Convention City

PLANS FOR CONVENTION HERE TO BE DISCUSSED

Banquet at Legion Rooms. Lindell Principal Speaker at Big Public Meeting

Enthusiasm for the 1925 Minnesota Legion convention in Thief River Falls will be given a boost tomorrow, Friday, when Edwin L. Lindell, department commander, comes here to meet with members of the local post and address a big mass meeting in the auditorium in the evening. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Milton Spencer of Winona, president of the Minnesota Legion Auxiliary, who will confer with members of the local auxiliary regarding next year's meeting.

Club Luncheon Friday

Mr. Lindell will arrive here from Crookston and is scheduled to speak at the regular noon luncheon of the Commercial club, which is held on Friday instead of today this week on account of Mr. Lindell's visit. This will give local businessmen an opportunity to meet the state commander and hear him discuss matters relative to the convention here. In the afternoon he will meet with the executive committee of the local post to consider convention matters.

In the evening at 5:30 o'clock the visiting Auxiliary and Legion heads will be honor guests at a banquet given by the Auxiliary and Eklund post, to which an invitation has been extended to the mayor, city council, and county board members.

Is Able Speaker

The public meeting at the auditorium will open at 8 p. m., and the new post commander, H. O. Chommie, will preside. Besides the address by Mr. Lindell the program will include: Music by the high school orchestra, opening remarks by Commander Chommie, song, "America"; remarks by Mayor J. S. Arneson and singing of "Star Spangled Banner." Mr. Lindell is said to be a fluent speaker and his talk here will be devoted to Legion activities relative to the 1925 convention. It is hoped that citizens will turn out enmasse to hear his message.

On Saturday Mrs. Spencer will go to Warren to organize a unit of the Auxiliary. She was born at Warren.

The committee in charge of arrangements for tomorrow's events are: Mrs. O. C. Paulson, Mrs. B. H. Dickey and Mrs. Dave Robinson of the Auxiliary, and Commander Chommie, Dave Robinson, H. S. Snyder, G. A. Russell and O. R. Sande for the Legion.

Legionaires in the neighboring towns have been invited to join in the events here.

WILL CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY DURING LEGION CONVENTION

Oscar R. Smith, for the past year commander of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion, will have reason to celebrate next August 11. Not only is that one of the convention days for the Minnesota department in Thief River Falls but it is also Oscar's birthday. It is a safe bet that it will be a birthday not so soon forgotten, because the live-wire commander of Thief River Falls has a multitude of friends among the "boys" and The Times is hereby "tipping them off" so that they'll have a chance to give him the proper "shaking."

ATTORNEY CHOMMIE NEW COMMANDER OF CONVENTION HOSTS

Head of Eklund Legion Post Urges Co-operation in Preparing for 1925 Event

Hans O. Chommie, prominent local lawyer and city attorney, was chosen commander of the Elmer J. Eklund post of the American Legion to succeed Oscar R. Smith, as a result of the election Friday night. Ole R. Sande, county superintendent of schools, had been elected commander two weeks previously but was unable to serve on account of a provision in the Legion constitution barring elective renumerative public officials. As a result another election was held Friday night and the new commander together with the other officers informally installed. The officers of the local post for the coming year besides Mr. Chommie are: Francis Burns, vice commander; Verner Nelson, adjutant; F. E. McGinn, finance officer; Rev. Chas. Gerlinger, chaplain; and L. A. Hermanson, sergeant-at-arms.

Mr. Chommie, who resigned as county attorney to enlist in the officers training camp in the late war, and is now a lieutenant in the reserve, took a prominent part in landing the 1925 convention for Thief River Falls at the St. Cloud meeting last summer. He has taken an active part in civic affairs of community and is a fluent public speaker, being particularly fitted for the job of commander at this time when arrangements have to be made for the great convention next year.

Oscar Smith, commander during the past year, has just finished the most spectacular year in the history of the post. Not only has the membership been increased but the seemingly impossible task of getting the state Legion convention to this city was accomplished, to a great extent thru the untiring efforts of the energetic commander, who was determined that Thief River Falls should be the 1925 convention city and did not lay down on the job until it was made a fact. He is now on hand, full of enthusiasm in making arrangements for next year's gathering.

Work will be started at once in making plans for the 1925 convention, Mr. Chommie declares in appealing for the close co-operation of the entire city and community in backing up the Legion post in the big enterprise. He urges that all civic organizations get behind the movement and assist in the work. "It's a big job," he says, "but we can handle it if everyone does his share. There must be a spirit of co-operation."

Family of Thirteen Left Destitute When Fire Completely Ruins Home Fri.

Fire, presumably starting from an oil stove, completely destroyed the farm home of Delt D. Sandry, residing 8 miles west of this city in Bray township Friday. Mrs. Sandry and eight of the eleven children were at home when the fire was discovered about 10 o'clock in the forenoon. The husband had gone to North Dakota a short time ago to be employed, accompanied by the other children. A daughter was suddenly taken ill and was confined in a Minot hospital for several weeks.

The nearest neighbors were a mile away and when they arrived the home was nearly burned to the ground, the family having escaped with only the clothes they were wearing, the mother being forced to give her entire attention to the youngest child, not quite two years old. The thermometer registered almost zero. Friends took the various members of the family to their homes, the children having sought shelter in the barn.

As soon as the news of the tragedy reached this city church organizations, relief agencies and individuals at once set out to help the destitute family with clothing and other necessities, citizens donating generously. Neighbors are assisting them in re-establishing a home, building to be begun at once.

Last fall Mr. Sandry injured his hand in a corn shredder and was laid up for some time.

Mr. Sandry and the daughter who was confined at the Minot hospital returned from North Dakota Saturday.

Baking Demonstration Sat.

As announced elsewhere in this issue, by Tessum and company, Miss Lillie Gronna of the Washburn-Crosby Milling company will give a baking demonstration at Bredeson's store on Saturday, Dec. 6, making attractive cakes, icings and unusual deserts. The demonstrations will begin at 2:30 and 8 p. m., and will be of value to every housewife who is desirious of learning new ways of making more tempting dishes.

No Smallpox Cases Here Many Being Vaccinated

There are no cases of the dread small pox in this city or community, according to local health officials and hundreds have been vaccinated the last couple weeks as a precaution against its spread. Local physicians have not only vaccinated a large portion of the city population but also numerous persons in surrounding small towns and in the country, particularly the schools. Vaccination has proven the only effective weapon against small pox and it is hoped to check its spread at the present stage in Minnesota, providing the proper precautions are taken.

There are two cases of scarlet fever quartined, Leland Knight and Richard Mabey, health officials state. The cases of chicken pox reported last week are reported clearing up, and present health conditions are considered very favorable here, there being few absences from school on account of illness.

EARLY CHRISTMAS MAILING IS URGED

Shop Early and Mail Early Is Plea to Solve Annual Postal Problem

"Shop Early" and "Mail Early" are the slogans of the postal department, which hopes to make them the habit of the American people.

Last year thru generous co-operation of the press, the movies and other advertising mediums, Christmas mailers were induced to dispatch their Yuletide presents earier in the month than ever before and as a result the last minute rush of former years was greatly reduced and delays avoided. On account of the small quarters occupied by the local post office it is urged that Thief River Falls citizens heed the call for early mailing issued last week by Postmaster Daniel Shaw, in order to avoid congestion.

Mailing early does not mean December 1 or before, but if everyone could get their holiday tokens in the mail between December 10 and December 20, the post office could not ask more.

Believing that the energies of postal employees should not be sapped to the last degree for any avoidable reason, and, intent upon securing for them the same Christmas privileges enjoyed by others, Postmaster General New asks the hearty co-operation of the public. The last-minute, or zero hour has been moved up so that all postal employees may eat their Christmas dinners at home. Rural carriers will deliver no mail at all on Christmas day and clerks and carriers in the city offices will stop work promptly at noon.

A number of Thief River Falls citizens are planning to be in the twin cities next Saturday, Dec. 13, when members of the Thief River Falls-Twin City club will give their first social event of the season at the ball room of the Minnesota Union, University of Minnesota campus. Local people who happen to be in the cities at that time are invited to attend the banquet and dance which will follow, according to word received here by James Helle, university student who is president of the club. Mayor J. S. Arneson of this icty is scheduled as one of the speakers at the banquet.

A great deal of interest is taken in these events and former residents of this community who are now in the twin cities look forward to the gatherings with much pleasure, as it gives opportunity to meet old friends and renew acquaintances.

HOME INTERESTS FIRST

Another Christmas is near at hand and gift lists are being prepared for the shopping tour that everyone will make.

And when you buy, will you remember the claims of the home merchant and give him a chance to share in your trade?

We can not expect to prosper as a community by dividing our patronage with business men who contribute nothing to the upbuilding of our local institutions.

It is to the best interests of those who buy, to trade at home, just as it is to the best interest of those who sell.

Unless we "pat each other on the back" nothing constructive can ever be accomplished and we will go backward instead of forward.

The logic of trading at home is unassailable. There is no other way of reasoning—if you spend your money away from home, you have no hope of ever jingling it in your pocket again, but if you keep your money in circulation at home, you may get the chance to use it again.

Thief River Falls merchants prepare for Christmas with large and extensive stocks and endeavor to serve the people of this trading area as best they can. They should be patronized, not alone from the standpoint of home patriotism, but because they have Christmas merchandise of quality that no one will be ashamed to give.

TEARING DOWN VS. BUILDING

Bickering, fault finding and back biting will retard the growth of any town or city. There can never be any lasting prosperity where these factors are uppermost in the minds of a considerable portion of the people.

Consideration and energetic co-operation will materially advance the interests of any community. These form the groundwork of all great municipalities.

Natural advantages have much to do with community achievement, but natural advantages alone will not suffice. Co-operation is an essential element, but it never marches side by side with fault finding and bickering. The latter are destroyers, not builders; they tear down instead of building up.

Possibly we are not overburdened with the destroying element in this community, but such as we have is entirely too much.

Community advancement means personal security to the individual and this is best achieved through energetic and persistent co-operation.

Tearing down or building up—which side are you identified with?

DAILY STRENGTH

Nature has admirably fitted the body to fight against weakness but there is need for a daily renewal of strength, which comes easiest through nourishment.

Scott's Emulsion

is a practical aid to health and strength. If you are pale, underweight or weak, Scott's is the restorative that builds you up Nature's way—through nourishment.

Who will bring an important message to those who attend the big alfalfa booster meeting in Thief River Falls Dec. 11.

Eight years ago this week, in 1916, announcement was made that the railroad from International Falls to Loman would be continued across Lake of the Woods and Beltrami counties thru Grygla and to Goodridge to connect up with the Electric line. The outbreak of the war halted activities at that time but now reports are again current that this line is actually going to be built within the next couple years. At least that's what Billy Noonan stated in his Baudette Region two weeks ago, as given in last week's issue of The Times. Here is hoping that Billy has his information from a reliable source and that no war breaks out to stop the building of the road this time.

If your heart is in the right place you will buy Christmas seals to help in the fight against the dread tuberculosis. It is astonishing how much has been done in Minnesota in stamping out the disease in the last few years thru the sale of these little penny seals. The sale is now on and it is to be hoped that Thief River Falls and Pennington county as a whole again shows the right spirit by generously supporting this worthy cause as in former years.

Thanksgiving is now past and Christmas presents early you make Thief River Falls merchants are ready with their holiday offerings and are better prepared than ever before. It will pay you to watch the announcements of local merchants who are advertising in The Times. Boost your home town by trading with home merchants.

"Shop Early" and "Mail Early" are two good slogans to adopt at this time. By shopping early you will get exactly what you want while the supply is plentiful, and by mailing your Christmas presents early you make certain that they are received in time.

"With a small patch of sugar beets and a bit of alfalfa in addition to a herd of good cows the Marshall county farmer need not do much worrying about how to pay taxes," says the Warren Sheaf.

Wants The Times

In remitting for her subscription to The Times, Mrs. Anna H. Langseth, 2204 Durant avenue, Berkeley, Cal., formerly of this city, writes: "I am sending you a check of two dollars for The Times. We can't get along without our good old home news. The day our home paper comes is always looked forward to with pleasure."

Rumor Unfounded

The Warren Sheaf this week states that County Agent J. J. McCann has been elected county agent of Polk county with headquarters at Crookston, but Mr. McCann informed a Times representative this morning that he had never heard of it and that the rumor is unfounded. The Times is pleased to know that "Mack" has no intentions of leaving Pennington county.

WEEKLY SERMON

(By Rev. Charles Gerlinger of the Presbyterian church.)

The official Thanksgiving Day is past. But it is a poor Christianity which gives thanks but once a year. Thanksgiving Day is past when we asked ourselves in the words of Paul, "What hast thou that thou didst not receive?"

If someone took from us what we have received from others, we would be poverty stricken indeed. We are heirs of the past. Every day of our lives ten thousand servants await our pleasure. They warm our homes, light our lamps, supply our tables. Night and day men are busy supplying us with the comforts of the day.

The very country in which we live was given us, having been literally hewn out of a forbidding wilderness, its government established in the face of tremendous obstacles. Had our fathers been made of the stuff of the Popham Beach Settlement in Maine 1607, we never would have inherited an America at all.

Science and engineering search out the secrets of the earth for our sakes. The Edisons and Steinmetzs labor day and night to give us the advantages of civilization.

Most of all we are heirs of the work of Christ. Christ who found the world hopeless and made hope to spring eternal in the human heart. Christ who found man enslaved to self and freed him by setting him to work for God. Christ who gave His very life for our sakes.

And we are the heirs. All was done for us—the world, and life, and death, things present and things to come—all for us.

In view of such legacies, one day of the year cannot contain the Christian's thanksgiving. It will overflow into all the other days. Yes, it will fill them also. For we have learned to say, "What hast thou that thou didst not receive?"

Mrs. James Rogers Dead

Mrs. B. G. Walker was the recipient of sad news recently when it was learned that her mother, Mrs. James Rogers, aged 85, and for many years a resident of this city, died at her home at Harney, Ore., Nov. 18. The aged woman leaves her husband, daughter, Mrs. Walker of this city, and sons, Ed and John of Mobridge, S. D., known to residents here, and a son and daughter at Harney. Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers left this city 15 years ago.

Vaccinates 370 in One Day

As far as The Times can ascertain, Dr. J. T. Bowers set a record for performing the largest number of vaccinations in a single day by vaccinating 370 persons at Plummer Monday. What made the feat possible was advertising the occasion a week ahead and having those who wished to be vaccinated come to the school building, where he performed 340 vaccinations, the remaining 30 being performed in homes.

Red Lake County Pioneer Passes

Mrs. Mary Jeffers, mother of Frank Jeffers of Red Lake Falls and for 12 years a resident of Gervais township, Red Lake county, died Nov. 19 in Spokane, Wash., after a brief illness. She was 90 years old. She settled on a homestead in Gervais in 1883.

BEET GROWERS GET LARGE RETURNS ON CROP THIR SEASON

5,500 Tons on 700 Acres in Pennington County Will Net Growers About $30,000

An average of eight tons an acre was raised this season on the 800 acres of sugar beets in the Thief River Falls district, 700 acres of which was in Pennington county. A total of 5,500 tons was raised on 700 acres, which does not include the Newfolden acreage, according to figures submitted by County Agent J. J. McCann.

The $5 guarantee on this tonnage totals $27,500, leaving a net of about $13,000 after labor expenses of $12,50 and $2,000 for seed have been paid. Mexican field workers were employed on 500 acres at $25 an acre. Payments on the guarantee price were received Nov. 20 and it is estimated that about $10,000 was paid at this time to Pennington county growers, expenses being deducted from the first payment.

In addition to the $5 guarantee it is expected that the sugar company will pay at least a $3 bonus, which will aggregate about $16,500. The last payment will be made Feb. 15.

No complete failures are reported this year fromthe 800 acres, which demonstrates the adaptability of the soil in this locality and the proficiency of the local farmers in caring for the crop. This year's average yield of eight tons per acre compares well with last year's average of six tons. Some growers report yields of up to 17 tons per acre, but the top-notcher will not be known until all the fields have been checked up.

The largest field of beets in this vicinity this year was grown by C. J. Barret, who had 43 acres, just south of the city. His crop averaged about 11 tons to the acre and in addition to the beets he also realized about $4 an acre for the tops, it is reported.

Among growers of this territory who did not employ any Mexican field workers this season was Nels Christopherson, who cared for 20 acres with the aid of his own family, thus saving $500. It was hard work, he declares, but adds that the returns are worth it.

Ford Wrecks Building In Fight With Skunks

Because a family of the black and white kitties, known better as mere skunks, decided to make their home under the foundation of the school house in district 43 in Kittson county, near Bronson, and because two boys decided to use a Ford to expell the innocent and unfortunate animals from their home, the pupils of that school are enjoying a six weeks' vacation.

But a Fords a Ford and can't always be depended on to do what is expected. The plot was to connect up the exhaust of the car with a hole in the foundation wall, and leaving a small apperture for an exit for the hunted animals, to gas them out with the fumes of the exhaust.

But the Ford did the unexpected, as usual. The gasoline mixture was evidently too rich, for the motor sputtered a bit and apparently sent out a considerable amount of raw gas with the exhaust fumes, and particles of ignited carbon. The raw gas exploded. The floor of the building met the ceiling half way and the walls burst outward. Ingval Anderson, who was waiting at the exit for the skunks to appear was knocked unconscious. Eddie Peterson, the engineer, escaped unhurt. Most of the school equipment was destroyed as was the heating plant and chimney. Parts of the wall can be salvaged. The damage was estimated at $1500 and rebuilding is under way.

You can't trust a Ford after a Skunk.

The year and a half old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Weiner, Jr., residing near the city, who was brought to the Swedenburg hospital Saturday, Nov. 22, to receive treatment following burns by molasses candy, was taken home the early part of last week. PROWLER ISSUE

This week being "Prowler Week", the "Prowler" staff has tried to think of every conceivable means for advertising the annual. For this purpose, the staff is publishing this issue of the Progress. The 1925 annual is going to carry the community motive thruout the entire book. In working out this idea, pictures of various places and people around town will be used, in addition to the usual contents. Instead of being strictly confined to school affairs, as the annuals have been in previous years, the 1925 "Prowler" will contain many articles of interest to the community as a whole. With the addition of this community motive we feel that a greater interest in the "Prowler" should be manifested by the townspeople. The annual is something to be supported by the citizens of the city as well as the students in high school. Do not say "No" to the "Prowler" salesman.

The Senior class of this year is following the custom set hitherto by the Senior classes, of editing an annual in which a record of the events of the school year are kept. It costs money to produce a good annual, and the main source of this money is through subscriptions. If every member of the high school subscribes, and the majority of the business firms of the city, there can be no doubt but that this year's annual will surpass any that has been published before in the history of the school.

If there are not enough subscriptions secured, there can be no "Prowler." This shows that there is not the proper school spirit in the school and, of course, no one would want his school to be lacking in this element. This annual is not only the Seniors', but it belongs to the other classes as well. The Seniors edit it, but the annual's success or failure reflects back on the school as a whole. Everyone buy a "Prowler."

Our High School days! What do they mean to us? How can we, if we so cherish our High School memories, keep them always before us? Everyone wishes to remember the days he spent in school with many friends.

In colleges, at our work, or at any gathering after leaving school, someone always brings up the topic of pranks done in school. We will be interested and amused.

After graduation our classmates leave High School to continue their schooling or to enter into their life work. We do not remember them all distinctly, but will often meet people whose faces seem familiar, we do not recognize them. Then we stop and think, "I do believe that is someone I knew when I was in High School." We will undoubtedly make an effort to find him, to talk over old times. What is the best way? Take out the old Annual of course. What fun we have looking over the pictures of old classmates and recall all the many good times had in Alma Mater. What is this person doing? "Oh yes, he's out West."

How should we tend to keep our High School memories? The only answer is "Buy an Annual!"

At "Prowler" Meetings

At one of the first meetings of the "Prowler" staff the advisor suggested that the head of each department should discuss briefly what work he had planned to do and how he hoped to make his department a success. Unconscious of how it sounded but only aware of what they really meant and felt, about three-fourths of the students either stated or clearly hinted that their department was undoubtedly the most important. Even though the literary department is not the most important, it is, nevertheless, one of the most important. What would the "Prowler" be without this department? It would seem to lack a foundation. Poems, essays and various other pieces of literature have already been asked for and promised. The following is a short poem submitted by a member of the "Prowler" staff to the Literary department:

At "Prowler" Meetings

Maybe you would like to know
Just what the Seniors have to show.
The "Prowler", though it's coming fast,
Is the constant thought of the "Prowler" Staff.
Once a week and sometimes more
We assemble in front of the high school door,
With willing hands and anxious heart
We come together to do our part.
Our advisor usually has something to say
And then the editor has full sway;
With a rap on the desk she asks for attention,
Relates new problems, and the old re-mention.
Then we discuss with great enthusiasm
Work deep enough to fill up a chasm;
But the only way to get through we've found,
Is to keep on climbing, not stay on the ground.
And we know the "Prowler" this year will strive
To be a boon and treasure to the Class of '25.

Value of H. S. Organizations

Of what purpose are all the different organizations in the high school—the glee clubs, orchestra, band, bread, cake, and sewing clubs, the declamatory and debate teams? How monotonous and tedious the time would become if there were nothing to vary the school days, there would be nothing but lessons and study. But when there are a few organizations in the high school, time will become more enjoyable and the daily routine will be varied.

In the section of the "Prowler" to be devoted to the organizations of Lincoln high school, the group pictures of all the members of the organizations will be published in a very attractive manner.

SALES CAMPAIGN FOR PROWLER CAMPAIGN OPENED MONDAY

Twenty Minutes Taken Off For Stunts to Arouse Enthusiasm For Annual

The high school was given a treat during the last forty minutes of the school day Monday, when a series of acts over the radio were presented to the body of students by station WOP (want our "Prowler") of the Lincoln high school.

The period opened with an announcement over the radio followed by a dance by the "Prowler" sisters consisting of five "girls", Arthur Penney, Allan Sorenson, Lawrence Mulry, Lloyd Bennes and Thomas Melgaard. Then through the ether came a speech exhorting all those present to buy a "Prowler." After this a play was presented by Esther Crown, Francis Ohm, Keith Craik, Oliver Aap, and Maurice Holzknecht. This drama was a court room scene wherein a husband and wife each wanted a "Prowler" but only one was obtainable and there was a constant disturbance in the family. The verdict of the twelve men in the jury impersonated by Oliver Aap was that every one should have a "Prowler." After this Ruth Mellby and Robert Halvorson were taken ill because they didn't have a 1925 annual. They were made well when each was given an annual by the doctor, Kenneth Streeter. The end of the period was fittingly brot about by the "Prowler" staff and the high school singing "Come on Lincoln." Before this Maxine Johnson and Robert Halvorson gave talks on the sales campaign, which began on Wednesday and they, too, asked everyone to buy an annual and make the undertaking of the Seniors a success.

Affirmative Side to be Taken by Local Debaters

On December 19th, the Lincoln high school debating team will journey to Ada and argue the affirmative on the question "Resolved that the United States should join the League of Nations as it exsited under the Covenant July first, 1924."

The debating team of this high school is working day and night to win the first contest and thereby keep up the reputation of the school. The team was picked at a try-out held between the best eight in the school. Nothing is known about Ada's prowess in the line of debate, but it can be assured that they will present a formidable front against that of the locals on the night of December 19th.

ARTHUR PENNEY

"Pinks" Penney, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Penney, was recently elected captain of the 1925 basketball team of Lincoln high school after having led the local quint thru a successful season last year. Penney is known as one of the most versatile players that has ever represented this high school and is well deserving of the honor to pilot the team for a second term. He is a senior and this is his second year on the team. It can be safely predicted that Penney will cage a large number of baskets for Thune's proteges during the coming season.

Forty-one on Second Honor Roll of Year

The honor roll for the second six week period has been compiled, and on looking it over and comparing it with the one for the last six weeks, it is found that there are more students on the roll than last time. The Juniors are in the lead in percentage, while the Seniors have more students on it. The Normal department has the greatest percentage but they carry many more subjects than any person in either of the four classes in high school. Following are the names of the honor students and their classes: Seniors, 10 (10.4%), Ruby Auseby, Katherine Barzen, Bernice Erickson, Rebecca Halvorson, Gertrude Hansen, Paul Olstad, Mildred Remmem, Emmett Shanahan, Winifred Wengeler and Buell Will.

Juniors: 9 (12.8%), Eva G. Ayers, Verna Beckner, Margaret Brown, Gladys Kjos, Ward Mathewson, Loretta Mulry, Lois Nicholson, Violet Peterson and Elsie Vorseth.

Sophomores: 8, (9.3%), Alpha Gausen, Goldie Gunderson, Helen Gabrielson, Pearl Hagen, Olaf Olstad, Marion Reynolds, Dorothy Shirley and Louise Vevea.

Freshmen: 6 (4.2%), Ardis Ayers, Chester Dahlen, Menville Gunderson, Elaine Korstad, Leslie Sundahl and Gladys Weeks.

Normal Training: 8 (25%) Elsie Blair, Hazel Krause, Emma Lanke, Sarah Martinson, Ragnild Moen, Mildred Peterson, Doris Sandberg and Camille Warner.

MIDDLE RIVER WILL PLAY LOCALS TUES

Last Year Lincolnites Nearly Beaten by Middle River in Strong Comeback

Basket ball season has now started in earnest.

On Tuesday of next week, Captain Penney of the high school basket ball team will lead his warriors against the Middle River high school gladiators in the local auditorium. Last year it will be remembered the Middle River team played the locals in their first game, and the score was 11 to 14 in the favor of the locals. The game then was a runaway for the Lincolnites in the first half, but during the second, Middle River showed a great deal of spirit when it came back strong and began to count up points like a mad adding machine. This year Tandberg's aggregation is composed of the same men, and the battle then will a hard fought one. Everyone should be present at this game and start off the real season with a bang.

The squad practices every day, and with a great deal of hard work is gradually rounding out into a team. Although there are only two letter men back from last year, there is a great deal of good material that is now showing promise of developing into star players.

Because there are so few letter men back, the squad is determined to fight just so much harder in order that they may put out a winning team for Lincoln High. Every player has a good chance to make a position and because of this there is more of that fight and punch which is so necessary for a winning team.

Arthur Penney, the captain of this year's team proved to be the stellar player at forward last year, being by far the greatest point-maker on the entire squad. A great deal is expected of him this year both as a player and a captain. With such leadership the team should have great chances for championship.

The present squad members are: Arthur Penney, "Mike" Parenteau, Lawrence Mulry, "Dutch" Zeh, Lloyd Bennes, Walter Larson, Clifford Bjorkman, Charles Froseth, Kenneth Streeter, Maurice Holzknecht, Clarence Doran and Leigh Anderson. The squad is not very large at present, but as the class teams have now started practising, Coach Thune expects to get a great deal of good material from this source.

Bring in Snaps for Prowler

After all, every member of Lincoln high school, or any other school, is just a little more interested in himself or herself than any one else. This can not be denied, as it is only human that this should be. When the "Prowler" of 1925 comes out next spring, the first thing that the students of the school will do is to look for something in it which concerns themselves and the best way to find it is to look among the snaps. But suppose the picture looked for is not there. Was the fault with the Kodak deparment?

Although those on this particular department do all in their power to procure a snap of each student, either by taking a picture of him or asking him for one, it is practically impossible to get a full set. This can be remedied if each one in the school would see to it that he hands in a picture of himself and as many others as possible.

Lincolnnites to Meet Alumni Thurs. Night

"We want a basket" will be the prevailing cry in this city on and after tonight when the locals clash with the Alumni on the Auditorium floor. The Alumni team will be made up of old stars of the high school. Among these stars will be found Stanley Sorenson, "Kip" LaDuce, Roy Brown, Rusty Anderson, Ray Kiland and whatever players the Alumni may be able to get together. As this is the first game of the basket ball season everyone should come and witness the game, and in this way see what the high school will have to offer in the way of basket ball this year. The price should not keep anyone away, as the admission for this game will be ten cents for students and twenty-five for adults.

TO THE ALUMNI:

Subscribe for a Prowler! Now!

Do those words mean anything to you? Do they remind you of a time when you used them as your slogan? Perhaps it was not so many years ago when you stood at the high school door and urged someone to buy a "Prowelr." Then in the spring, when it was published, you carried yours home and still have it.

The alumni all remember that publishing a "Prowler" is not a money-making proposition. It is also remembered that the way the Seniors raise this money is by the subscriptions. Knowing that the other classes in high school are counted on to back the Senior class, they have a goal to work for because when they are Seniors they will publish their "Prowler" and in turn will call upon the lower classes.

The alumni, are also needed to make this "Prowler" a success, but the goal is not so definite or outstanding. They say they are through high school, hence they have no "Prowler" to publish. But, is this true? Take away the alumni subscriptions and you take away a good deal of support the Seniors must have.

The Seniors need the alumni and let's see that they get it. When a Senior comes around with a subscription book the alumni are going to pull out their pocket books and hand over the money.

Start the month and end the year right by subscribing for a 1925 "Prowler." H. K. '25.

A Prowler A Reminder

Breathes there a Senior with soul so dead that he would forget the Senior reception of '24, or the Hallowe'en masquerade? If there is, then a "Prowler" is a very fine reminder.

All through the year there will be many social doings at Lincoln High which in the years to come will be happily recalled by the annual of 1925. There is no memory which is so vivid to the mind as a social one.

It is the aim of the social department of the 1925 "Prowler" to present an account of the social life in the high school during the school year of 1924-25. A few articles have been added to the department's space already and there will, no doubt, be many more.

"THE PROWLER"

"Hey Skinnay—C'mon over! Huh? Ya, I've got it! Got what? No, not the smallpox, I've got the 1925 Prowler. Sure, let's look 'er over!

"You bo, look at this here picture, the cartoon. Say, that looks as tho' Briggs had drawn it! Some picture! Well, don't look at that all day. Turn 'er over. Oh-h-h! Now that's the way he should look all the time. He ain't got that sour, cross look on his face in that picture. Gee! but that really looks like Mr. Bye, the way he oughta' look in school.

"Say, you'd never know that such a cute little baby was Mr. Mickelson, now would ya, Gee, but he looks darling there. He sure was a cute kid, wasn't he?

"Ha, ha! Look at this 'ey'one, Skinnay. She ain't got no hair. Who'd a ever thunk that it was Miss Finnegan? Huh? Who is that one? Gee, you've got me stumped. Take your hand off ain' let me see. All right, I'll guess. It looks like either Mr. Thune or it might be Ethel Bickley. Huh? It's neither of 'em! Gosh, I never thought that that was Maxine. Pictures are different now than when kids was kids.

"Turn 'er over again! Here's the prophesy. Ha! ha! What's ticklin' me: It's this 'er one—read it—Mr. and Mrs. Keith Craig are visiting Mrs. Craig's mother, Mrs. E. Crown, at Thief River Falls. Gee, but that's dumb and the rest are just as crazy.

"These jokes sure are funny! They're even better than the ones you find in the Ski-u-mah or the College Humor. Listen to this 'er one:

"Miss Ingebretson: Allen, why is it that gum wastes energy?

Allan: Well, in one way it does waste energy and in one way it doesn't. A wad of gum can be used again and again as a tooth brush, but it certainly does waste time when it means from forty to eighty minutes after school.

"That sure is good, ain't it, Skinnay?

"Oh boy! Look at this one. Ha, ha. And this one. Oh Gee! But read this one. I'll die if I don't quit laughin' pretty soon. I'm laffin' so much that my stomach hurts. Gee, just think! About five pages chuck full of jokes. It ain't very many annuals that have got that many.

"Oh Gee! There goes my ma. She always has got to yell for me when I'm enjoin' myself the most. I wonder what she wants now. Here she comes so I've gotta go. C'mon over tonight an' we'll finish lookin' at it. I was going to go to the show, but this is betterrn' a show any ol' day. S'long, Skinnay."

GET A "PROWLER"

Money talks! That means that if a person has money he can do something. This may truly apply to the "Prowler." The staff could put out a very good annual if it had the money. The source of its money is limited, therefore limiting the size of the book.

The class intends to live up to former records this year and produce an annual the school may be proud of.

The staff needs all the subscriptions it can secure at present. Do not put off the buying of a "Prowler." Be sure to subscribe for an annual during the campaign.

A Perfect Economic Cycle

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to guarantee the service and quality of the petroleum products it sells because its products and its manufacturing processes are standardized.

The highly specialized machinery, the operation of the plant, and the methods of the workers—all are reduced to standard practice. The workers trained for their job; the special equipment, made and adjusted to yield the highest degree of effectiveness—all are factors in standardizing the product. But, standardization is without avail if there is any interruption in the operation of the highly specialized manufacturing equipment.

With expensive, high-powered machinery idle, interest charges and plant depreciation would eat up not only all the profit, but a considerable portion of the invested capital.

The refineries of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) must work as nearly full time as possible if they are to show a profit at the end of the year. One of the major problems confronting this Company is to keep its refineries in continuous operation.

Through uninterrupted operation the Management of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is able to pursue its constructive labor policy which promotes harmony among its workers. This policy pays dividends to the Company and to the consumer. Skilled workers cannot be replaced readily. Many of the Standard Oil workers are trained from youth for special tasks.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a leader in the refining of specialized petroleum products. Its ideals of service embrace an efficient system of manufacture and an effective system of distribution.

Because the fact is generally recognized that its products are standardized and held strictly to the standard set, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been able to develop a wide and stable market which absorbs the products this Company's high-powered refineries—its skilled labor—and its scientific management can manufacture.

This makes for a "twelve month" work year, which otherwise would be strictly seasonal.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has specialized its operating facilities to such a point as to complete a perfect economic cycle; in which low costs depend upon a wide market and a wide market depends upon reasonable prices.

A perfect economic cycle—standardization—and maximum service—go hand in hand.

A BUSSINESS OPPORTUNITY IN PENNINGTON COUNTY

exists for the man who wishes to be his own boss and the owner of a permanent, ever-expanding, profitable merchandising service. It may start with $100 capital, or $10,000, but it cannot start without capital. The degree of success has no reasonable limit. It has attracted to it and has today engaged in it, men who are conspicuous success and of long and wide experience in merchandising, with capital abundant for all their requirements; and the other extreme of men and women with limited business experience and qualifications, and very small capital. No man is too big for the business. Men of strong professional standing with splendid incomes have given up these incomes and their professional work to engage in this service, with success. The business is merchandising, but it entails a service that is unique, intensely interesting — productive of great enthusiasm, and broadly constructive. It makes you the greatest benefactor in your community, town, city, or district, and pays you a real profit for such benefaction. Service is the foundation of all real success, and this service literally enables you to take time from eternity and put it into life of man, and make legitimate profits in doing so. Paul Engelstad Attends Meeting of Directors—McCann Heads Livestock Division

Active preparations were begun for the 1925 Red River Valley Winter livestock, farm crops, and poultry shows to be held in the Red River Valley Livestock pavilions, Crookston, February 9 to 13, at a meeting of the directors of the Red River Valley Livestock association held there Friday evening, which was attended by Paul Engelstad of this community who is a member of the board of directors. The meeting was attended also by representatives of the Red River Valley Development association, the Red River Valley Crops and Soils association, the Northern Minnesota Poultry association, and the Northwest School of Agriculture, all of which co-operate in carrying on what is known as the Red River Valley Winter Shows and Northwest School Farmers' Week meetings.

C. G. Selvig, president of the Red River Valley Livestock association and of the Board of Managers of the Winter Shows presided at the meeting. A financial statement of the Red River Valley Livestock association was presented. Superintendents of the different divisions of the livestock show were appointed including County Agent J. J. McCann, Thief River Falls, for the cattle division; county agent-elect of Polk County for the swine division; J. W. Taylor, Roseau, for the sheep; and M. A. Carlisle, manager of the Prince of Wales farm, Calgary, Alberta, beef cattle; E. F. Ferrin, University Farm, swine; and H. R. Searles, agricultural extension specialist for the dairy cattle. Secretary John Saugstad announced that George W. Hackett, Minneapolis, would be the judge for the poultry show. Secretary O. M. Kiser of the Red River Valley Livestock association in reporting on the preliminary prospects for holding sales of purebred livestock during the livestock show week, stated that large consignments of both Holstein and Guernsey cattle will be sold and that a breeders' sale of Duroc, Poland China and Chester White hogs will be a feature.

The directors of the Livestock association went on record as favoring the establishment of an exhibit division for horses as soon as the funds of the association and available space for such an exhibit could be secured.

An invitation was extended to the Northwestern Minnesota Singers' association to hold their annual midwinter chorus program on Friday evening, February 13. In order to accommodate those who wish to attend this program, it was decided to have them appear at an afternoon matinee as well as during the evening as in the past, hundreds have been unable to gain admission to the evening program.

C. G. Selvig announced the names of the persons who will take part in the fifteenth annual Northwest School Farmers' and Women's Week meetings which are held in connection with the shows. The huge advances made in dairying, beef production, in the number of swine raised and marketed, and in the sheep industry will be presented by experts.

Mrs. John Asp Breaks Leg In Auto Spill Friday Night

Mrs. John Asp, residing east of Hazel, is confined at the Swedenburg hospital with a broken leg as a result of an accident Friday night when the car, driven by her husband, tipped over into the ditch on a road east of Hazel. Mrs. Asp was pinned under the machine and lay on the frozen ground for nearly a half hour before released. Her left leg was broken and knee dislocated, but Mr. Asp escaped uninjured, according to reports. She was taken to the hospital the following day, and will be confined for a while, the attending physician said. No permanent injury will result, present conditions indicate.

Mrs. Asp, who is a nurse, has done a great deal of work in her community, attending to ill persons and her early recovery is hoped by a host of friends.

Grain Movement Thru City Shows Decline Past Week

Grain shipments from western points thru Thief River Falls have decreased during the past week and it is likely that the heavy movement is over for this season, according to P. J. Keating, inspector here Sunday. Most cars are billed to Duluth terminals but with the closing of lake navigation it is expected that a larger quantity of grain will be shipped to the Minneapolis markets from now on. Lake navigation was to have closed Dec. 5 but due to the continued mild weather it may be possible to continue a while longer. The grain inspection staff here remains the same as thru the peak shipping season, as it is estimated that a large part of the crop still remains to be shipped but that the price change caused a slump in shipments.

Rail Pay Increase Adds To Wages of 50 in T. R. F.

About 50 Soo Line engineers and firemen residing in this city are affected by the 5 per cent increase in wages allowed by the United States Railway Labor board this week, it is stated by local Soo officials. The increase will average from $10 to $20 a month for each individual. The Soo railway will pay out $150,000 more a year in wages over the whole system, it is announced. Forty-five western roads were effected by the wage increase.

St. Hilaire Farmer Injured When Car and Truck Collide

Peter Kolseth, farmer in Wyandotte township, near St. Hilaire, left the Swedenburg hospital Sunday after having been confined there since Tuesday as a result of an auto accident in which he suffered a double fracture to his right arm and a broken collar bone. The accident occurred Monday of last week when the car occupied by Kolseth collided with a gravel truck at Red Lake Falls. The driver, a Plummer man, was not injured. Kolseth was first given medical attention at Red Lake Falls and then brought to this city. Besides being broken his arm was also badly gashed, but it is expected that he will suffer no permanent injury.

Ditch Engineer Appointed On No. 103 Near Thief Lake

Glen C. Bickley has been appointed engineer for judicial ditch No. 103, the Thief Lake project which was a part of the proceedings dismissed by Judge Andrew Grindeland two years ago. The engineer must file his report within 90 days and hearings may be resumed next spring. H. O. Berve, now associated with J. M. Bishop in this city, was attorney for the objectors in the former proceedings.

After having been the subject of heated controversy for more than three years, the consolidated drainage project known as Judicial Ditch No. 1 of Marshall and Beltrami counties, was dismissed by Judge Grindeland in district court, who filed his order in June 1922. However, provision was made for further drainage in the district known as the Thief Lake district as separate enterprises, should the taxpayers so desire. The matter was appealed to the supreme court, which upheld Judge Grindeland's order.

Helen Warner Dies Friday After Lingering Illness

Friends of Miss Helen Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Warner, for the past 17 months confined at the Oakland Park Sanatorium for pulmonary tuberculosis, were deeply grieved last week by her death, which occurred Friday evening at 6:35 o'clock.

Miss Warner was born in this city October 25, 1904, and has made her home with her parents here her entire life. She attended the local grammar schools and graduated from the high school here in 1922. The following February she left for Rochester where she began nurse's training at the St. Mary's hospital where she remained five months, during which time it was discovered that she had tuberculosis. She then returned to this city and in July 1923 entered the Oakland Park Sanatorium for treatment, and was confined there until her death.

Miss Warner leaves to mourn her passing her parents, four sisters, Camille, Faith, Lucy and Mary and two brothers, Charles and James.

All her friends knew her to be kind and pleasant and thoughtful of the comforts of others. During her school life she made a host of friends who deeply feel the tragedy of her early death and extend their sympathies and condolations to the bereaved relatives.

The funeral was held from the St. Bernard's Catholic church, of which she was a member, Monday forenoon at 9 o'clock, Rev. Fr. A. I. Merth officiating and interment made in the Catholic cemetery.

No Small Pox in St. Hilaire

The quarentine for small pox was removed from the Oscar Evenson family at St. Hilaire last week when Dr. Gahlen of St. Paul, state health officer, confirmed Dr. J. T. Bowers' diagnosis of the case, declaring the disease to be chicken pox instead of the dread black small pox.

Farmers Here Join in Cow Testing Ass'n Now Under Way—Hunt Named Pres.

Steps towards the organization of the Pennington County Cow Testing association were taken at a meeting of interested dairymen of the community held at the Commercial club rooms here Saturday afternoon. S. E. Hunt, prominent Holstein breeder, east of the city, was named president and Paul Engelstad, Guernsey breeder and expert herdsman, secretary-treasurer of the temporary organization. That the association will be a reality is now a certainty, the officers declare, and altho the desired membership of 26 has not yet been secured, the committee will get the remainder signed up at once. About a dozen farmers, leaders in the dairy industry in this section, were present at the meeting Saturday.

The by-laws under which all the testing associations in the state are operating will be adopted here, it is announced, and final arrangements for the organization made in the near future.

The cow testing association is said to be one of the most effective devices for the upbuilding of profitable dairying in the community, and the presence of such an organization is regarded as the mark of the progressive dairy community. Only by constant and regular weighing of the feed of the dairy cow and of the production of milk and cream can the owner tell the extent of the profit in the animal. The sale value of the animal is also said to be increased thru a testing association.

Isak Helseth, vice president of the Minneapolis Bridge company who just completed the construction of a $300,000 bridge spanning the Missouri river at Mobridge, S. D., arrived at his home here for the Thanksgiving holidays and expects to remain in the city for a week or two. He was accompanied here by his son, Paul, who was timekeeper on the Mobridge project. He left Sunday for Minneapolis to be employed in the main offices of the company and may attend the Minnesota university after Christmas. With the completion of the project at Mobridge some of the local men employed there are returning to this city while some will go on other projects. The company is constructing bridges at various points and Mr. Helseth is gaining a reputation of being one of the best bridge builders in the country.

6-Mile Stretch Graveled In 10 Days. 71 Teams Haul

Seventy-one teams were employed in hauling the gravel for the six miles known as the east end of the Hazel state road project, which was completed Nov. 21, the job being finished in 10 days. The work was under the expert supervision of Bert Umland, county highway engineer, thru whose office the payments are also made. He has just finished paying out to Pennington county taxpayers a total of $4,022.28 for hauling and other work connected with the surfacing and $470.40 for the gravel used in the project, for which the county paid ten cents a yard in the pit. Gravel was taken from the Gunder Asbjornson and Wilde pits.

This part of the Pennington county road system is now in excellent condition, it is reported, and is another sample of the efficient work of Engineer Umland. Many farmers of the community welcomed the opportunity to get work at this time.

St. Paul Man Injured in Auto Collision Here Returns Home

David Lindstrom of St. Paul, who was confined in the Swedenburg hospital for about two weeks as a result of an automobile accident, returned to St. Paul Wednesday of last week. The accident occurred Nov. 14 when the car, a Ford, occupied by Lindstrom and Theodore Olson, also of St. Paul, ran into a large gravel truck, on the highway two miles out of the city, the impact pushing the machine back about twelve feet, forcing the engine almost into the driver's seat and almost demolishing the car. Mr. Olson escaped without a scratch but Mr. Lindstrom, altho thrown from the front seat received a number of gashes, one of which developed into blood poisoning. Following the accident Mr. Lindstrom was taken to the Swedenburg hospital here for medical attention.

The two victims of the collision were on their way to Warren to attend the funeral of Mr. Lindstrom's father in Vega township, Marshall county.

THIEF RIVER FALLS WELCOMES ALFALFA BOOSTERS

STATE LEGION AND AUXILIARY HEADS CONSIDER PLANS FOR '25 CONVENTION ON VISIT IN CITY

Service Program For Legion Posts Urged by Commander Edwin Lindell Here

UNIVERSAL DRAFT PLAN ADVOCATED IN ADDRESS

Predict Great Convention in This City—Entire Citizenry Must Co-operate

Stressing a program of service for American Legion posts thruout the state and urging co-operation between the various organizations and citizenry of Thief River Falls in preparing for the 1925 Minnesota Legion convention Aug. 10, 11 and 12, Edwin L. Lindell of Minneapolis, state commander of the Legion, addressed a mass meeting at the auditorium last Friday night. In addition to Mr. Lindell's speech, an address was also made by Mrs. Milton Spencer, of Winona, president of the Minnesota Legion Auxiliaries, and introductory remarks by Mayor J. S. Arneson and Commander H. O. Chommie of the local post. A good sized audience greeted the state officials.

It was the first time a Legion commander and Auxiliary president of the state department had visited Thief River Falls, their visit here being chiefly for the purpose of conferring with local Legionaires, Auxiliary members and citizens regarding the big convention next year.

"You have won the right to entertain the American Legion of Minnesota next year," Mr. Lindell told his audience Friday night. "Before coming here I was not so sure what this town was, but after spending a day here, I feel no hesitancy in telling you that the next convention is going to be a good one. But, I also frankly tell you that it will not be a good one unless the same spirit that impressed me today is carried on until the convention is held here in August, next year. In a spirit of co-operation Thief River Falls, its Legionaires, its Auxiliary and citizens, are going to render service.

Great Opportunity

"The American Legion believes it is a privilege to act as host to our convention. It brings to your doors men and women from all over the state and I want to say that Thief River Falls can well afford to have the people of Minnesota come and see what it offers. There are a great many people who do not realize that this is a prosperous thriving community and you are going to have the best opportunity of your lives in proving it next August, and I know you are going to make the best of that opportunity. We of the department headquarters are willing to do anything we can to assist. We are yours to command."

Commander Lindell made an excellent impression and won his audience at once. Assuming an easy position and quiet manner he speaks with sincerity which carries conviction with it. He is not an orator but speaks fluently, and his sincerity is captivating from the outset. Besides addressing the public meeting Lindell also spoke to members of the Commercial club at the noon luncheon, to students of the high school in the afternoon and to members of the Legion and Auxiliary and guests at the evening banquet given at the club rooms in honor of Commander Lindell and Mrs. Spencer. At each occasion he was greeted with enthusiasm and when he closed his address at the auditorium the audience would hardly stop applauding.

Local Men Speak

In their opening remarks, following singing by the audience under the direction of Dr. P. L. Vistaunet, Commander Chommie and Mayor Arneson called attention to the importance of every citizen of the community in backing up the Legion in the huge task of entertaining the 1925 convention. They pointed to the spirit displayed by representative citizens in landing the convention and called for a continuation of that spirit. They also emphasized the value of such a gathering to this city and community, especially in that it would give opportunity for thousands of young Minnesotans to become acquainted with this section of northern Minnesota, many of them prospective settlers and business men, thus having far-reaching results.

In speaking of the principles and ideals of the American Legion, Mr. Lindell emphasized the fact that it was conceived in service and organized by men who rendered willing service and is dedicated to service, based on tolerance, justice and democracy. Helping disabled war comrades is the primary object of the Legion and the main reason for its organization, he declared, and pointed to the record of five years of service by the Legion and Auxiliary.

Legion Program Cited

"Every Legion post should be of service to its community," Mr. Lindell said, suggesting possible activities as a means of giving service, in addition to caring for less fortunate veterans. The Legion, he said, advocates:

A universal draft plan which will make American man-power, capital, labor and industries serve on an equal basis in time of war, making it impossible for anyone to promote war for selfish reasons and doing away with war profiteers. It does not believe that this country should be the first to lay down its defensive arms.

Provisions whereby children of former service men will be given proper care. The Legion is doing its utmost in placing orphans of veterans in homes instead of institutions.

Adopting of a definite program of community service, including fostering better citizenship, civic pride and promote educational facilities.

Business Men Should Aid

To the business men Mr. Lindell said: "Very soon you will not be here and then the community will be dependent upon the men represented by the American Legion in your community to carry on the things you have begun. Give them suggestions, you will find them willing to co-operate. The American Legion post as a place in the community and if it is not taking it, it is not doing the things it should do."

Commander Lindell also told of the efforts of the American Legion which have resulted in establishment of hospital, for former service men and its activities in giving some comfort to the sick and disabled buddies in hospitals, pleading with his audience for aid in this work.

The Auxiliaries of the state were commended for what has been done thru that organization in cheering and helping disabled veterans. The Auxiliary was referred to as the right arm of the Legion.

Thief River Falls citizens were told that they should appreciate the work done in securing the convention. "I believe some measure of thanks is due your past commander who has just retired," Mr. Lindell said in referring to the services of Oscar Smith. "He worked hard and faithfully to secure it. I feel that the convention will be a success if the same measure of support is given your new commander as was given the last one."

Every effort will be made to make it an orderly convention, the commander said, the department officers co-operating with the local committees in making it a most desirable gathering. Attention was called to the many tales regarding the national convention in St. Paul, most of which were unfounded and exaggerated.

The attentiveness of the audience thruout the address was pronounced.

Mrs. Spencer Speaks Briefly

Auxiliary activities were reviewed in a brief talk by Mrs. Spencer, who also urged service as the chief aim of the organization. "I have nothing to say but ditto to what Lindell has already said," Mrs. Spencer declared.

The banquet in the evening given in honor of the visiting Legion heads was a pleasing affair and was attended by a goodly number of Legionaires and Auxiliary members. Members of the city council, county commissioners, representatives of the press and Legionaires from neighboring towns were invited guests. Short talks, expressing appreciation of what the local post is doing in preparing for the 1925 convention and the hospitality displayed, were given by President Spencer and Commander Lindell, who also urged a large membership in order to do effective work in the community. "It is a privilege to be a member of these organizations," they asserted. Remarks were also made by Commander Chommie, Mayor Arneson and Mrs. C. M. Haug, president of the local Auxiliary unit. Much enthusiasm was evidenced by everyone present.

During the repast vocal numbers were given by Kern Olson and Herbert Hanson, accompanied by Mrs. Clarence Erickson. The hit of the program was undoubtedly their duet, "Ja, vi har ingen Bananas."

During the afternoon the visiting officials met with the executives of the respective organizations to consider plans for the meeting next year, and many helpful suggestions were given by the state heads. Definite details and committee appointments will be announced later.

Violators of Prohibition Laws Given Stiff Sentences By Judge Cant in U.S. Court

Bernhard Knudsen returned yesterday morning from Fergus Falls where he served as member of a petit jury in United States district court for two weeks. The court, which was presided over by Judge Cant, was in session for one month, the last jury being dismissed Tuesday. At the beginning of the term John Engebretson of East Grand Forks was found guilty of violating the prohibition laws on four charges and was given a sentence of two years imprisonment in the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans. He was also assessed a substantial fine. Following his conviction and heavy sentence 15 other violators of the liquor laws plead guilty immediately and were given sentences of from three months to more than a year in jail and fines of $400 to $600. The only other liquor case that was tried was that of a rum runner from Minneapolis, who was also found guilty. The jury returned a verdict of guilty in the case of Dr. John Boehm, St. Cloud physician, charged with having given morphine prescriptions to drug addicts. He was given five years at Leavenworth. Max Stimon plead guilty to a charge of smuggling aliens across the boundary from Canada and was sentenced to nearly two years in the federal prison.

Aaseby Becomes Owner of Corner Horace Ave. 3rd St.

A deal was closed last week whereby Iver Aaseby became the owner of the property and building on the corner of Horace avenue and Third street, in which he and E. P. Burstad have operated a garage during the past six years, which he has purchased from Oluf Tessum.

Aleck Tveit Slugged, Robbed and Deserted By Group of 'Jacks

One of the most ruthless deeds committed against a local boy was perpetrated Wednesday last week when Aleck Tveit, 17 years old, son of Anton Tveit, of this city, was drugged with liquor, slugged and robbed, not only of his money and watch, but also his shoes and socks, near a lumber camp in the Deer River country in the vicinity of Bemidji, by a bunch of lumberjacks, and then deserted, while in unconscious state, to freeze.

By the aid of a few men at the camp, he was fitted with clothing and given carefare to this city Friday and is now confined at the Physicians hospital, suffering bad freezes in both feet with a possibility of losing part of one foot, according to the attending physician, Dr. J. T. Bowers. However, every effort is being made to avoid amputation.

He was waiting along a road for a bus to Bemidji, where he was going to have some dental work done, when he was attacked. It will be difficult to bring criminal action against the right parties, altho there is a possibility that officials may take the matter up.

AUGUSTANA CHURCH CALLS NEW PASTOR

Rev. Gustafson of Elbow Lake Called to Succeed Rev. Larson Who Moves to Warren

Rev. Oscar Gustafson, pastor of the Swedish Lutheran church in Elbow Lake, has been called to serve the local Augustana church to succeed Rev. Albin A. Larson, who has served here since his ordination in 1915. Rev. Larson's resignation has been accepted and the congregation voted at a meeting last Friday to extend a call to Rev. Gustafson, who has been president of the Red River Valley conference the past three years. He was ordained into the ministry nine years ago and is said to be an able speaker. No reply to the call has been received yet.

Rev. Larson leaves Thief River Falls to devote his entire time to the duties as president of the North Star college at Warren, which he has been in charge of the past year in addition to his duties as pastor of the local church. He has not yet been elected permanent president of the institution but it is likely that he will be named when the educational board of the church meets soon. Since becoming head of North Star, Rev. Larson has added a junior college, and a great deal has been done in making the school known thruout this section by a concert tour of the North Star chorus.

Rev. and Mrs. Larson and four children will establish their home at Warren after Jan. 1, a portion of their furniture already having been moved from the parsonage at 816 Main avenue north. Mrs. Larson was formerly Olga Longren, her marriage to Rev. Larson taking place in 1916. Both have been faithful workers in the church in this community and will be missed by a large circle of friends, not only members of the congregation, but others as well, who join in wishing them happiness in their new home.

ELKS PAY TRIBUTE TO DEAD MEMBERS

Attorney Pegelow of Bemidji Speaks in Tribute to Deceased Members of Lodge

Thief River Falls Elks, in keeping with the national custom of the order, held memorial exercises Sunday afternoon at the club rooms, for members who have passed away. The meeting, altho open to the public, was attended by a rather small crowd.

C. L. Pegelow, Bemidji gave the principal address, which was an appropriate and well delivered tribute to departed Elks. He spoke on the history of the order and its cardinal principles—charity, justice, brotherly love and fidelity. Attention was called to the great amount of charity work done by Elks thruout the land, this being one of the chief aims of the organization.

Vocal solos were given by Kern Olson, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Clarence Erickson. Andy Anderson, past exalted ruler of the local lodge, was in charge in the absence of W. W. Prichard, Jr.

There are 19 former members of lodge No. 1308 who have died since the lodge was instituted and whose memory was perpetuated by the services last Sunday, they being: W. W. Pierce, M. C. Cutter, K. O. Dock, H. L. Anderson, A. J. Gorman, Geo. G. Johnson, C. A. Pitkin, H. G. Hieber, Glen Blawd, J. H. McKinney, G. W. Bennett, E. H. Taylor, B. J. Carney, E. M. Stanton, Sr., F. W. Johnson, T. J. Austad, E. Hellquist, W. B. Fuller and Emil Zeh. The last two named died during the past year.

More Than 13,000,000 Bu. Grain Thru T. R. F. This Fall

Between 13 and 14 million bushels of grain have passed thru Thief River Falls this fall, according to P. J. Keating, superintendent of grain inspection here. This far exceeds the shipment totals for any former season. It is estimated that about 40 per cent of the crop still remains to be shipped, it is likely that this will be moved to the twin city markets during the ensuing winter months. The rush in grain shipments is now over and an average of only about 40 cars daily are inspected here, Mr. Keating reports. There was a decided slump in shipments last week.

ALFALFA CAMPAIGN IS BEST MOVEMENT EVER STARTED, SAYS PIONEER

What alfalfa growing means to Pennington county is forcefully pointed out in a statement by Peter Engelstad, pioneer farmer of this community who planted the first patch of alfalfa in the county 21 years ago. The fact that the alfalfa acreage on the Engelstad farms at present totals 180 acres and will exceed 200 acres in 1925, is evidence of Mr. Engelstad's belief in alfalfa, and his splendid farm four miles southeast of Thief River Falls is an indication of what can be done in the dairy game with alfalfa and silos.

A two-acre plot of alfalfa seeded 21 years ago is still giving good yields, Mr. Engelstad states, and a field of 15 acres seeded 15 years ago continues to produce excellent crops without cultivation or application of fertilizers. Last spring 30 acres were added and next spring an equal increase is planned.

Following is what the "Alfalfa King" of Pennington county says:

"This alfalfa campaign, which was started last year and is flaring up again this year, is one of the most worthy movements or enterprises undertaken by Thief River Falls citizens.

"This boosting can not help but attract attention to the natural resources or wealth hidden in our soil.

"As a milk producing food and soil builder combined alfalfa seeks its equal.

"The splendid stands of alfalfa, which can be seen more or less in any part of the county, obtained without any special preparation of the soil as to inoculation or liming, is evidence that the natural conditions exists for the growing of this king of forage plants, and the slogan adopted, 'Pennington County, The Home of Alfalfa,' is well taken and nothing out of the way.

"The result of this agitation and the consequences, which will follow in its wake is hard to estimate, but as years roll by the results will be larger and larger. People will be attracted to this section, who have never been here before, many homes will change hands and much of the unoccupied land picked up. Then dairying will get a boost as never before. We must have the feed first of all before we attempt anything in the line of dairying and I am optimist enough to vision an era of prosperity for our dairymen up in this section of the state."

STORES DISTRIBUTE MANY FORD COUPONS IN NOVEL CAMPAIGN

Interest Runs High and Business is Stimulated Local Merchants Report

Much interest is now being shown by patrons of local stores in the Ford Coupon contest started last week by the Eklund Legion post for the purpose of raising money for the 1925 state convention and merchants report that business here has been given an impetus. Interest naturally runs high during the Christmas shopping period and the Legion urges anyone making purchases of $1.00 or more to ask for coupons. Nearly 11 the merchants in the city are co-operating in this contest.

The Ford will be given away Jan. 17, 1925, when an impartial committee will determine the winner. It will not be necessary for the holder of the winning coupon to be present. Coupons are deposited at the local banks.

Langseth, local shoe dealer and large crowds visit the store daily to take advantage of the unusual offerings. Prices have been cut to the limit as can be seen from the advertisement in this issue.

A feature of this important sales event is the giving away of a beautiful $285 Brunswick Radiola to the individual or organization having the largest number of votes, each purchase being worth a certain number of votes, according to the rules of the contest as given in the advertisement.

Beatrice Olson, dean of women at the University of North Dakota, will address a joint meeting of the Womans Club and Girls Community Club Monday evening at the Legion club rooms, speaking on the topic, "The Girls of Tomorrow." Post Office Prepared for Annual Holiday Mail Rush. Early Mailing is Advised

The quarters formerly occupied by the J. C. Penney company store have been engaged by the local post office to receive incoming parcels during the Christmas rush, it is announced this week by Postmaster Daniel Shaw. The present limited facilities and the increasing volume of mail handled here make added quarters necessary. A truck will be put into the service in the distribution of parcels during the busy time.

It is expected that Christmas mailing will be started in earnest the first of next week, an appeal having been made to the public to send their Christmas mail as early as possible.

"Help yourself by helping us," says a pamphlet distributed among patrons this week. The public is urged to mail early in the day, to pack well, tie securely and address plainly. There will be no carrier service, city or rural, on Christmas Day, except on star routes. The post office will be closed on Christmas Day after receipt of the Great Northern mail at noon, in order to give employees opportunity to enjoy the day.

VETERANS URGED TO FILE CLAIMS SOON

Compensation Claims Must Be Entered Before Jan. 1, Lindell Tells Veterans

Department Commander Edwin L. Lindell in his address here Friday called the attention of all Legionnaires and posts to the fact that comrades of the World War who suffer from any tubercular, mental or nervous trouble, should request examination by the United States Veterans Bureau and submit their claims for treatment and compensation not later than January 1, 1925, at which time, as the law now reads, their claims will be outlawed.

Commander Lindell asked that this news be broadcast to comrades by every possible means so that no veteran may be denied that which the government intended him to receive. Posts also are urged to launch a new campaign to clean up all outstanding claims for national adjusted compensation—the so-called "federal bonus."

Less than one-half the veterans of Minnesota have submitted their applications. Those with dependents should remember that if they die before executing the adjusted compensation application forms, their loved ones will receive only one-third of the amount they would get were the claim properly filed. Any American Legion post has the necessary blanks, or can obtain them from Minnesota Legion headquarters upon request, in any quantity needed.

Bonus applications are being filled out daily by County Auditor T. P. Anderson, who urges that ex-service men make their applications as soon as possible to expedite the work of the department. Quite a number of Pennington veterans have not sent in their applications, Mr. Anderson states.

So far 216 applications have been made out by the county auditor, some of them for veterans outside the county.

FRESH AIR URGED BY HEALTH ASS'N

Miss Ida Dahl City School Nurse Urges Observance of "Week" Year Around

"Fresh air is nature's best tonic—use more of it."

This was the slogan of Fresh Air Week, Nov. 9 to 16, which was observed in this state under the direction of the Minnesota Public Health association as part of the tuberculosis prevention program supported by Christmas Seals. Miss Ida Dahl, local school nurse, calls attention to the significance of the week in this city and community. The object of the campaign was to encourage out-of-doors sleeping for those that can afford proper equipment to keep warm; open-window sleeping for all; and a more abundant use of fresh air during the day in home, office, shop, school and elsewhere.

"November is in too many homes the beginning of an unhealthful shut-in existence which lasts until spring," says the Fresh Air Week bulletin of the Public Health association." Fresh air is the cheapest and the best medicine both for prevention of disease and its cure known to man.

"Patients at the tuberculosis sanatoria of the state have demonstrated the body-healing benefits of fresh air, and they have also proved that it is possible to sleep out-of-doors in comfort in this climate in the winter months." While out-of-doors sleeping is not possible for all, every one can sleep with their windows open. How many of us are guilty of lowering our bedroom window inch by inch as the thermometer recedes degree by degree! Remember the closed window at night is the open door to tuberculosis. Sleep with your windows open top and bottom no matter how cold the night is—and put on all the extra coverings necessary to keep warm. The danger of wasting fuel can be eliminated by closing the bedroom off from the rest of the house.

"Office, shops and homes should guard against stuffiness and impure air. Watch the thermometer—a temperature of around 68 degrees F. is best from the standpoint of comfort and health. Get out-of-doors for health; take some of your recreation in the open air."

Day dreams never come true without some wide-awake work.

"ALFALFA DAY" CELEBRATION PROMISES TO BE SUCCESSFUL EVENT--CITY IS DECORATED

"Alfalfa Palace" Covered With Colored Lights is Object of Much Interest

PROMINENT MEN WILL ADDRESS TWO MEETINGS

Free Lunch Following Afternoon Session—Clown Band to Entertain Crowds

With the city all dressed up a la alfalfa style and an impressive "alfalfa palace" as centerpiece, ideal weather, prominent speakers, a clown band and alfalfa boosters from Pennington and neighboring counties gathered to pay tribute to King Alfalfa, it is safe to say that "Alfalfa Day" which is celebrated today in Thief River Falls will be an important event in the history of this community. The alfalfa palace, erected on the intersection of LaBree and Third street, was completed yesterday and presented a beautiful sight last night when it was illuminated by a multitude of colored lights.

Merchants have decorated their stores in competition for the prize offered for the best display. Especially unique displays were seen in the Mogensen clothing store and Rolland's meat market this morning. Flags are also waving from the buildings to give the city a festive appearance.

The speakers scheduled to address the crowds at the auditorium at afternoon and evening sessions today arrived this morning. A message received here from C. T. Jaffray, president of the Soo Line, states that he was suddenly taken ill in Chicago and is unable to be present to speak at the exercises here today.

Dan Wallace, managing editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, is scheduled to deliver the principal address at the afternoon session, which opens at 2 o'clock. In addition to his address it is likely that talks will be given by D. E. Willard of the Great Northern and A. B. Lyman, Grimm seed grower and alfalfa expert.

The evening program, which is subject to change will include talks by Chas. Hutcheson of the Northwest Farmstead, T. O. Ofsthun of the Minnesota Rural Credits Bureau, H. F. Funston, land commissioner of the Soo line, and a number of local speakers.

A feature of the afternoon and evening will be music by the famous clown band of this city with L. A. Hermanson in charge, which will provide plenty of novelty numbers at the programs. The community singing in the auditorium will be directed by Maude L. Johnson of the city schools. Members of the high school glee clubs will also take part. Among the special numbers will the Pennington county "Alfalfa Song" and some of the songs submitted by children of the rural schools in the song contest, the winner of which will be announced. A large number of slogans with reference to alfalfa have been received, according to the committee.

Free lunch will be given visitors at the close of the afternoon session.

Delegations are in the city from Holt, Goodridge, St. Hilaire, Plummer, Red Lake Falls, Warren, Wylie, Grygla, Gatzke, Newfolden, Viking and other points in this section.

All-American Turkey Show in Grand Forks Feb. 3 to 6 T. R. F. May Invite 1926

Ed. L. Hays, of Minneapolis, president of the Northwest Turkey Breeders' association and judge at the recent poultry show in this city, has written to County Agent J. J. McCann asking for a list of all prospective turkey exhibitors in the county at the All-American Turkey exposition in Grand Forks Feb. 3 to 6, 1925. All those who desire to enter exhibits should communicate with Mr. McCann. Liberal premiums are offered.

It is likely that Thief River Falls will bid for the 1926 convention, according to Mr. McCann, this being one of the leading turkey centers in the state. A state turkey association will be organized in the near future, Mr. Hayes reports, and prospects are good for this city becoming the exposition place next year.

Mr. McCann has been asked to take part in the program of the Grand Forks exposition.

Former Stars Will Play High School Friday Nite

Another basket ball game will be played this week when the high school team clashes with former stars in a second battle at the auditorium tomorrow, Friday evening at 8. It is likely that the Alumni will use the same lineup as was seen in action last week, and they will make an effort to make up for the defeat in the first contest. Among those who are expected to fight it out with Coach Thune's men are Roy Brown, Ray Killand, James Parenteau, Elmer Larson, Math Barzen, Milford LaBree, Charles Herron, Stanley Sorenson, Dennis McGinn and others. The regular lineup will be used by the high school, which meets Warren here on Dec. 19.

Christmas Seals Now Being Sold by Pennington Pupils

Pennington county will again go over the top in the annual sale of Christmas health seals, or little stamps used on holiday mail. These seals are being sold in all parts of the county, and the funds raised will be used to fight tuberculosis.

Much aid is given in the sales campaign by the pupils in the schools. There is not a rural school so remote but that the pupils get an opportunity to sell the seals and already many of the packages and letters are being adorned with the messages of health. Altho the seals are being distributed among the rural schools directly from the state health department to which the teachers also remit the proceeds, Supt. Ole R. Sande is supervising the drive in the county and urges that each school dispose of all the seals received. Seals are also being sold by practically every pupil in the Thief River Falls schools, Supt. I. T. Simley being in charge.

Commander Lindell Sets Pace in Legion Mileage

That Edwin L. Lindell, Minnesota Legion commander is a real hustler and a fellow who is constantly on the job, is evidenced by his speaking schedule. On Nov. 29, he spoke at Duluth; Dec. 1, at Hibbing, Virginia and Gilbert and on Dec. 2 at Eveleth and Cloquet. Dec. 3 he attended to business matters in Minneapolis and on Thursday he addressed meetings in Crookston and Fertile, coming to Thief River Falls Friday. He gave four talks while in this city, returning on Friday night to Minneapolis, where he had a conference with Robert Smith, general manager of the American Legion Weekly, on Saturday. This week he invaded District One, speaking Monday at Lake City, Tuesday at St. Charles and Winona, Wednesday at Harmony and Waseca, Thursday at Austin and Albert Lea, and Friday at Owatonna. In many cases the Commander is giving noonday talks to non-Legion organizations, explaining Legion principles and activities.

John Newland, operator of the local creamery, left a week ago Saturday for the University Farm, St. Paul, to attend a two-weeks' short course for creamery operators. Prof. W. B. Combs is in charge. Members of the class are taught dairy bacteriology, creamery repairs and engineering, accounting, egg marketing and creamery tests and management. Special lectures are given by Chris Heen, state dairy and food commissioner, James Sorenson, secretary of the Minnesota Creamery Operators' association; A. J. McGuire, manager of the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association and Dr. R. W. Archibald. During Mr. Newland's absence Gunsten Bergland is in charge of the local plant. Four Teams of Legionaires Active in Membership Drive

A regular meeting of the Elmer J. Eklund post, will be held tomorrow, Friday night to consider convention plans and the membership campaign which is now going on.

The post membership has been divided into four groups, the teams being headed by Roy Erickson, N. C. Kvemo, Oscar Paulson and Harold Provencher. The two losing groups will have to bear the expense of a special "feed" which will be given Dec. 26. The membership contest closes on Dec. 20 and the various teams are hard at work to secure a record enrollment, according to Commander H. O. Chommie. The present membership totals 186 but it is hoped to pass the 200 mark for 1925. A large membership is of particular importance to the hosts of the 1925 state convention and an effort is being made to enroll every ex-service man in the community.

Dr. Twete to Move Office

Dr. L. R. Twete, local veterinarian and city dairy inspector, announces this week that he will move his offices from the First and Peoples State bank building to the dairy laboratory in the city filtration plant building opposite the creamery. He plans to move next Monday. This change will make it more convenient for dairymen and poultry producers to get in touch with the veterinarian and inspector, as the creamery and co-operative poultry plant are located nearby. The new quarters will also provide better facilities in carrying on the work. The laboratory has been operated at the filtration plant for more than a year. On a number of farms where Dr. Twete has tested herds recently he has also tested the poultry flocks for tuberculosis, and estimates that about 50 per cent of the flocks are infected, the same as estimated by Dr. Billings of the University Farm.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Ida M. Kaiser Pleases Audience with Reading Tues.

The reading, "Polly of the Circus," given by Ida M. Kaiser of Bagley, noted chautauqua reader at the Presbyterian church auditorium on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Women's society of that church, was very well received by the hundred or more persons in attendance.

Mrs. Kaiser is an unusually talented reader. Her annunciation is remarkable and her interpretation of the various characters are realistic and true to life. Her transition from part to part was also remarkably good, making the story nearly as vivid as if each part were taken by separate individuals.

Besides the reading, Mrs. Thelma Erickson and Miss Ariel Kinghorn gave a two-piano number, and Henry Arneson, accompanied by Miss Eileen Arneson, gave a violin solo, both of which were received with much applause.

This program concludes the series of entertainments put on by the Women's society of that church for this year.

Mrs. Kaiser also gave reading at the high school and before the W. C. T. U. Tuesday, being well received at each place.

Mrs. Milton Spencer, president of the Minnesota Legion Auxiliary, accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Bishop and Mrs. C. M. Haug, the latter president of the Thief River Falls unit, motored to Warren Saturday to help organize a unit there. Much interest was evidenced and about 20 women have already entered the organization, which is temporarily headed by Mrs. Lola Cassidy as president and Mrs. Emery A. Johnson as secretary. An Auxiliary at Warren had been advocated for some time by Dr. C. A. Gunnarson, commander of the Warren Legion post.

The banquet and mass meeting here last Friday, addressed by Mrs. Spencer and State Commander Edwin Lindell, was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Cassidy and Mr. Gunnarson.

Mrs. Spencer was born at Warren and was therefore very much interested in getting a unit started there.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Palmquist are residing at 518 LaBree avenue.

Storholm Heads A. F. & A. M.

Christ Storholm will succeed Oscar Paulson as Worshipful Master of Northern lodge No. 236 of the Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, as the result of the election Thursday evening. Other officers elected are B. F. Umland, Senior Warden; E. M. Bennes, Junior Warden; A. Bottelson, secretary; Adolf Eklund, treasurer; Ole L. Ihle, trustee. Official Paper of Pennington County
Official Paper, City Thief River Falls
Official Paper, School District No. 18

Today marks the celebration of the first "Alfalfa Day" in Thief River Falls but let us hope that it is not the last one. Alfalfa is rapidly finding its place on Pennington county farms and the experiences of growers is proof of its adaptability to this soil and conditions. No movement started in this community will have as far-reaching results as the alfalfa campaign.

The Times can but call attention to the statement by Peter Engelstad, prominent Pennington dairy farmer, elsewhere in this issue. Anyone who doubts the value of alfalfa growing as agitated in this campaign should read his opinion and be convinced.

Alfalfa is going to play an important part in the development of this section. That is why we are celebrating today. Hats off to King Alfalfa!

The ever present problem at this time of the year is—What shall I give? It is to help you find a solution to this problem that the merchants of Thief River Falls have taken more than ordinary care in choosing the offerings presented in their advertisements this week.

Christmas buying can be accomplished with so much greater ease and satisfaction by shopping early and the merchants are displaying their holiday goods now that you may have ample time to make the selections you have in mind for Christmas before the shopping rush begins.

If possible make an early visit to the stores whose advertisements appear in this newspaper and let the many suggestions contained in this week's issue guide you in making your purchases.

Thief River Falls merchants have made special preparations for the Christmas trade and they are more than anxious to satisfy your holiday wants in every particular.

You will find the stores replete with holiday suggestions, and if you don't see advertised the particular article that you want, be assured that you can find it in Thief River Falls, because nothing has been spared by Thief River Falls' merchants to meet the demands of the season.

Thief River citizens are pleased with "Eddie" Lindell, state Legion commander, and he declares that he likes the 1925 convention city. If everyone co-operates in backing up the local Legion post in preparing for the great gathering next summer it will be the success predicted by Commander Lindell. His talk here was an inspiration for the convention hosts, and gave citizens a better understanding of Legion activities. Lindell is a type of man the Minnesota Legion can well be proud of.

Sentiment for a county agent is becoming strong in Polk county and indications are that one will be engaged in the near future. No wide-awake community knowing the value of a county agent's services should hesitate in taking such an opportunity to assist the farmers of the county.

"Does the buyer of bootleg liquor realize that he is equally guilty with his bootlegger pal of criminal activity?" asks the Owatonna Journal-Chronicle.

If you are eligible to membership in the Commercial club join that organization in its efforts to make a more prosperous and better community in which to live.

"Buy it in Thief River Falls," is a mighty good slogan to remember in selecting Christmas gifts.

Co-operative associations of producers are very poor advertisers in the newspapers, it is pointed out in a survey made by the Farm Bureau federation, and a more general use of newspaper advertising space is urged. Attention is called to the large centralized associations of the West which have spent vast sums of money for advertising purposes, with the result that their products are enjoying a nation-wide as well as world-wide distribution. The simple fact is that co-operative associations like any other business concern, needs consistent advertising to make them successful.

The Farm Bureau recommend newspaper advertising for co-operative associations on the grounds that it brings the name of the organization favorably before the public; it is a cheap means of contact with members; it brings to the attention of all classes of people, both producers and consumers, what the organization is about, and emphasizes the place the co-operative holds in the life of the community.

Deputy Agricultural Commissioner J. H. Hay in his address to Red River Valley dairymen in convention here recently emphasized particularly the importance of advertising dairy products in an effort to create a greater demand. This is essential in order to keep the dairy industry on a profitable basis.

Here's another one on the scrub cow. Billy Noonan of the Baudette Region says that "Warren has the champion cow of the world and Baudette has the champion chump of the world. He thinks he can make a living with scrub cows."

Mrs. Leonard Hanson to Head Auxiliary in 1925

Mrs. Leonard Hanson was elected president of the Legion Auxiliary at the annual election Tuesday evening, succeeding Mrs. C. M. Haug. Other officers elected were Mrs. T. P. Anderson, first vice president; Mrs. Oscar Paulson, second vice president, and treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Swedenburg. Miss Alvina Jonas was appointed secretary by the new president. The executive board was appointed and includes Mrs. C. M. Haug, Mrs. Roy Erickson and Mrs. Herbert Hanson.

State Selling Fish

S. A. Selvog, superintendent of the Minnesota State Fisheries, calls attention to the fact that frozen, smoked and salt fish is sold by the state direct to the consumer from either Redby or St. Paul. Ten-pound packages are shipped by parcel post to any point in the state, and larger lots can be shipped by express or freight. Prices may be obtained by writing to Mr. Selvog. During the past summer a large supply of fish was obtained from Red Lake.

Indolence and indifference are first cousins to dry rot.

THIEF RIVER FALLS TO GIVE BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR LINDELL

Oscar Smith, past commander of the local post of the American Legion, will not be the only one to celebrate his birthday during the Minnesota Legion convention here next August. Department Commander Edwin Lindell, during his visit here last week whispered to a Times representative that he was going to have a real birthday celebration too, his birthday being on Aug. 11, the second day of the convention. The Elmer J. Eklund Post and citizens of Thief River Falls are already beginning to make preparations for "Eddie's" party, and an invitation will be extended to every Minnesota Legionaire to help make his 1925 birthday the most outstanding in his life. The Times ventures to predict that Commander Lindell will have a lame arm after all the hand shaking. Of course, they're also going to congratulate him upon the best convention ever held by the Minnesota department.

It Was Christmas Eve— There Was Great Joy

THE deep hush of night had fallen over the land and up above thousands of stars twinkled, seemingly shining a little brighter than on any other night of the year. From every window candles and lighted Christmas trees sent their shining rays out into the darkness, symbols of the "Light of the World," who was to be born again next morning. Everywhere the spirit of the season made itself felt and men and women thrilled with the message of love and peace and good will. Everybody seemed to be working feverishly to make happiness for others, most of all to make the little ones happy, for was not He that was coming on the morrow even as one of them? In every heart there was added tenderness and love; in every home there was cheer and goodwill. For it was Christmas Eve and the song of the angels to welcome His coming was repeating itself in the hearts of men and women everywhere.—Katherine Edelman.

Facts About Dr. S. R. Kirby

Editor of The Times:—When I read the coroner's verdict against Dr. S. R. Kirby, I felt that all facts in the case could not have been given, otherwise these noble men would have acquitted him. The facts as I have been able to find them are these:

This 65-year old man died, of cancer, and that Dr. Kirby had not been treating him, but that he died in a local hospital. This man's son, said that the doctors at Warren had said his father had cancer, and when Dr. Kirby saw him he also said it was cancer and that he was too far gone for him to do anything for him. The injection given to relieve the man because he begged for it to ease his pain, was a harmless one, commonly used, but it had no effect on this dying man. So why try to crucify S. R. Kirby because he is gifted by the Almighty to cure, when the regular doctors of medicine have failed. The writer would have had a son crippled for life if it had not been for Dr. Kirby. Four years ago my son started to limp without apparent cause. I took him to a local doctor who examined him also with X-ray and took X-ray pictures of him but could not find the cause, and did not prescribe a cure. After two months it pained him to walk, and then I took him to two other doctors rated as the best in the Northwest, but neither of them could find the cause, and did not prescribe a cure. Then as a last hope I took him to Dr. Kirby, who on examination, found that his spine was hurt, and gave me a bottle of medicine at a cost of $1.85, which we used as directed, and in a week he was better, and in six weeks he was cured, and is a big, strong man today. Another father who is thankful to Dr. Kirby is Mr. Dohrman, Middle River. Five years ago he cured his son, Carl, of Pulmonary consumption. X-rays showed that cavities in his lungs have been healed, and altho he at the beginning of the treatment was like a skeleton he continued to gain and is today a well healthy-looking man. Another man who was cured by Kirby is Mr. Helgeson, janitor at the First National Bank. A local doctor said he had cancer of the stomach and his only hope was a operation. Dr. Kirby cured him at an expense of $2.00. Anyone can find the truth of this by asking Mr. Helgeson, so why not stop persecuting Kirby, he is a God send to suffering humanity.

Spuds to be Sold in Packages

"Gopher State" potatoes soon will make their appearance as such in the kitchen of several large consuming centers in the middle west. An experiment of determining the practicability of putting potatoes into packages ready for delivery to the consumer is being tried by the Minnesota Potato Growers' Exchange of which a number of Pennington county growers are members. For the present potatoes will be packed in 15, 30 and 60 pound packages. An order for enough cartons to load ten cars has been placed with a view of getting the packages on the market to supply Christmas trade. So far there has been practically no market for the potato crop, the portion controlled by the Growers' Exchange being largely stored.

Club Work is Helpful

Jay H. Seymour of Eyota, Olmstead county, who has been named state champion club worker and who represented Minnesota at the National Boys' and Girls' club congress in Chicago last week, was pig club leader under the direction of B. O. Norby, manager of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association, while he was superintendent of the Eyota schools a year ago. In addition to being in charge of the Eyota schools Mr. Norby also took an active part in community work and did much to promote boys' and girls' club work in that locality. "Club work is of immense educational value to boys and girls," declares Mr. Norby, "and all who can should join the ranks of these youths who are learning how to raise better calves, pigs, sheep and poultry." This year young Seymour, who has an outstanding record in club work, exhibited the grand champion hog at the Junior Livestock show in St. Paul. "Consistent work brought honors to the Eyota lad," Mr. Norby claims.

Prosperity and Gasoline

Genuine prosperity is with us when all men are employed creating new wealth—new merchandise—which is passed to the consuming public at prices which give them full value for the money spent.

New wealth is active wealth and active wealth, like active labor, is that which is employed making the world a better, happier place in which to live.

The man who owns an oil well is not prosperous unless there is an active demand for his oil. The mere possession of oil signifies nothing—it is of no profit. It is valuable only when it is put to use.

The main function of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is to make oil usable and to put the finished products where people can get them without effort.

By bringing oil products within the reach of everyone, at prices low enough to make them available to all, this Company creates new wealth and makes it active and usable.

A gallon of gasoline manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has a definite economic value, because it represents a potential service when put to use in a running motor.

The power—the service—latent in this gasoline will propel your car 8 to 22 miles in the pursuit of business or pleasure.

In using it you derive pleasure or profit—or both—and by using it you are adding to the general prosperity—by releasing a definite amount of capital for further use.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) serves you through its scientific discoveries, through its progressive use of chemical knowledge, through its efficient refinery administration, through its modern business organization, through its forward-looking labor policy, and through the high quality and wide distribution of its products.

All these functions of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are at the service of every one who needs and buys a gallon of gasoline. The man who drives a Ford commands the immense resources of this organization as truly as does the man who operates a fleet of trucks.

Pioneer Residents Visit Here After Long Absence

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Johnson, pioneer residents of Thief River Falls, arrived Saturday from Th Pas, Manitoba, Canada, to visit in the city after an absence of 18 years. Two sons, Carl and Martin, reside in this city, and a brother of Mr. Johnson, Erick, lives at Holt, as does also a brother-in-law, Ole Davidson. They will remain here until after the New Year holidays. "I didn't know the place, everything is so changed," declared Mr. Johnson in stepping off at the new Great Great Northern depot, one of the many improvements since his last visit 17 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came to Thief River Falls in 1885 and moved to Canada in 1906. Mr. Johnson was a machinist in the old saw mill operated here by the Winton-Nichols Lumber company, for which concern he also worked for at Prince Albert, Sask., and is now employed by at Th Pas. He also worked for Kretzschmar in the mill and took part in the building of the dam. He was at one time proprietor of the Northwestern hotel 25 years ago, and is well known to the old-timers of the community, who are glad to see him back after such a long absence.

To County Agents' Conference

J. J. McCann, local county agent, left Tuesday night for St. Paul to attend the annual conference of Minnesota county and home demonstration agents, at which there are about 100. Among the leading topics of the programs are the alfalfa campaigns conducted thru the extension bureaus in various counties of the state, at which it is likely that Pennington county will get prominent mention as making the biggest gain of any county in the state during the past year. County Agent McCann began an active campaign here in 1920, when a series of meetings were held to discuss the value of alfalfa as a feed.

GOPHER CREAMERIES FLAN WINS PRAISE

National Experts Call It A Desirable Form of Co-operative Marketing Body

Experts who have made a study of all forms of co-operative associations consider the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association's plan of organization and operation to be a very desirable form of co-operation. This is the report brought back by A. J. McGuire, general manager of the association, who attended the annual meeting of the National association of state marketing officials in Chicago.

Speaking to a representative of the Minnesota Farm Bureau, Mr. McGuire said, "Men from all parts of the nation who have made a study of co-operative organizations, tell me that our association's plan is a very desirable one. They are particularly impressed with the advantage of leaving to the farmers the management of their own business affairs, as this must result in making the farmer a better business man each year.

"In our organization," Mr. McGuire continued, "the farmers retain full control of the operation and management of their local creameries; they figure and distribute the returns from their butter sales among their patrons. This necessarily develops the business ability of the men on the creamery boards, which results in a general benefit to the community.

"The central organization's chief function is to act as the sales agency for the member creameries, but it does far more than that. Maintaining federal inspection and aiding in standardization, it is making Minnesota butter a great market favorite. All butter reaching a certain standard of excellence goes under the "Land O' Lakes" brand which has already gained enviable fame as the choicest butter on the American market," Mr. McGuire concluded.

On their way they will visit at Willmar with Mr. Magnuson's father, Nels Magnuson, and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Magnuson, for a few days.

The Progress of Chiropractic

The Drugless Health Science of Chiropractic has taken another notable step forward through the invention of the

NEUROCALOMETER

You ask, "WHAT IS THIS NEUROCALOMETER?"

Our answer is that it is a sensitive instrument which will dispell any and all doubts regarding the efficiency of CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS given with the bare hands-alone.

CHIROPRACTIC teaches and proves that the majority of Disease is caused by NERVE PRESSURE.

The NEUROCALOMETER is so sensitive that when placed over the entire spine it will register a certain degree of pressure showing where the interference to transmission is. It can thus be ascertained to a nicety just what vertebra (small bone of the spine) is out of place (subluxated) and has to be adjusted.

After the vertebra has been adjusted and restored to its normal position the NEUROCALOMETER is again applied.

Marvelous as it may seem it in many cases registers zero and in all other cases a considerable reduction.

Why?

Because the Nerve Pressure has been relieved and normal transmission is again present.

Observing and experiencing the operation of the NEUROCALOMETER means convincing you of its wonderful scientific value.

I have recently returned from the PALMER SCHOOL OF CHIROPRACTIC, Davenport, Iowa, where I took a course of instruction in the use and operation of the NEUROCALOMETER and have now because I am desirous of giving my patients the best Chiropractic service possible.

INSTALLED ONE OF THESE INSTRUMENTS

ALFALFA GAINS IN PENNINGTON CITED IN AGENT'S REPORT

Few Alfalfa Growers in County in 1919, McCann States. 10,000 Acres in 1924

In his annual report to the Minnesota County Agent's conference County Agent J. J. McCann describes alfalfa growing in Pennington county as follows showing the tremendous gains made in the last few years:

Alfalfa rowing in Pennington county as recent as 1919 was rare. That a few fields in the county were producing excellent results was a demonstration that it was a crop for Pennington county and the region about. During the winter of 1920 the county agent arranged meetings at which the "Value of Alfalfa as a Feed" were discussed. In 1920, in cooperation with the county agent, test plots were planted in all parts of the county. Instructions were given by the agent as to the preparation of the seed bed, inoculation, the care and cutting of the crop.

These plots were so successful and offered such a good demonstration to other farmers that the acreage was practically doubled the following year and 2,130 acres of alfalfa were growing in the county during the fall of 1922. In 1923 the campaign was revived and extended with the assistance of extension workers and a representative of one of the farm journals. The Bankers' association of the county was interested in the movement and each bank agreed to guarantee the placing of a certain amount of seed to farmers in the county. A carload of certified Grimm seed was ordered from a reliable source and a day was set for the farmers to come to town and receive their quota of seed which had already been definitely ordered by each prospective grower. More had to be ordered by local shipments.

Before the car was ordered, questionaires were sent to growers by the county agent to determine the exact acreage at that time and the names of those who desired to increase their acreage and the amount of such increase. Sixty-five per cent of the questionaires were returned showing that 4,400 acres of alfalfa were planted previous to 1923. The car of seed shipped resulted in 4,000 additional acres being planted and thru publicity given this campaign over 2000 acres more were sown by seed secured from other sources, making the total acreage at present approximately 10,000 acres. Many farmers at the present time have 50 to 60 acres and some as many as 200 acres of alfalfa on their farms.

The campaign will be continued thru the winter of 1924 and 1925. An alfalfa palace will be erected in Thief River Falls during December 1924 and it is the purpose to have an alfalfa congress, which will be addressed by talented speakers on the subject of alfalfa growing, with a view to securing the growing of alfalfa on every possible farm.

Alfalfa and sweet clover are proving to be hand-maids in agricultural progress in Pennington county. The growing of sweet clover is encouraged as a pasture crop for sheep and cattle, while alfalfa is promoted largely for a hay crop. It is infrequent for animals pasturing on sweet clover to be troubled with bloat, while this difficulty may be somewhat frequent with animals pastured on alfalfa.

PENNINGTON COUNTY DESTINED TO BECOME CENTER FOR GRIMM ALFALFA PRODUCTION

Honor to the farmer who gave the United States a hardy alfalfa was paid on June 10, 1924, when a monument to Wendelin Grimm was unveiled on the Ferdinand Turk farm in Laketown township, Carver county, formerly owned by Grimm. This recognition of the man who "discovered" the variety known as Grimm alfalfa, which is growing in popularity in this section, was paid by members of the Grimm Alfalfa Growers' association, of which T. J. Sumpter, prominent Pennington county alfalfa grower, is a director. A bronze tablet was erected on the site where Grimm grew his first alfalfa brought to this country from Germany in 1857. He gathered his first seed crop in 1858 and the hardiness of the variety has been demonstrated by the field which is over 70 years old.

An effort is now being made to make Pennington county, not only the "home of alfalfa," but the home of Grimm alfalfa. A large acreage is already devoted to this variety, a carload of more than 30,000 pounds certified Grimm seed having been purchased for distribution among farmers here last spring. This year another campaign is resulting in the distribution of another carload, also Grimm seed. In this manner this community will soon become the center for Grimm seed in the state.

The hardiness of the Grimm variety has been proven and the experience of growers here has shown that it will not winter-kill like common varieties.

Members Get Returns From Thanksgiving Shipments. Y. Toms Net 30c per Lb.

Heavy receipts of turkeys for the Christmas market are now being reported by B. O. Norby, manager of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association. It is likely that two carloads of dressed turkeys and one car of live poultry will be shipped by the association this week. A crew of 10-12 pickers is being maintained daily to prepare the large number of birds brought here for market. More than a carload of live turkeys was loaded at Roseau Friday and brought here to be dressed. A large portion received at the local station is brought here directly by the farmers themselves, many of whom are in the vicinity of this city or nearby communities.

Returns for shipments of Thanksgiving turkeys during the first half of November were received here last week, the returns for the turkeys totaling $13,015 and for the poultry $4,780. The office force at the headquarters here have been busy the past week sending out checks to the member shippers. There are now 1200 members in the association, and there is some delay in getting out the large number of checks.

The returns on the whole are considered quite satisfactory, Mr. Norby states. The association is remitting 30 cents a pound net for No. 1 young toms and 26 cents a pound for young hens. Owing to the immaturity of the turkeys for Thanksgiving market many birds which would have graded No. 1 under normal conditions could not be placed in this class this season. The turkeys brought in for the Christmas trade are reported to be in much better condition and the average grade will be higher.

A number of members received sums of $150 to $200 for turkeys shipped during the first half of November. vember. The largest check is paid to John Cantwell of Oklee, who gets $222.22. Other good sized checks are issued to George Breitsprecher, St. Hilaire, $220.98; Mrs. J. R. Larson, Hazel, $219.32; Geo. Senum, Thief River Falls, $181.44; John Sundt, Thief River Falls, $177.44; Carl Mellum, Rosewood, $144.96.

E. B. Davies of the sate exchange was in the city Saturday and Monday assisting the local crew, leaving Monday night for Aitkin. A. R. Wolf, accountant for the exchange, has helped the office force setting up the books during the past week.

Many Get Trapper's Permits

More than 200 trapper's licenses have already been issued this season to Pennington county residents by Auditor T. P. Anderson. A license of this kind is required for anyone selling furs. Buyers of furs must have a buyer's license from the game and fish commissioner. Fisher and mink may be taken from Nov. 15 to March 1; muskrats from March 1 to April 30; skunk, black or fox squirrel, bear and snowshoe rabbit from Oct. 15 to March 1.

Nels Knutson, For 42 Years A Resident of North Township, Dies Thurs., Dec. 4

Nels Knutson, 60, for 42 years a resident of Pennington county and a pioneer farmer of North township, died at the state hospital at Fergus Falls Thursday, Dec. 4, after six weeks confinement there. Death was due to a complication of kidney trouble and concussions of the brain. The funeral was held from the Larson Undertaking parols Sunday afternoon and interment made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Knutson was born in Numedal, Norway, April 14, 1855. He came to this country with his brother, Christ, in 1872, at the age of 17, and settled in Farmersburg, Iowa, sending for his parents two years later. They lived there until 1882, when the family moved to this county and homesteaded the farm now owned by V. C. Noper just west of this city. In 1883 he married Miss Carolyn Johnson of Farmersburg. They resided on the farm just west of the city until in 1910 when it was sold to Mrs. C. Rasmusson, who later sold it to V. C. Noper. Since that time he has been making his home with his son, Julius Knutson of this city and other relatives.

To mourn his passing he leaves three sons, Julius of this city residing at 1021 Horace avenue north; Oscar of this city residing at 704 Knight avenue north and Carl of Flint, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. Christ Halvorson of Canton, Minn., and Mrs. Pete Anderson of Clearmont, Iowa, and four brothers, Christ of Holly, Colo., Sever of Bane Lake, Prince Albert, Can., Henry of Theodore, Sask., and Kittel Knutson of this city. His parents died on the farm some year ago.

Herds in Red Lake County Practically Free From T. B.

Only 22 reactors or infected cattle were found among the 2,539 tested in the area tuberculosis test in Red Lake county. This is the first county in the state to be accredited by the Minnesota Livestock Sanitary Board as practically free from tuberculosis cattle. Out of 17,344 animals tested last summer there were 169 reactors. The retest was made in November and the herds in which the 22 were found will be tested again in 120 days, retesting to keep on until completely free from the diease. Dr L. R. Twete, city dairy inspector, took part in both tests. The showing made in Red Lake county is a credit to the dairy men of this section.

The test was paid for by the taxpayers of the county, the endemnities for cattle ordered killed being reimbursed by state and federal funds. All cattle brought into the county hereafter must be tested, violators of this ruling being subject to a fine, Dr. Twete reports.

Hunters Advised to Send In 1924 License Report

County Auditor T. P. Anderson calls the attention of hunters to the necessity of sending in their hunting reports for the current year. Mr. Anderson states that he is almost positive that a hunter who fails to send his 1924 report to the state game and fish department will be refused a license in 1925. This report must be filled out regardless of whether the holder secured any game or not during the present season, and there are many hunters who should remember this fact. Last year a large percentage were delinquent in making their reports. The license reports must be made out both on small and big game and are to be submitted to the department within 30 days after the close of the hunting season.

Henry Hyland Pays $50 Fine For Having Moonshine in Car at Goodridge Dance Fri.

Having moonshine in his car at a dance at Goodridge last Friday night cost Henry Hyland, formerly of Highlanding but now of Calumet, Minn., the sum of $58, when he plead guilty to a charge of maintaining a nuisance before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court Saturday. Hyland, who was attending a dance at the Goodridge hall, was nabbed by Sheriff O. L. Ihle after the official had discovered a small quantity of liquor in his car outside the hall. The Sheriff took him to Thief River Falls where he was confined in the jail until the hearing the following forenoon. Hyland upon entering a plea of guilty was assessed a fine of $50 and $8 costs.

Hyland arrived here recently from Calumet, where he was employed, to visit with relatives and friends in the eastern part of the county.

Advocates Alfalfa

The following from the Newfolden Review of last week is of interest in connection with the alfalfa campaign being conducted in this community: "Hartvig Hanson of New Maine township says 'alfalfa pays and pays big.' Altho this was an off year for producing alfalfa seed due to the cool weather which prevailed during the growing season, Mr. Hanson threshed 40 bushels of first quality seed from 22 acres This seed can be readily sold for 35 cents a pound which nets him about $40 per acre. Mr. Hanson would not figure on keeping cows if he did not have a good supply of alfalfa hay, as it is one of the best feeds for the production of milk. It is hoped that all farmers will heed Mr. Hanson's advice and seed alfalfa next spring.

Moonshiner Gets 30 Days

Alphone Piter Dismith, the Belgian sugar beet worker arrested two weeks ago by Red Lake county authorities on a charge of making moonshine at the Frank Reese "factory" near Oklee, plead guilty before Judge Wm. Watts in Crookston last week. Dismith was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail and to pay a fine of $150. He has now started to serve his time. One of the most complete stills ever found in Red Lake county, was discovered on the Reese place.

Prefers Pennington

"Pennington county for me," declares Alfred Flattum, farmer near Thief River Falls, after returning from a trip to Fillmore county and other parts of Southern Minnesota. Mr. Flattum, who returned Sunday night, visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Flattum at Northfield, former residents of this city, and his brother Roy, who is completing his course at St. Olaf College this year. County Agent McCann began an active campaign here in 1920, when a series of meetings were held to discuss the value of alfalfa as a feed.

GOPHER CREAMERIES PLAN WINS PRAISE

National Experts Call It A Desirable Form of Co-operative Marketing Body,

Experts who have made a study of all forms of co-operative associations consider the Minnesota Co-operative Creameries association's plan of organization and operation to be a very desirable form of co-operation. This is the report brought back by A. J. McGuire, general manager of the association, who attended the annual meeting of the National association of state marketing officials in Chicago.

Speaking to a representative of the Minnesota Farm Bureau, Mr. McGuire said, "Men from all parts of the nation who have made a study of co-operative organizations, tell me that our association's plan is a very desirable one. They are particularly impressed with the advantage of leaving to the farmers the management of their own business affairs, as this must result in making the farmer a better business man each year.

"In our organization," Mr. McGuire continued, "the farmers retain full control of the operation and management of their local creameries; they figure and distribute the returns from their butter sales among their patrons. This necessarily develops the business ability of the men on the creamery boards, which results in a general benefit to the community

"The central organization's chief function is to act as the sales agency for the member creameries, but it does far more than that. Maintaining federal inspection and aiding in standardization, it is making Minnesota butter a great market favorite. All butter reaching a certain standard of excellence goes under the "Land O' Lakes" brand which has already gained enviable fame as the choicest butter on the American market," Mr. McGuire concluded.

Ostby, and their many friends extend wishes for continued happiness in their new home. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Magnuson's mother, who will visit with them until after the Christmas holidays. On their way they will visit at Willmar with Mr. Magnuson's father, Nels Magnuson, and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Magnuson, for a few days.

ALFALFA GAINS IN PENNINGTON CITED IN AGENT'S REPORT

Few Alfalfa Growers in County in 1919, McCann States. 10,000 Acres in 1924

In his annual report to the Minnesota County Agent's conference County Agent J. J. McCann describes alfalfa growing in Pennington county as follows showing the tremendous gains made in the last few years:

Alfalfa rowing in Pennington county as recent as 1919 was rare. That a few fields in the county were producing excellent results was a demonstration that it was a crop for Pennington county and the region about. During the winter of 1920 the county agent arranged meetings at which the "Value of Alfalfa as a Feed" were discussed. In 1920, in co-operation with the county agent, test plots were planted in all parts of the county. Instructions were given by the agent as to the preparation of the seed bed, inoculation, the care and cutting of the crop.

These plots were so successful and offered such a good demonstration to other farmers that the acreage was practically doubled the following year and 2,130 acres of alfalfa were growing in the county during the fall of 1922. In 1923 the campaign was revived and extended with the assistance of extension workers and a representative of one of the farm journals. The Bankers' association of the county was interested in the movement and each bank agreed to guarantee the placing of a certain amount of seed to farmers in the county. A carload of certified Grimm seed was ordered from a reliable source and a day was set for the farmers to come to town and receive their quota of seed which had already been definitely ordered by each prospective grower. More had to be ordered by local shipments.

Before the car was ordered, questionaires were sent to growers by the county agent to determine the exact acreage at that time and the names of those who desired to increase their acreage and the amount of such increase. Sixty-five per cent of the questionaires were returned showing that 4,400 acres of alfalfa were planted previous to 1923. The car of seed shipped resulted in 4,000 additional acres being planted and thru publicity given this campaign over 2000 acres more were sown by seed secured from other sources, making the total acreage at present approximately 10,000 acres. Many farmers at the present time have 50 to 60 acres and some as many as 200 acres of alfalfa on their farms.

The campaign will be continued thru the winter of 1924 and 1925. An alfalfa palace will be erected in Thief River Falls during December 1924 and it is the purpose to have an alfalfa congress, which will be addressed by talented speakers on the subject of alfalfa growing, with a view to securing the growing of alfalfa on every possible farm.

Alfalfa and sweet clover are proving to be hand-maids in agricultural progress in Pennington county. The growing of sweet clover is encouraged as a pasture crop for sheep and cattle, while alfalfa is promoted largely for a hay crop. It is infrequent for animals pasturing on sweet clover to be troubled with bloat, while this difficulty may be somewhat frequent with animals pastured on alfalfa.

Former Plummer Woman Dead

Word has been received at Plummer of the death of Mrs. Ferd Rose at Orondo, Wash., a former resident of the Plummer community. Mrs. Rose was 93 years of age at the time of death and is survived by her husband and six children. A son, William of Plummer, died in 1921.

PENNINGTON COUNTY DESTINED TO BECOME CENTER FOR GRIMM ALFALFA PRODUCTION

Honor to the farmer who gave the United States a hardy alfalfa was paid on June 10, 1924, when a monument to Wendelin Grimm was unveiled on the Ferdinand Turk farm in Laketown township, Carver county, formerly owned by Grimm. This recognition of the man who "discovered" the variety known as Grimm alfalfa, which is growing in popularity in this section, was paid by members of the Grimm Alfalfa Growers' association, of which T. J. Sumpter, prominent Pennington county alfalfa grower, is a director. A bronze tablet was erected on the site where Grimm grew his first alfalfa brought to this country from Germany in 1857. He gathered his first seed crop in 1858 and the hardiness of the variety has been demonstrated by the field which is over 70 years old.

An effort is now being made to make Pennington county, not only the "home of alfalfa," but the home of Grimm alfalfa. A large acreage is already devoted to this variety, a carload of more than 30,000 pounds certified Grimm seed having been purchased for distribution among farmers here last spring. This year another campaign is resulting in the distribution of another carload, also Grimm seed. In this manner this community will soon become the center for Grimm seed in the state.

The hardiness of the Grimm variety has been proven and the experience of growers here has shown that it will not winter-kill like common varieties.

Nels Knutson, For 42 Years A Resident of North Township, Dies Thurs., Dec. 4

Nels Knutson, 60, for 42 years a resident of Pennington county and a pioneer farmer of North township, died at the state hospital at Fergus Falls Thursday, Dec. 4, after six weeks confinement there. Death was due to a complication of kidney trouble and concussions of the brain. The funeral was held from the Larson Undertaking parols Sunday afternoon and interment made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Knutson was born in Numedal, Norway, April 14, 1855. He came to this country with his brother, Christ, in 1872, at the age of 17, and settled in Farmersburg, Iowa, sending for his parents two years later. They lived there until 1882, when the family moved to this county and homesteaded the farm now owned by V. C. Noper just west of this city. In 1883 he married Miss Carolyn Johnson of Farmersburg. They resided on the farm just west of the city until in 1910 when it was sold to Mrs. C. Rasmusson, who later sold it to V. C. Noper. Since that time he has been making his home with his son, Julius Knutson of this city and other relatives.

To mourn his passing he leaves three sons, Julius of this city residing at 1021 Horace avenue north; Oscar of this city residing at 704 Knight avenue north and Carl of Flint, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. Christ Halvorson of Canton, Minn., and Mrs. Pete Anderson of Clearmont, Iowa, and four brothers, Christ of Holly, Colo., Sever of Bane Lake, Prince Albert, Can., Henry of Theodore, Sask., and Kittel Knutson of this city. His parents died on the farm some year ago.

Herds in Red Lake County Practically Free From T. B.

Only 22 reactors or infected cattle were found among the 2,539 tested in the area tuberculosis test in Red Lake county. This is the first county in the state to be accredited by the Minnesota Livestock Sanitary Board as practically free from tuberculosis cattle. Out of 17,344 animals tested last summer there were 169 reactors. The retest was made in November and the herds in which the 22 were found will be tested again in 120 days, retesting to keep on until completely free from the diense. Dr L. R. Twete, city dairy inspector, took part in both tests. The showing made in Red Lake county is a credit to the dairy men of this section.

The test was paid for by the taxpayers of the county, the endemnities for cattle ordered killed being reimbursed by state and federal funds. All cattle brought into the county hereafter must be tested, violators of this ruling being subject to a fine, Dr. Twete reports.

Hunters Advised to Send In 1924 License Report

County Auditor T. P. Anderson calls the attention of hunters to the necessity of sending in their hunting reports for the current year. Mr. Anderson states that he is almost positive that a hunter who fails to send his 1924 report to the state game and fish department will be refused a license in 1925. This report must be filled out regardless of whether the holder secured any game or not during the present season, and there are many hunters who should remember this fact. Last year a large percentage were delinquent in making their reports. The license reports must be made out both on small and big game and are to be submitted to the department within 30 days after the close of the hunting season.

Prichard Company Loads 70 Cars of Sugar Beets Here

Seventy carloads of sugar beets were loaded on the Soo tracks in this city by The Prichard Company for shipment to the refinery in Mason City, Iowa. All the piles here have been cleared away and loading this week has been going on at Newfolden, Steiner and Silverton. About 15 cars will be loaded at each of these stations. At St. Hilaire, where loading will be started the first of next week, it is expected that about 20 cars will be loaded. The capacity of a carload beets averages about 40 tons.

Warren Producers Organize Co-operative Poultry Unit

About 20 members have been signed up already and the association's truck made a trip to Warren Tuesday to collect eggs and turkeys from the receiving station there. A. D. Henry Hyland Pays $50 Fine For Having Moonshine in Car at Goodridge Dance Fri.

Having moonshine in his car at a dance at Goodridge last Friday night cost Henry Hyland, formerly of Highlanding but now of Calumet, Minn., the sum of $58, when he plead guilty to a charge of maintaining a nuisance before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court Saturday. Hyland, who was attending a dance at the Goodridge hall, was nabbed by Sheriff O. L. Ihle after the official had discovered a small quantity of liquor in his car outside the hall. The Sheriff took him to Thief River Falls where he was confined in the jail until the hearing the following forenoon. Hyland upon entering a plea of guilty was assessed a fine of $50 and $8 costs. Hyland arrived here recently from Calumet, where he was employed, to visit with relatives and friends in the eastern part of the county.

Express Shipments Increase

Express poultry shipments for the Christmas market are increasing this week and are expected to far exceed the shipments for the Thanksgiving trade, according to Oscar C. Paulson, agent at the local American Railway Express office.

Advocates Alfalfa

The following from the Newfolden Review of last week is of interest in connection with the alfalfa campaign being conducted in this community: "Hartvig Hanson of New Maine township says 'alfalfa pays and pays big.' Altho this was an off year for producing alfalfa seed due to the cool weather which prevailed during the growing season, Mr. Hanson threshed 40 bushels of first quality seed from 22 acres This seed can be readily sold for 35 cents a pound which nets him about $40 per acre. Mr. Hanson would not figure on keeping cows if he did not have a good supply of alfalfa hay, as it is one of the best feeds for the production of milk. It is hoped that all farmers will heed Mr. Hanson's advice and seed alfalfa next spring.

Moonshiner Gets 30 Days

Alphone Piter Dismith, the Belgian sugar beet worker arrested two weeks ago by Red Lake county authorities on a charge of making moonshine at the Frank Reese "factory" near Oklee, plead guilty before Judge Wm. Watts in Crookston last week. Dismith was sentenced to serve 30 days in jail and to pay a fine of $150. He has now started to serve his time. One of the most complete stills ever found in Red Lake county, was discovered on the Reese place.

POULTRY CO-OP IS SHIPPING TURKEYS FOR XMAS MARKET

Members Get Returns From Thanksgiving Shipments. Y. Toms Net 30c per Lb.

Heavy receipts of turkeys for the Christmas market are now being reported by B. O. Norby, manager of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association. It is likely that two carloads of dressed turkeys and one car of live poultry will be shipped by the association this week. A crew of 10-12 pickers is being maintained daily to prepare the large number of birds brought here for market. More than a carload of live turkeys was loaded at Roseau Friday and brought here to be dressed. A large portion received at the local station is brought here directly by the farmers themselves, many of whom are in the vicinity of this city or nearby communities.

Returns for shipments of Thanksgiving turkeys during the first half of November were received here last week, the returns for the turkeys totaling $13,016 and for the poultry $4,780. The office force at the headquarters here have been busy the past week sending out checks to the member shippers. There are now 1200 members in the association, and there is some delay in getting out the large number of checks.

The returns on the whole are considered quite satisfactory, Mr. Norby states. The association is remitting 30 cents a pound net for No. 1 young toms and 20 cents a pound for young hens. Owing to the immaturity of the turkeys for Thanksgiving market many birds which would have graded No. 1 under normal conditions could not be placed in this class this season. The turkeys brought in for the Christmas trade are reported to be in much better condition and the average grade will be higher.

A number of members received sums of $150 to $200 for turkeys shipped during the first half of November. vember. The largest check is paid to John Cantwell of Oklee, who gets $222.22. Other good sized checks are issued to George Breitsprecher, St. Hilaire, $220.98; Mrs. J. R. Larson, Hazel, $219.32; Geo. Senum, Thief River Falls, $181.44; John Sundt, Thief River Falls, $177.44; Carl Mellum, Rosewood, $144.96.

E. B. Davies of the sate exchange was in the city Saturday and Monday assisting the local crew, leaving Monday night for Aitkin. A. R. Wolf, accountant for the exchange, has helped the office force setting up the books during the past week.

Many Get Trapper's Permits

More than 200 trapper's licenses have already been issued this season to Pennington county residents by Auditor T. P. Anderson. A license of this kind is required for anyone selling furs. Buyers of furs must have a buyer's license from the game and fish commissioner. Fisher and mink may be taken from Nov. 15 to March 1; muskrats from March 1 to April 30; skunk, black or fox squirrel, bear and snowshoe rabbit from Oct. 15 to March 1.

As will be noticed in this issue of the "Progress" there are a few essays written by people other than those on the staff of the paper. These articles are given to the staff by the various English teachers. They are not used in the "Progress" as a means to take up room, but are in there for two reasons which are far more important than the supposed one. The first reason is that by letting the students themselves have something to do with the writing up of the material for the paper, they will become more interested in it, and also they will endeavor to make their school work better and better, because who does not like to see his or her article in print in a newspaper? There is no one. The staff of the "Progress" again urges those who have any school news to write it or relate it to the reporters.

SUCCESS IN HIGH SCHOOL

Success in High School depends largely on the character of the student. Of course there are some exceptions. Some may fail because no control. These, however, can be overcome if the student will put in all his effort and make up his mind to succeed whether luck favors him or not. Most of our great men have come from poor families and have had to work hard to become what they were. If they had not made any extra effort they would not have become great. When we look over the lives of great men like Lincoln we can easily see that not luck but hard work made them great.

There are some people who do not care for school. If one does not care for his work he will very likely not succeed. It is an injustice to both the high school and the student when someone sends him there and tells him to get to work or get sent away. These, I think, are the most likely to fail. Even if they do work hard and try their best they cannot accomplish as much as they would if they liked their work. I do not advise anyone to go to school if he does not care for it.

Success in high school is not only, as many seem to think, carrying the full number of credits. It is what you get out of it. Many people graduate but are no better off than before they started. If after four years of high school you have added nothing to your character and have nothing to show for it you have not succeeded.

THE STREET PLAYGROUND

Every sensibly minded person admits that playgrounds and recreation facilities were never more essentially necessary than at the present time. For the past few years the number of injuries to children playing in the streets has been increasing. So great has been the rapidly advancing percentage of child fatalities and injuries in some of the larger cities that some action has been taken against the traffic law-breakers. But action against these violators, severe as it may be will not safeguard the lives of children forced to play in the streets.

Much of the moral delinquency both of boys and girls is due to lack of opportunity for suitable recreation under proper supervision. Whatever the offense may be it is usually caused by lack of occupation. So it is not alone because of losing life or limb that the children should not play in the streets. They, as children, have a rightful inheritance to play and breathe fresh air somewhere away from the grime and bustle and traffic of the streets where they will be tempted to loaf around pool-halls, bowling alleys, etc.

Playgrounds afford a same place for the children to go and play under proper supervision. Here they find the action, excitement, and companionship which every child craves for and must have, if he is to develop into a healthy man or woman.

While this city has been fortunate thus far in not having many deaths caused by children playing in the streets or near railroads, it will, in time, we expect, be a much larger city and the dangers will be greater unless som provision be made by which the children will be kept happy and interested off from the public streets and thoroughfares.

Many large cities have made elaborate provisions for playgrounds for their children. Of course we would not expect a very elaborate one at first. There are a number of vacant lots in the city that could be improved by setting out a few hardy shrubs, shade trees and vines and equipping them with suitable playgrounds apparatus such as we feel that we can afford.

You will say that all such things are beneficial and even necessary, but how shall we finance such an undertaking? As has been said, we would not expect complete equipment at first, but if a start is made it will serve as an encouragement to do more. Money has been raised here in Thief River Falls for othr purposes by amateur performances. So why not start a playground fund in that way? Some money could be raised by subscription and who knows but what some of our philanthropic citizens might contribute very liberally? The trees, shrubs, and vines could be donated by different individuals and no doubt there are many people who would gladly give of their time in laying out and arranging the grounds.

If anything that I have said has impressed you with the need of such a place for play and recreation then do not let a good emotion "evaporate" but let us make a start soon for some kind of a playground.—L. N. '26.

Mrs. Kaiser Gives Reading

The student body had the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Ida Kaiser, a reader of note, at a special assembly Monday morning. Mrs. Kaiser read three selections, "Bill Smith," "Four Measures in the Key of G," and "Uh-huh." Everyone enjoyed this program immensely.

LOCALS WIN OVER MIDDLE RIVER BY SCORE OF 14 TO 2

Captain Penney Scores 10 Out Of 14 Points in Basketball Game Tuesday

Playing a slow game at the start, the Lincoln high school basket ball team rung up a second victory over the Middle River high school team by a score of 14-2.

During the first quarter a poor brand of ball was displayed and the quarter ended with neither team having a point to its credit. At the beginning of the next quarter things began to liven up a bit, and in a little while Penney caged a basket. The scoring then began in earnest, at the end of the half the score was 10-0 in favor of the locals.

The second half saw the Lincolnites outplaying their rivals in every stage of the game. Towards the end of the game the visitors put the ball through the hoop from the middle of the floor. They also made a free throw but as the thrower's foot was over the line the basket did not count.

The star for the Lincolnites was Penney, who made ten of the 14 points. The outstanding player for Middle River was Gullickson.

At the time between halves and the beginning of the game, the fans were given a treat by the high school band which played several selections. Another feature was the noise made by the Balcony Gang. This gang is composed of seventh and eighth graders. Lawrence T. Mickelson is the founder of it.

Between halves a two-minute fignt was staged between "K O" Snyder and "Eat-'em-Alive" Larson. "Eat-'em-Alive" was rendered the decision by a techinal knockout.

The Middle River team is coached by Elmer Tandberg of this city, superintendent of the school.

Attendance Percentage

The attendance at Lincoln high school so far this year has been very good. During the first six weeks' period the percentage in daily attendance of those actually enrolled was 97.4, while during the second six weeks' period the percentage of attendance was 98.47. Both these percentages are very high and show that cases of irregular attendance are not very common. The lower percentage for the second six weeks is mainly due to the siege of colds that generally marks the coming of winter and to the after effects of vaccination.

The number of pupils having perfect attendance is very high. During the first six weeks' period there were 227 who attended every day, while 204 had perfect attendance for the second six weeks period.

The English III classes have been making theme-covers. Some are very attractive.

Preliminary Contest in Declamation List Night

A few weeks ago a call was sent forth that those who were interested in declamatory and oratory should report to Principal Morris Bye. Thirteen girls answered the summons for declamation, they are: Ruby Anseby, Ruby Ihle, Gladys Weeks, Malva Gausen, Margaret Vaughan, Eva Ayers, Lenore Lieberman, Lylian Arnold, Lily Roberts, Esther Bennes, Ruth Mellby, Bernice Hoppa, Elvina Loftness, and Rita Fiterman. The preliminary contest in declamation was held in the high school assembly last night.

There are so few boys going out for oratory that there will be no preliminary contest, but they will give their selections on the same evening that the girls will after Christmas vacation.

State Commander Lindell Addresses Assembly Fri.

"You get out of life only what you put into it," Edwin Lindell, commanded of the American Legion of Minnesota, told high school students at a special assembly Friday afternoon. The speaker discussed Americanism and proper citizenship, stressing the importance of having good community spirit, which can be promoted to a large extent in the schools. "Stick by your team whether it is losing or winning," he said.

Students were told that they have obligations to meet, which they should know and plan to undertake. They were told to respect the flag and uphold the constitution of this country and thru the study of history be able to appreciate what the forefathers have done and gone thru in order to make possible the advantages which are enjoyed today.

"You, the students of today, will be the citizens of tomorrow—prepare for the future," the speaker said.

The talk was well received.

AMUMNI BEATEN BY HIGH SCHOOL 13-18

High School Shows Up Well in Defense and Shooting Ability Last Thursday

For the first time in many years the Alumni has been defeated by a high school aggregation. Last year at the beginning of the basket ball season the Lincolnites were defeated by the Alumni and this fall they were beaten by the same bunch in foot ball.

The tide has turned and the high school basket ball team clearly outplayed and outshot their heavier opponents in the game last Thursday. The score was 13-18 in the favor of the high school basketeers.

The feature of the game was the remarkable defense showed by the high schoolers, the Alumni breaking through it on very few occasions. Most of the shots tried by the old grads were long ones and a very few of them slipped thru the hoop. On the other hand the high school had numerous short shots and made most of them.

The locals, by their fine playing in the first game, make themselves a team to be feared by the best in the district, and will no doubt make a strong bid for the district title.

For being the first game of the season, the crowd was very large.

The lineup is as follows:

Alumni—LaBree, c.; Ralston-Parenteau, f.; Sether-McGinn, f.; Herron, g.; Barzen, g.

High School—Bennes-Mulry, c.; Zeh and Penney (Capt., f.; "Mike" Parenteau and C. Bjorkman, g.

Referee: Coach Leonard Thune. Time keeper: Principal Morris Bye.

Miss Edel Jarde has been absent from school for a week on account of illness. The student body wish her a speedy recovery.

Ruth Schlank entered school Monday as a Freshman.

Miss Johnson has been very ill the last week. Anna Wedul is substituting for her.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

During the present week the hall of the high school is a scene of great activity, for the different classes are selling the allotment of 5,000 seals made by the Red Cross. On Monday the Freshmen were in charge of the sales, on Tuesday the Sophomores, Wednesday the Juniors, and today the Seniors. On Friday the factulty will have a chance to test their ability as salesmen and women, when they will be in charge of sales.

PUNCTUALITY

Punctuality is a much more important virtue than some of us think. "I was only a few minutes late," is so easy for some people to say. I once met a girl who made this her excuse for being tardy for school every day. On one occasion the teacher angrily went to the pupil's desk and asked her to tell him who was always the last one for school. The girl answered that she was never in time to see! This shows us that by not being on time we miss something in one way or another.

We find many cases in which individuals have gained honor, success and usually, happiness, by invariably being the right persons at the right place at the right time. Men who have attained desirable goals in the world have not been lazy and always tardy men. On the contrary, they were people who planned all their courses in such a way that woud be helpful to them. To be benefited by these necessitiated punctuality.

Caesar demanded promptness. If one of his soldiers happened to be late, he did not get any breakfast. I remember being told that Caesar said his defeat in a certain important battle was due to a two-minute's delay.

Who will forever tolerate an acquaintance who always makes others wait for him? Although he has had just as much time as the others, and maybe more, he is never ready at the appointed time. We soon tire of such people, no matter who they are. Of course, we accept excuses for occasional and unavoidable lateness.

Why are some people always tardy and others never? That is easily answered. Those of the first class eventually leave everything to the last minute. Those of the second class class have some form of schedule which they follow. They make the best of all their time.

People who make it a point to be prompt seldom lose anything by their exactness. Instead they gain something such as: money, pleasure, respect and admiration, friends, knowledge, as in the case of the student, and many other advantages.

I am aware of the fact that it is frequently difficult to be punctual. It may be some slight sacrifices are necessary; but the things received in return are so much greater and preferable that the practice is decidedly profitable. If you don't believe me, just try this once.

SUPPORT YOUR TEAM IS PLEA OF BOOSTER

Local Fan Urges Citizens to Back Up Legion Boys in Popular Sport

With prospects for a Legion basketball team to represent Thief River Falls this season, a local booster and basketball fan opines as follows in urging support for the team:

"The basket ball season of 1925 will, undoubtedly again bring its laurels to the city of Thief River Falls. Everyone remembers the great basket ball team that this city put on the floor in 1920-21. Many of the stars of that team are still alive and kicking and claim that they are better than ever and are anxious to prove their statements on the first opponents that come their way.

"A good basketball team is of more value in the publicity line than any other sport that a city can foster. In the season referred to the name of Thief River Falls and the successes of its basketball team were mentioned in newspapers all over the country. It is universally recognized that a city that will support a basketball team that puts up a good, clean brand of basketball is a good, live community.

"But a basketball team is only as strong as its backing. It is not the star players that make a team good and bring home the bacon. It is the support back of that team. Every player on the team knows that he can play a far superior game when he knows that his home town folks are pulling for him in a substantial manner. In order to have a high class team that we can all be proud of it is up to the ones who play their basketball by sitting on the side lines to get behind the team to the fullest extent. Attend every game that you possibly can, root for the home team in a clean manner and give them all of your moral support in all stages of the game. Let's do this early in the season so that this year the Thief River Falls team can land the state championship."

Former St. Hilaire Resident Killed in Automobile Spill

Ernest Shannon, 40, Fosston business man was instantly killed Monday of last week when the front wheels of the automobile in which he was riding jacknifed, overturning the machine, near McIntosh. Mr. Shannon was on his way home from Wylie where he had visited with his brother, William, and was accompanied by his niece, Miss Lucille Shannon, who was driving the car. Miss Shannon was going with her uncle to Fosston where her wedding was scheduled for Wednesday, according to reports.

Loose gravel is said to have caused the accident. Miss Shannon escaped uninjured, but the car in tipping into the ditch fell on top of Mr. Shannon, the back of the seat falling across his neck.

Mr. Shannon, who is survived by his widow and two sons, lived at St. Hilaire for a number of years, going from there to Fosston to engage in the medicine business.

Another accident occurred last week when Mrs. S. Febro of Red Lake Falls was seriously injured in an automobile collision Wednesday evening five miles east of Crookston on T. H. No. 8. Both cars were thrown into the ditch but Mrs. Febro was the only person injured, she receiving a blow on the head and internal injuries. She is now reported doing well. Mrs. Febro was accompanied by her daughters, Florence and Margaret and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beiner of Burwell.

A week ago Saturday one of the gravel-trucks employed by the Reeder Construction company near Red Lake Falls collided with a Chevrolet driven by George Boutain of Wylie, injuring Jos. Goyette, who was riding with Boutain, and completely demolishing the car.

Anton "Tony" Yngve of Middle River, former commander of Ninth district Legion posts, was among those in attendance at the big mass meeting in this city Friday addressed by Department Commander Lindell and Mrs. Milton Spencer, president of the Auxiliary. Yngve was recently elected commander of the Hans Lien post at Middle River, the other officers named being: Richard Nelson, vice commander; Elmer O. Tandberg, adjutant; Martin Hanson, treasurer and William Thompson, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Tandberg, who is superintendent of the Middle River schools, is a Thief River Falls man. Thirty 1925 memberships were signed up at one meeting, Mr. Yngve reports, and it is expected that the post will "go over the top" with more than 50 members by Jan. 1. A meeting was held at Gatzke last night to interest ex-service men of that community in Legion membership. Members of the Middle River post were among the enthusiastic supports of Thief River Falls in bidding for the 1925 convention and have pledged their aid in making it a success.

"ALFALFA DAY" MARKS EPOCH IN ADVANCEMENT OF FARMING HUNDREDS ATTEND BIG EVENT

TWIN CITY NEWSPAPERS LAUD GREAT MOVEMENT

Speakers Call Attention to Adaptability of Pennington County For Alfalfa

Alfalfa, the king of feeds for dairy cattle and hailed as the banner crop for Pennington county, was honored in royal style in this city last Thursday when farmers and business men of Pennington and surrounding counties joined with Thief River Falls citizens in celebrating "Alfalfa Day". Every detail of the event worked out as planned and the celebration is declared by everyone as the most momentous in the history of this community.

Never before has Thief River Falls and Pennington county and its enterprising citizens been given such widespread publicity thru the daily press and farm journals and never before have prominent leaders given such attention to the agricultural activities of this community. The alfalfa campaign conducted in this county and the celebration as a climax to the movement were given due respects by the visiting speakers, prominent men of the state, and the far reaching result to the community and the entire section is beyond estimation.

Following is the account of the event given by Dewsley Clark, staff correspondent for the Minneapolis Tribune who spent the entire day in the city to familiarize himself with what progressive farmers of this community are doing:

"Alfalfa, king of feeds for dairy cattle and looked upon as the savior of this agricultural section which suffered the woes of overproduction of wheat, was honored in regal style here today.

"The occasion was the annual celebration staged by bankers of Pennington county to interest farmers in increasing their production of this commodity.

"Thief River Falls decorated itself in sheafs and bales of the succulent food of the dairy cow. Its business men erected a massive arch of alfalfa to span the main street. Every store window displayed alfalfa. Cards admonishing farmers to plant increased acreage were everywhere.

Farmers Pour Into Town

"All day long farmers streamed into town. At noon a luncheon was given by the Commercial club in honor of visiting guests from the Twin Cities. In the afternoon a program was given at the auditorium, attended by nearly 1,000 farmers. In the evening the alfalfa arch was lighted and a carnival air came over the city. A second program was given in the evening in the auditorium. A clown band played. Free eats were another attraction.

"The serious side of the celebration was this, bankers of Pennington county took this means of offering to farmers a carload of certified alfalfa seed to be used for next year's crops. Judging from the interest shown, more than a carload will be necessary to appease the enthusiasm of the farmers who took part in the celebration.

Means More Dairying

"By going in strong for alfalfa, farmers of this county hope to counteract the sad experiences they encountered when they grew only wheat. The increased acreage in alfalfa, they realize, will mean more dairying. More dairying means bigger cream checks. Bigger cream checks mean fewer notes in the banks. And everyone will be happy.

"Back in 1919 alfalfa growing in Pennington county was a rarity. The county agent began to point out the value of alfalfa in 1920. In 1922 soil experts went over the region and found, by tests, that the soil is extremely rich in lime, a necessity for successful alfalfa production. These experts recommended that alfalfa be planted on acres depleted of fertility by repeated wheat crops during and before the war.

Bankers Bought Seed.

"In October, 1923, bankers of the county purchased a consignment of certified Grimm seed, about 30,000 pounds. All of this was distributed to the farmers.

"As a result during the last season over 6,000 acres were turned into alfalfa fields. For next season efforts are to be made to increase the acreage 4,000 more, and more than 10,000 pounds of seed are to be sold.

"Pennington county, hit as hard as any county in the Red River valley by the agricultural depression, is now in a happy frame of mind, today's celebration disclosed. The alfalfa campaign is one of two steps toward a carefully planned diversification. The other move is the growing of sugar beets. The opening of a sugar mill recently at Grand Forks has aroused increased interest in this crop. The acreage has been increased to such an extent that there is talk now of building a sugar mill at Thief River Falls.

"The only talk around Thief River Falls today was about what a benefit alfalfa will be to the prosperity of the farmers hereabouts. Slogans were seen on every hand. A ton of alfalfa is worth a ton of bran was one. Stories were heard on every hand about alfalfa.

Twin City Men Attend

"A Twin City delegation of agricultural experts and railroad officials arrived in the morning, one of the first things this group did was to pay a visit to the farm of Peter Engelstad, five miles from town. Mr. Engelstad boasts of an alfalfa field 21 years old, old enough to vote. Last season's crop on this field was as good as the second crop 20 years ago, Mr. Englestad said. Mr. Engelstad's farm is one of the model dairy farms in this territory."

Wallace Principal Speaker.

"There is no need for worry as to the future of Pennington county when the problems are tackled like they are by its enterprising citizens", Dan Wallace, managing editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, principal speaker at the afternoon program, told farmers and business men who filled the auditorium at the opening session. The meeting was presided over by Mayor J. S. Arneson, who spoke briefly on the development of this section and its adaptability to alfalfa growing, resulting in greater prosperity.

"I am glad to see that the farmers of Pennington county are working out their own salvation," Mr. Wallace said. He traced the farm experiences of the Northwest thru the last few years, declaring there are no artificial remedies for agricultural distress, but that time, work, thrift and application of better farming methods are the main stays to bring about satisfactory conditions.

Discussing the increased interest in alfalfa, Mr. Wallace presented figures showing that in 1900 there were only 600 acres, most of it in Carver county. In 1910 the acreage was 2,305 and in 1920 it was 45,419. The acreage was doubled from 1919 to 1921 and doubled again in 1923. Pennington county, he said, led all counties in the state in the rapid expansion of alfalfa acreage.

No Fear of Overproduction

"In Michigan and Wisconsin there is one acre of legumes to three of other crops," Mr. Wallace continued. "In Minnesota there were one out of 14 in 1920 and one out of ten now. In North Dakota the ratio is 1 to 62, so that there is no danger of an overproduction.

"Alfalfa is essential as a feed for livestock. This section is understocked and will prosper in proportion to the progress made in diversification by livestock. It will also fight off the weeds.

"There are four so-called schools of thought on the future of agriculture. One group stands for government fixing of prices as the remedy for present ills, another group is opposed to price fixing but believes there is aid to be found thru legislation. A third group thinks that the farmer is in good shape and needs only to pay attention to diversification, the fourth group believes that the farmers' solution rests entirely with the problem of distribution, co-operative marketing being one of the remedies advocated". It was pointed out that the present farm problems are not new but date back from the begining of agriculture. He thought with scientific diversification and scientific marketing many of the ills could be remedied.

Follow Successful Farmers

Speaking of his visit to the Engelstad, Hans Anton and Albert Johnson farms he said, "When I see what these men have done it strikes me that others can do likewise". Farmers were advised to follow the practices of the successful farmers in the community, become more efficient in their production and get on a cash basis.

The speaker commended this community upon its spirit of co-operation between town and country demonstrated in the Commercial club. The services of County Agent McCann were also praised.

Mr. Wallace urged his hearers to do all in their power to live down the reputation that the Northwest is

MELLBY-FROEHLICH WIN AT NORTHWEST POULTRY EXHIBIT

Pen of Jersey Black Giants Awarded Third Place—Neset Displays R. I. Reds

Honors again come to Pennington county members of Biddies' flock. A pen of five Jersey Black Giants entered in the Northwest National Poultry show in St. Paul last week by Dr. O. F. Mellby and Dr. H. W. Froehlich of this city was awarded third place in the young pen class of that variety. There were 2,000 fowls on exhibition, about 100 Jersey Black Giants being entered. This breed was only recently recognized as standard by the American Poultry association and last year there was only one bird of this type displayed in the show. It was declared the greatest poultry show ever held in the Northwest.

A pen of Rhode Island Reds and 2 peacocks were also entered by Olaf Neset, prominent local fancier and president of the district poultry marketing association. Competition was partcularly keen in this division.

Older Boys' Conference is Enjoyed by Local Youths

Henry Arneson, Clayton Snyder, Glendon Larson and Ronald Kinghorn attended the Older Boys' conference of the Y. M. C. A. held at Crookston Friday, Saturday and Sunday. George Johnson of the high school faculty was in charge of the group. They declare that the meetings were very interesting and instructive and return with increased enthusiasm in boys' work. The Sunday sessions were also attended by F. F. Haynes and C. D. Gustafson, local business men. A large number of boys were in attendance to hear lectures by such men as H. W. Peck, secretary emeritus of the Y. M. C. A.; D. R. Poole, Winnipeg; B. W. Tallman, R. C. Coffin and Hugo Thompson of Minneapolis; Clayton Watkins of the North Dakota University, and a number of others. Entertainment features were provided by Crookston people. About 150 boys from Northwestern Minnesota and North Dakota attended.

DIST. NO. 165 WINS HONORS IN SLOGAN AND SONG CONTEST

"Alfalfa Chorus" and "Alfalfa's Nest, Minnesota's Northwest" are Selected

That interest in alfalfa is not confined to a few expert farmers was evidenced last week by the large number of alfalfa songs and slogans submitted from rural school districts in Pennington and eastern Marshall county in the contest put on by local bankers to stimulate interest in the "Alfalfa Day", celebration. First prize for both song and slogan was awarded to district No. 165, Pennington county, of which Miss Annie Peterson is teacher. Peter Engelstad, Pennington's "Alfalfa King", is clerk of the district. The winning song, "Alfalfa Chorus," which was distributed and sung at the mass meeting Thursday night, appears elsewhere in this issue.

"Alfalfa's Nest, Minnesota's Northwest" was the very appropriate slogan adopted, this being selected from a multitude of entries. A prize of $5 was awarded in each contest.

"The number of songs and slogans far exceeded our expectations," declares Supt. I. T. Simley, in charge of the judging. "It demonstrates that the entire countryside is interested in the alfalfa campaign."

"Alfalfa, the Luxuriant Carpet of Minnesota" was among the slogans submitted.

The Christensen Hardware store was awarded first prize of $5 for having the best window display, a miniature farm scene, with particular emphasis on alfalfa. Nearly all business places had been appropriately decorated for the occasion, all displaying alfalfa in various unique ways. The judges of displays were Miss Maude L. Johnson, V. Polman and Supt. I. T. Simley.

LOCALS TO PLAY WARREN FRIDAY

Last Year Each Team Won Over the Other in Hard Fought Games

On Friday, December 19, the local high school basketball quint will meet the Warren team on the home floor for their fourth battle this season. Fans have some idea of the speed and team-work of the Lincoln boys from the last three games, but a steady improvement is planned by Coach Thune, who fully expects to see them make a very good showing on the basketball floor this season.

It will be remembered that the locals defeated Warren here last year 11 to 16, and that Thief River Falls suffered defeat over there 13 to 15.

This is the first conference game of the season and from all reports it is going to be a real battle from start to finish. The boys are determined that the conference basketball season will be ushered in with a victory and will do their "stuff" in the coming game.

Local fans are expected to turn out Friday night and back them in their good intentions.

A preliminary game will be played by the St. Hilaire high school team and the local second team, beginning at 7:30.

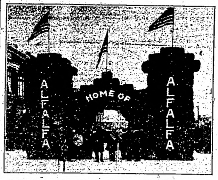
Salvation Army Raising Funds to Give Christmas Cheer to Needy Families

Needy families of Thief River Falls will be given Christmas cheer by means of contributions to the Christmas Kettle maintained by the local Salvation Army corps until the holidays. The kettle is located at Oen's corner, LaBree and Third, and passersby are asked to show their good will by giving to this fund. The money thus realized will be used to provide Christmas baskets for distribution among the less fortunate of the city. The Christmas Kettle is in common use by most Salvation Army corps but has not been used here for some time.

Hold Annual Banquet and Lay Plans For New Year Eve Ball

Members of the Thief River Falls Fire department held their annual banquet at Thompson's Cafe Friday evening, at the same time laying final plans for the thirty-first annual New Year's ball.

This organization has been active in more ways than fighting fire, and in recent years has annually staged the New Year's ball on New Year's eve at the city auditorium. Committees were appointed to attend to the decorating and other preparations for the gala event.



The "Alfalfa Palace" was erected by Thief River Falls citizens to symbolize the prominence alfalfa has gained in the agricultural development of Pennington county. It was a feature at the "Alfalfa Day" celebration Thursday, Dec. 11. Photo by Salveson

ALFRED SIMONSON OF VIKING MEMBER "LOST BATTALION"

Film Depicting Experience of Famous Outfit Coming Under Legion Auspices

Alfred Simonson, Viking farmer, was a member of the famous "Lost Battalion" of the World War, the activities of which will be depicted in the film "The Lost Battalion" which will be shown in this city under the auspices of the local American Legion post on Saturday, Dec. 27. Simonson, who is a son of Tom Simonson of Viking, is the only soldier in this section who belonged to the outfit which was lost in the Argonne forest in France in October, 1918.

The picture was shown recently at Warren, the theatre being packed for five performances. Particularly ex-service men came long distances to see it.

H. S. GRADS SINCE 1904 WILL GATHER IN REUNION HERE

Alumni Are Urged to Partake in Annual Festivities at S. of N. Hall Dec. 28

Alumni of Lincoln high school since the first class graduated in 1904 will gather in annual reunion at the Sons of Norway hall Friday evening, Dec. 26, and present indications are that it will be one of the leading events of the holiday season and a most enjoyable time for all former Lincolnites. A large number of alumni who are employed at other points or attending school elsewhere will be in the city at the time of the reunion, and judging from expressions of members of the association already in the city the turnout will be larger than ever. There are now more than 800 alumni of the local high school.

Announcements are being sent out this week to alumni whose addresses are known by the committee, but those who do not receive one should nevertheless consider themselves invited, the festivities being open to all graduates and members of this year's senior class.

A snappy program of short talks and musical numbers has been arranged, following which the hours will be spent in dancing and other social diversions. Refreshments will be served. A brief business session will also be held.

Officers of the association this year are: Francis Burns, president; Stephen Arneson, vice president; Doris Richter, secretary and George Mestue, treasurer.

Man Deserts Wife and Three Children. Bound to Dist. Court but Can't Raise Bail

Helge Johnson, a former resident of this city and the vicinity of Grygla, was brought to this city Thursday by Sheriff O. L. Ihle, from Kerrick, Minn., and hailed into municipal court before Judge N. W. Tarrant on a charge of deserting his wife and three minor children. He was given a hearing Friday morning and bound over to the next term of district court. Judge Tarrant fixed the bonds at $500, which he has been unable to raise so far and is still an occupant of the county jail.

The complaint by Mrs. Anna Johnson states that her husband left on July 25, 1924, and has since failed to contribute to the support of the family. The three children are Cora, 6; Harold, 4 and Dorothy, 2 years old, who are kept at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Reisner at Shilling. Mrs. Johnson is employed at the Soo Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came to this city in the fall of 1923 and Mr. Johnson was employed here for a couple of months. Since her husband's departure Mrs. Johnson has made her living doing washing and other work to sustain the family. Unable to maintain the home in this city she was obliged to break up housekeeping in August, according to her own statements. Since leaving this city Mr. Johnson is said to have been at Esplee and Grygla, and later at the home of his parents at Kerrick.

AUG. CARLSON FACES CHARGE OF HAVING MOONSHINE FOR SALE

Liquor Found in Home, Marshall County Warrant Charges Sales to Minors

August Carlson, local taxi driver, was brought before Judge Tarrant in municipal court Saturday afternoon charged with having liquor in his possession for sale illegally and after waiving preliminary examination was bound over to district court. He was released after furnishing bail of $500.

Carlson was arrested Friday night by Sheriff O. L. Ihle of this city and Deputy Sheriff J. P. Bordewich of Warren, while at a dance in Holt, where he was caught with liquor in his possession, according to officials. He was brought back to this city and lodged in the county jail until the hearing the next day. Sheriff Ihle armed with a search warrant on Saturday found a gallon of moonshine in Carlson's home on Duluth avenue south, hidden in the coal bin. The charge here is for the liquor found in his home.

Carlson also faces liquor charges in Marshall county, a warrant having been issued charging four sales of liquor to minors, partly in Marshall and partly in Pennington county, prior to the time the arrest was made, officials report. Bordewich is said to have carried the warrant at the time Carlson was nabbed at Holt. Carlson appeared before Marshall county authorities Monday but no definite action was taken, according to reports, action by the Pennington county authorities being awaited. Carlson admitted to officers here that he had been selling liquor since July.

PLUMMER CHILD IS BURNED TO DEATH

Year Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brekke Cremated Fire Destroys Home

Marie Anna, the one-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brekke of Plummer, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Brekke home Monday afternoon, Dec. 8. The two other children, the oldest of whom is four years old, were playing with fire and lighting papers which is thot to have caused the blaze while their mother was visiting a neighbor, Mrs. John Halvorson, across the street, according to reports. The fire started about three o'clock.

When the furnishings caught fire the four-year old girl dragged her brother out of the house and went to another neighbor, where she told about her little sister being asleep upstairs in the burning house. When rescuers came to the house the flames were so far advanced that the baby could not be reached and the building was soon a heap of ashes.

The funeral services were held last Thursday from the Lutheran church at Plummer. The entire community sympathizes with the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Two Pay Fines For Beating Up Goodridge Man Following Incident at a Recent Dance

Gilbert Gunderson and Aleck Grovum, residing in the vicinity of Grygla, appeared before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court Tuesday morning and plead guilty to having assaulted Julius Stephenson of Goodridge. Grovum was assessed a fine of $17 and Gunderson $12.

It seems that the two young men resented the action of Stephenson, who served as officer at a dance in Goodridge on Dec. 4, the latter having requested them to conform with certain regulations, according to testimony in court. To get even with Stephenson when they saw him on the streets in Goodridge the following Sunday, they attacked him and dealt him several blows. Upon the complaint of Mr. Stephenson the arrest was made by Sheriff O. L. Ihle on a charge of assault and battery.

Will Sing Christmas Carols

Christmas carols will be sung at the sanatorium, the poor house and the hospitals by members of the Woman's club chorus and other vocalists of the city on Sunday afternoon, Mrs. G. W. Booren, president announces. Anyone who is confined to the home and desires to hear them sing on Tuesday evening, is requested to notify Mrs. Booren.

Holiday Rush Starts This Week at Local Post Office

A tremendous increase in mail this week is reminding clerks in the Thief River Falls post office that Christmas is only a week away. An earlier increase in the volume of mail is noticeable this year, due to the public's response to the "Shop Early" and "Mail Early" campaign, which enables the postal department to handle the mail properly during the rush season.

"All employees of the post office will eat their Christmas dinners at their homes and the only way to be certain that Christmas parcels are delivered by Christmas is to mail them early," Postmaster Daniel Shaw says. Mail that is not delivered by Christmas noon will not be delivered until after Christmas. No deliveries will be made on Christmas Day except on star routes.

Patrons are urged to wrap and address packages carefully before mailing. Care should also be taken in putting on sufficient postage.

LEGION POST NAMES IMPORTANT '25 CONVENTION GROUPS

General Citizenry to Aid in Making Arrangements—McGinn Heads Finance

Four committees for the 1925 State Legion convention in this city were named at the meeting of the Elmer J. Eklund Post Friday night, the remaining committees, about 12 in number, to be selected later. The committees will consist of Legion members, citizens and members of the Legion Auxiliary.

F. E. McGinn of the Farmers & Merchants State bank is chairman of the general finance committee, the other members of whom are: Math Barzen, E. M. Bennes, Alfred Bredeson, H. S. Dahlen, R. L. Ericson, Herbert Fuller, F. F. Haynes, Fred Herrick, L. R. Johnston, Albert Lonson, O. C. Paulson, Dr. G. A. Penney, Theo. Quale, L. M. Rayson, O. R. Sande, P. J. Wedge, J. P Peterson of Grygla and Miles Jackson of St. Hilaire.

The publicity committee, headed by Attorney G. Howard Smith, consists of Dr. H. W. Froehlich, Mayor J. S. Arneson, Dreng B. Bjornaraa, H. W. Protzeller, Scott Laird and Theo. M. Thronson.

O. C. Paulson is chairman of the transportation committee of which the other members are: M. T. McFarland, W. W. Prichard, Jr., P. O. Myhrum and George Russell.

Those in charge of the tour to Winnipeg are Oscar R. Smith, chairman, Commander H. O. Chommie and Mayor J. S. Arneson.

An effort is being made by the post to have every detail of the convention well taken care of by competent and working committees.

Francis Burns was selected chairman of the committee in charge of showing the "Lost Battalion" film here under Legion auspices Dec. 27.

The membership campaign is going over with a great deal of pep and indications are that the 200 mark will be passed in 1925 enrollments. The four teams are working hard to lead in the race which closes Dec. 20, the two losing teams being obliged to entertain the winners at a "feed."

A strong membership is of particular importance at this time when preparations are being made for the state convention and it is hoped to enroll every ex-service man in the county into the ranks of the Eklund post. More than 60 memberships have already been turned in to the adjutant and additional ones are forthcoming every day.

LOCAL GUERNSEYS TO BE ADVERTISED THRUOUT COUNTRY

Editor of National Guernsey Journal Gets Data Concerning Lady Bruce

Pennington county Guernseys will be made known to breeders thruout the country as a result of a visit by F. Robinson of Peterboro, N. H., of the Guernsey Breeders' Journal, who was in the city last week to get a complete history and data of the F. B. Conklin dairy herd, particularly regarding Lady Bruce of Clovercrest, Minnesota's champion producer in her class.

Mr. Robinson is traveling thruout the country for the purpose of getting material for write-ups in his magazine, calling on the owners of all the leading dairy animals and herds. Having heard a great deal about Pennington Guernseys and particularly regarding Lady Bruce he made a special trip here to get the desired information and pictures. The article will appear in the March 1 or March 15 issue. He also visited the herds of Peter Engelstad, Albert Johnson, Stuart McLeod and Harry Woolson, and declared that he was very favorably impressed.

The schools of this city, and many of the rural districts, will be closed for a two week period, opening again for another long period of study Monday, January 5.

TOTAL TAX RATE FOR CITY GIVEN INCREASE OF 5.1

Taxpayers in Thief River Falls Will Pay 114.6 Mills Compared to 109.5 Last Year

SCHOOL RATE UP 8.1 BUT CITY-STATE REDUCED

County's Assessed Valuation Falls Off $343,629—State Rate is Only 5.78 Mills

Taxpayers of Thief River Falls will pay a slightly higher rate the coming year than in effect the past year, the total rate on which 1924 taxes will be paid being 114.6 mills, compared to 109.5 last year and 109.8 mills in 1922, according to figures obtained in the county auditor's office. The greatest portion is for school purposes, 59.9 mills, which was 51.8 mills last year. The city rate is 35.1, a reduction from 36.3 last year. The total rate for the county has been placed at 13.82, an increase from 13.4 in 1923.

The increase in rate is due to the slump in valuation, the taxable property in Pennington county in 1924 being given an assessed valuation of $5,122,587, compared to $5,486,116, in 1923, a drop of $343,529, after the assessments had been raised according to the changes of the state tax commission. Personal property is valued $121,271 lower than in 1923 and real estate $242,255 lower.

The assessed valuation in Thief River Falls this year is $1,464,392, a drop of nearly $90,000 from the 1923 figure.

The state tax this year is 5.78 mills compared to 8 mills last year. It is divided as follows: State revenue, 4.5; state school, 1.23; teachers' insurance, .05.

The other rates are distributed as follows: County—revenue, 5; road and bridge, 5.8; bond and interest, .82; sanatorium, .1; sinking fund, 1.2; City—current, 20.5; auditorium, .7; sinking fund, .4; poor, 2.8; interest, .8; library, 2.1; hydrant, 1.4; paving, 4.1; improvement, .9; band, .5; state loan, .9; School—special, 45.6; state loan, 15.3; local one mill, 1.

The levy for city purposes is fixed at $40,000, city schools, $70,000 and for county purposes, $60,595.62. The county levy as fixed by the commissioners is distributed as follows: County revenue, $25,612.94; road and bridge, $29,711; bond and interest, $200; sanatorium, $5,122.58, and sinking fund, $6,147.10. The county revenue was slashed $3,000 and road and bridge fund $1,000 from last year's figures.

Rates in 12 out of the 21 townships in Pennington county have been reduced, which is indicated by the following figures:

Township.	Rate in Mills 1924	1923
Bray	3.7	4.9
Black River	11.	14.6

The following tabulation shows the rate in the 80 districts of the county:

Local Fan Urges Citizens to Back Up Legion Boys in Popular Sport

With prospects for a Legion basketball team to represent Thief River Falls this season, a local booster and basketball fan opines as follows in urging support for the team:

"The basket ball season of 1925 will, undoubtedly again bring its laurels to the city of Thief River Falls. Everyone remembers the great basket ball team that this city put on the floor in 1920-21. Many of the stars of that team are still alive and kicking and claim that they are better than ever and are anxious to prove their statements on the first opponents that come their way.

"A good basketball team is of more value in the publicity line than any other sport that a city can foster. In the season referred to the name of Thief River Falls and the success of its basketball team were mentioned in newspapers all over the country. It is universally recognized that a city that will support a basketball team that puts up a good, clean brand of basketball is a good, live community.

"But a basketball team is only as strong as its backing. It is not the star players that make a team good and bring home the bacon. It is the support back of that team. Every player on the team knows that he can play a far superior game when he knows that his home town folks are pulling for him in a substantial manner. In order to have a high class team that we can all be proud of it is up to the ones who play their basketball by sitting on the side lines to get behind the team to the fullest extent. Attend every game that you possibly can, root for the home team in a clean manner and give them all of your moral support in all stages of the game. Let's do this early in the season so that this year the Thief River Falls team can land the state championship."

Former St. Hilaire Resident Killed in Automobile Spill

Ernest Shannon, 40, Fosston business man was instantly killed Monday of last week when the front wheels of the automobile in which he was riding jacknifed, overturning the machine, near McIntosh. Mr. Shannon was on his way home from Wylie where he had visited with his brother, William, and was accompanied by his niece, Miss Lucille Shannon, who was driving the car. Miss Shannon was going with her uncle to Fosston where her wedding was scheduled for Wednesday, according to reports.

Loose gravel is said to have caused the accident. Miss Shannon escaped uninjured, but the car in tipping into the ditch fell on top of Mr. Shannon, the back of the seat falling across his neck.

Mr. Shannon, who is survived by his widow and two sons, lived at St. Hilaire for a number of years, going from there to Fosston to engage in the medicine business.

Another accident occurred last week when Mrs. S. Febro of Red Lake Falls was seriously injured in an automobile collision Wednesday evening five miles east of Crookston on T. H. No. 8. Both cars were thrown into the ditch but Mrs. Febro was the only person injured, she receiving a blow on the head and internal injuries. She is now reported doing well. Mrs. Febro was accompanied by her daughters, Florence and Margaret and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beiner of Burwell.

A week ago Saturday one of the gravel trucks employed by the Reader Construction company near Red Lake Falls collided with a Chevrolet driven by George Boutain of Wylie, injuring Jos. Goyette, who was riding with Boutain, and completely demolishing the car.

Yngve Heads Middle River Post—E. O. Tandberg Adjt.

Anton "Tony" Yngve of Middle River, former commander of Ninth district Legion posts, was among those in attendance at the big mass meeting in this city Friday addressed by Department Commander Lindell and Mrs. Milton Spencer, president of the Auxiliary. Yngve was recently elected commander of the Hans Lien post at Middle River, the other officers named being: Richard Nelson, vice commander; Elmer O. Tandberg, adjutant; Martin Hanson, treasurer and William Thompson, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Tandberg, who is superintendent of the Middle River schools, is a Thief River Falls man. Thirty 1925 memberships were signed up at one meeting, Mr. Yngve reports, and it is expected that the post will "go over the top" with more than 50 members by Jan. 1. A meeting was held at Gatzke last night to interest ex-service men of that community in Legion membership. Members of the Middle River post were among the enthusiastic supports of Thief River Falls in bidding for the 1925 convention and have pledged their aid in making it a success.

FAULTY NUTRITION
Many of the ailments of grown people may be traced to faulty nutrition. Well-fed children or adults withstand weakness better than those who are indifferently nourished.

Scott's Emulsion

supplies the weakened child or adult with food-factors that other foods often fail to furnish in needful volume.

Not a great deal of Scott's Emulsion is needed—but a little regularly often means restored vigor and strength to those who are rundown in vitality or who are weak.

"ALFALFA DAY" MARKS EPOCH IN ADVANCEMENT OF FARMING: HUNDREDS ATTEND BIG EVENT

TWIN CITY NEWSPAPERS LAUD GREAT MOVEMENT

Speakers Call Attention to Adaptability of Pennington County For Alfalfa

Alfalfa, the king of feeds for dairy cattle and hailed as the banner crop for Pennington county, was honored in royal style in this city last Thursday when farmers and business men of Pennington and surrounding counties joined with Thief River Falls citizens in celebrating "Alfalfa Day". Every detail of the event worked out as planned and the celebration is declared by everyone as the most momentous in the history of this community.

Never before has Thief River Falls and Pennington county and its enterprising citizens been given such widespread publicity thru the daily press and farm journals and never before have prominent leaders given such attention to the agricultural activities of this community. The alfalfa campaign conducted in this county and the celebration as a climax to the movement were given due respects by the visiting speakers, prominent men of the state, and the far reaching result to the community and the entire section is beyond estimation.

Following is the account of the event given by Dowsley Clark, staff correspondent for the Minneapolis Tribune who spent the entire day in the city to familiarize himself with what progressive farmers of this community are doing:

"Alfalfa, king of feeds for dairy cattle and looked upon as the savior of this agricultural section which suffered the woes of overproduction of wheat, was honored in regal style here today.

"The occasion was the annual celebration staged by bankers of Pennington county to interest farmers in increasing their production of this commodity.

"Thief River Falls decorated itself in sheafs and bales of the succulent food of the dairy cow. Its business men erected a massive arch of alfalfa to span the main street. Every store window displayed alfalfa. Cards admonishing farmers to plant increased acreage were everywhere.

Farmers Pour Into Town

"All day long farmers streamed into town. At noon a luncheon was given by the Commercial club in honor of visiting guests from the Twin Cities. In the afternoon a program was given at the auditorium, attended by nearly 1,000 farmers. In the evening the alfalfa arch was lighted and a carnival air came over the city. A second program was given in the evening in the auditorium. A clown band played. Free eats were another attraction.

"The serious side of the celebration was this, bankers of Pennington county took this means of offering to farmers a carload of certified alfalfa seed to be used for next year's crops. Judging from the interest shown, more than a carload will be necessary to appease the enthusiasm of the farmers who took part in the celebration.

Means More Dairying

"By going in strong for alfalfa, farmers of this county hope to counteract the sad experiences they encountered when they grew only wheat. The increased acreage in alfalfa, they realize, will mean more dairying. More dairying means bigger cream checks. Bigger cream checks mean fewer notes in the banks. And everyone will be happy.

"Back in 1919 alfalfa growing in Pennington county was a rarity. The county agent began to point out the value of alfalfa in 1920. In 1922 soil experts went over the region and found, by tests, that the soil is extremely rich in lime, a necessity for successful alfalfa production. These experts recommended that alfalfa be planted on acres depleted of fertility by repeated wheat crops during and before the war.

Bankers Bought Seed.

"In October, 1923, bankers of the county purchased a consignment of certified Grimm seed, about 30,000 pounds. All of this was distributed to the farmers.

"As a result during the last season over 6,000 acres were turned into alfalfa fields. For next season efforts are to be made to increase the acreage 4,000 more, and more than 40,000 pounds of seed are to be sold.

"Pennington county, hit as hard as any county in the Red River valley by the agricultural depression, is now in a happy frame of mind, today's celebration disclosed. The alfalfa campaign is one of two steps toward a carefully planned diversification. The other move is the growing of sugar beets. The opening of a sugar mill recently at Grand Forks has aroused increased interest in this crop. The acreage has been increased to such an extent that there is talk now of building a sugar mill at Thief River Falls.

"The only talk around Thief River Falls today was about what a benefit alfalfa will be to the prosperity of the farmers hereabouts. Slogans were seen on every hand. A ton of alfalfa is worth a ton of bran was one. Stories were heard on every hand about alfalfa.

Twin City Men Attend

"A Twin City delegation of agricultural experts and railroad officials arrived in the morning, one of the first things this group did was to pay a visit to the farm of Peter Engelstad, five miles from town. Mr. Engelstad boasts of an alfalfa field 21 years old, old enough to vote. Last season's crop on this field was as good as the second crop 20 years ago, Mr. Englestad said. Mr. Engelstad's farm is one of the model dairy farms in this territory."

Wallace Principal Speaker.

"There is no need for worry as to the future of Pennington county when the problems are tackled like they are by its enterprising citizens", Dan Wallace, managing editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, principal speaker at the afternoon program, told farmers and business men who filled the auditorium at the opening session. The meeting was presided over by Mayor J. S. Arneson, who spoke briefly on the development of this section and its adaptability to alfalfa growing, resulting in greater prosperity.

"I am glad to see that the farmers of Pennington county are working out their own salvation," Mr. Wallace said. He traced the farm experiences of the Northwest thru the last few years, declaring there are no artificial remedies for agricultural distress, but that time, work, thrift and application of better farming methods are the main stays to bring about satisfactory conditions.

Discussing the increased interest in alfalfa, Mr. Wallace presented figures showing that in 1900 there were only 600 acres, most of it in Carver county. In 1910 the acreage was 2,305 and in 1920 it was 45,419. The acreage was doubled from 1919 to 1921 and doubled again in 1923. Pennington county, he said, led all counties in the state in the rapid expansion of alfalfa acreage.

No Fear of Overproduction

"In Michigan and Wisconsin there is one acre of legumes to three of other crops, "Mr. Wallace continued. "In Minnesota there were one out of 14 in 1920 and one out of ten now. In North Dakota the ratio is 1 to 52, so that there is no danger of an overproduction.

"Alfalfa is essential as a feed for livestock. This section is understocked and will prosper in proportion to the progress made in diversification by livestock. It will also fight off the weeds.

"There are four so-called schools of thought on the future of agriculture. One group stands for government fixing of prices as the remedy for present ills, another group is opposed to price fixing but believes there is aid to be found thru legislation. A third group thinks that the farmer 'IS' in good shape and needs only to pay attention to diversification, the fourth group believes that the farmers' solution rests entirely with the problem of distribution, co-operative marketing being one of the remedies advocated". It was pointed out that the present farm problems are not new but date back from the begining of agriculture. He thought with scientific diversification and scientific marketing many of the ills could be remedied.

Follow Successful Farmers

Speaking of his visit to the Engelstad, Hans Anton and Albert Johnson farms he said, "When I see what these men have done it strikes me that others can do likewise". Farmers were advised to follow the practices of the successful farmers in the community, become more efficient in their production and get on a cash basis.

The speaker commended this community upon its spirit of co-operation between town and country demonstrated in the Commercial club. The services of County Agent McCann were also praised.

Mr. Wallace urged his hearers to do all in their power to live down the reputation that the Northwest is

Pen of Jersey Black Giants Awarded Third Place—Neset Displays R. I. Reds

Honors again come to Pennington county members of Biddies' flock. A pen of five Jersey Black Giants entered in the Northwest National Poultry show in St. Paul last week by Dr. O. F. Mellby and Dr. H. W. Froehlich of this city was awarded third place in the young pen class of that variety. There were 2,000 fowls on exhibition, about 100 Jersey Black Giants being entered. This breed was only recently recognized as standard by the American Poultry association and last year there was only one bird of this type displayed in the show. It was declared the greatest poultry show ever held in the Northwest.

A pen of Rhode Island Reds and 2 peacocks were also entered by Olaf Neset, prominent local fancier and president of the district poultry marketing association. Competition was particularly keen in this division.

Christmas Seals For Sale At Six Down-town Stores

Christmas health seals are now being sold in large numbers, the school children having sold in their respective homes and a considerable quantity sold at local stores where they have been put on sale for the convenience of those who have not been solicited. Seals are sold at the following business places: Oen Mercantile store, J. C. Penney store, Lambert's, Curtis', Newell's and Stebbins' drug stores.

The penny seals may also be procured in any quantity by calling at any school building, it is announced by Supt. I. T. Simley, manager of the campaign in the city.

Older Boys' Conference is Enjoyed by Local Youths

Henry Arneson, Clayton Snyder, Glendon Larson and Ronald Kinghorn attended the Older Boys' conference of the Y. M. C. A. held at Crookston Friday, Saturday and Sunday. George Johnson of the high school faculty was in charge of the group. They declare that the meetings were very interesting and instructive and return with increased enthusiasm in boys' work. The Sunday sessions were also attended by F. F. Haynes and C. D. Gustafson, local business men. A large number of boys were in attendance to hear lectures by such men as H. W. Peek, secretary emeritus of the Y. M. C. A.; D. R. Poole, Winnipeg; B. W. Tallman, R. C. Coffin and Hugo Thompson of Minneapolis; Clayton Watkins of the North Dakota University, and a number of others. Entertainment features were provided by Crookston people. About 150 boys from Northwestern Minnesota and North Dakota attended.

DIST. NO. 165 WINS HONORS IN SLOGAN AND SONG CONTEST

"Alfalfa Chorus" and "Alfalfa's Nest, Minnesota's Northwest" are Selected

That interest in alfalfa is not confined to a few expert farmers was evidenced last week by the large number of alfalfa songs and slogans submitted from rural school districts in Pennington and eastern Marshall county in the contest put on by local bankers to stimulate interest in the "Alfalfa Day" celebration. First prize for both song and slogan was awarded to district No. 165, Pennington county, of which Miss Annie Peterson is teacher. Peter Engelstad, Pennington's "Alfalfa King", is clerk of the district. The winning song, "Alfalfa Chorus," which was distributed and sung at the mass meeting Thursday night, appears elsewhere in this issue.

"Alfalfa's Nest, Minnesota's Northwest" was the very appropriate slogan adopted, this being selected from a multitude of entries. A prize of $5 was awarded in each contest.

"The number of songs and slogans far exceeded our expectations," declares Supt. I. T. Simley, in charge of the judging. "It demonstrates that the entire countryside is interested in the alfalfa campaign."

"Alfalfa, the Luxuriant Carpet of Minnesota" was among the slogans submitted.

The Christensen Hardware store was awarded first prize of $5 for having the best window display, a miniature farm scene, with particular emphasis on alfalfa. Nearly all business places had been appropriately decorated for the occasion, all displaying alfalfa in various unique ways. The judges of displays were Miss Maude L. Johnson, V. Polman and Supt. I. T. Simley.

LOCALS TO PLAY WARREN FRIDAY

Last Year Each Team Won Over the Other in Hard Fought Games

On Friday, December 19, the local high school basketball quint will meet the Warren team on the home floor for their fourth battle this season. Fans have some idea of the speed and team-work of the Lincoln boys from the last three games, but a steady improvement is planned by Coach Thune, who fully expects to see them make a very good showing on the basketball floor this season.

It will be remembered that the locals defeated Warren here last year 11 to 16, and that Thief River Falls suffered defeat over there 13 to 15.

This is the first conference game of the season and from all reports it is going to be a real battle from start to finish. The boys are determined that the conference basketball season will be ushered in with a victory and will do their "stuff" in the coming game.

Local fans are expected to turn out Friday night and back them in their good intentions.

A preliminary game will be played by the St. Hilaire high school team and the local second team, beginning at 7:30.

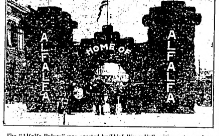
Salvation Army Raising Funds to Give Christmas Cheer to Needy Families

Needy families of Thief River Falls will be given Christmas cheer by means of contributions to the Christmas Kettle maintained by the local Salvation Army corps until the holidays. The kettle is located at Oen's corner, LaBree and Third, and passersby are asked to show their good will by giving to this fund. The money thus realized will be used to provide Christmas baskets for distribution among the less fortunate of the city. The Christmas Kettle is in common use by most Salvation Army corps but has not been used here for some time.

Hold Annual Banquet and Lay Plans For New Year Eve Ball

Members of the Thief River Falls Fire department held their annual banquet at Thompson's Cafe Friday evening, at the same time laying final plans for the thirty-first annual New Year's ball.

This organization has been active in more ways than fighting fire, and in recent years has annually staged the New Year's ball on New Year's eve at the city auditorium. Committees were appointed to attend to the decorating and other preparations for the gala event.



The "Alfalfa Palace" was erected by Thief River Falls citizens to symbolize the prominence alfalfa has gained in the agricultural development of Pennington county. It was a feature at the "Alfalfa Day" celebration Thursday, Dec. 11.

ALFRED SIMONSON OF VIKING MEMBER "LOST BATTALION"

Film Depicting Experience of Famous Outfit Coming Under Legion Auspices

Alfred Simonson, Viking farmer, was a member of the famous "Lost Battalion" of the World War, the activities of which will be depicted in the film "The Lost Battalion" which will be shown in this city under the auspices of the local American Legion post on Saturday, Dec. 27. Simonson, who is a son of Tom Simonson of Viking, is the only soldier in this section who belonged to the outfit which was lost in the Argonne forest in France in October 1918.

The picture was shown recently at Warren, the theatre being packed for five performances. Particularly ex-service men came long distances to see it.

H. S. GRADS SINCE 1904 WILL GATHER IN REUNION HERE

Alumni Are Urged to Partake in Annual Festivities at S. of N. Hall Dec. 28

Alumni of Lincoln high school since the first class graduated in 1904 will gather in annual reunion at the Sons of Norway hall Friday evening, Dec. 26, and present indications are that it will be one of the leading events of the holiday season and a most enjoyable time for all former Lincolnites. A large number of alumni who are employed at other points or attending school elsewhere will be in the city at the time of the reunion, and judging from expressions of members of the association already in the city the turnout will be larger than ever. There are now more than 800 alumni of the local high school.

Announcements are being sent out this week to alumni whose addresses are known by the committee, but those who do not receive one should nevertheless consider themselves invited, the festivities being open to all graduates and members of this year's senior class.

A snappy program of short talks and musical numbers has been arranged, following which the hours will be spent in dancing and other social diversions. Refreshments will be served. A brief business session will also be held.

Officers of the association this year are: Francis Burns, president; Stephen Arneson, vice president; Doris Richter, secretary and George Mostue, treasurer.

Man Deserts Wife and Three Children. Bound to Dist. Court but Can't Raise Bail

Helge Johnson, a former resident of this city and the vicinity of Grygla, was brought to this city Thursday by Sheriff O. L. Ihle, from Kerrick, Minn., and hailed into municipal court before Judge N. W. Tarrant on a charge of deserting his wife and three minor children. He was given a hearing Friday morning and bound over to the next term of district court. Judge Tarrant fixed the bonds at $500, which he has been unable to raise so far and is still an occupant of the county jail.

The complaint by Mrs. Anna Johnson states that her husband left on July 25, 1924, and has since failed to contribute to the support of the family. The three children are Cora, 6; Harold, 4 and Dorothy, 2 years old, who are kept at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Reisner at Shilling. Mrs. Johnson is employed at the Soo Cafe.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson came to this city in the fall of 1923 and Mr. Johnson was employed here for a couple of months. Since her husband's departure Mrs. Johnson has made her living doing washing and other work to sustain the family. Unable to maintain the home in this city she was obliged to break up housekeeping in August, according to her own statements. Since leaving this city Mr. Johnson is said to have been at Esplee and Grygla, and later at the home of his parents at Kerrick.

AUG. CARLSON FACES CHARGE OF HAVING MOONSHINE FOR SALE

Liquor Found in Home. Marshall County Warrant Charges Sales to Minors

August Carlson, local taxi driver, was brought before Judge Tarrant in municipal court Saturday afternoon charged with having liquor in his possession for sale illegally and after waiving preliminary examination was bound over to district court. He was released after furnishing bail of $500.

Carlson was arrested Friday night by Sheriff O. L. Ihle of this city and Deputy Sheriff J. P. Bordewich of Warren, while at a dance in Holt, where he was caught with liquor in his possession, according to officials. He was brought back to this city and lodged in the county jail until the hearing the next day. Sheriff Ihle armed with a search warrant on Saturday found a gallon of moonshine in Carlson's home on Duluth avenue south, hidden in the coal bin. The charge here is for the liquor found in his home.

Carlson also faces liquor charges in Marshall county, a warrant having been issued charging four sales of liquor to minors, partly in Marshall and partly in Pennington county, prior to the time the arrest was made, officials report. Bordewich is said to have carried the warrant at the time Carlson was nabbed at Holt. Carlson appeared before Marshall county authorities Monday but no definite action was taken, according to reports, action by the Pennington county authorities being awaited. Carlson admitted to officers here that he had been selling liquor since July.

Year Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Brekke Cremeated Fire Destroys Home

Marie Anna, the one-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Brekke of Plummer, was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the Brekke home Monday afternoon, Dec. 8. The two other children, the oldest of whom is four years old, were playing with fire and lighting papers which is thot to have caused the blaze while their mother was visiting a neighbor, Mrs. John Halvorson, across the street, according to reports. The fire started about three o'clock.

When the furnishings caught fire the four-year old girl dragged her brother out of the house and went to another neighbor, where she told about her little sister being asleep upstairs in the burning house. When rescuers came to the house the flames were so far advanced that the baby could not be reached and the building was soon a heap of ashes.

The funeral services were held last Thursday from the Lutheran church at Plummer. The entire community sympathizes with the bereaved family in their sorrow.

Two Pay Fines For Beating Up Goodridge Man Following Incident at a Recent Dance

Gilbert Gunderson and Aleck Grovum, residing in the vicinity of Grygla, appeared before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court Tuesday morning and plead guilty to having assaulted Julius Stephenson of Goodridge. Grovum was assessed a fine of $17 and Gunderson $12.

It seems that the two young men resented the action of Stephenson, who served as officer at a dance in Goodridge on Dec. 4, the latter having requested them to conform with certain regulations, according to testimony in court. To get even with Stephenson when they saw him on the streets in Goodridge the following Sunday, they attacked him and dealt him several blows. Upon the complaint of Mr. Stephenson the arrest was made by Sheriff O. L. Ihle on a charge of assault and battery.

Will Sing Christmas Carols

Christmas carols will be sung at the sanatorium, the poor house and the hospitals by members of the Woman's club chorus and other vocalists of the city on Sunday afternoon, Mrs. G. W. Booren, president announces. Anyone who is confined to the home and desires to hear them sing on Tuesday evening, is requested to notify Mrs. Booren.

Holiday Rush Starts This Week at Local Post Office

A tremendous increase in mail this week is reminding clerks in the Thief River Falls post office that Christmas is only a week away. An earlier increase in the volume of mail is noticeable this year, due to the public's response to the "Shop Early" and "Mail Early" campaign, which enables the postal department to handle the mail properly during the rush season.

"All employees of the post office will eat their Christmas dinners at their homes and the only way to be certain that Christmas parcels are delivered by Christmas is to mail them early," Postmaster Daniel Shaw says. Mail that is not delivered by Christmas noon will not be delivered until after Christmas. No deliveries will be made on Christmas Day except on star routes.

Patrons are urged to wrap and address packages carefully before mailing. Care should also be taken in putting on sufficient postage.

LEGION POST NAMES IMPORTANT '25 CONVENTION GROUPS

General Citizenry to Aid in Making Arrangements—McGinn Heads Finance

Four committees for the 1925 State Legion convention in this city were named at the meeting of the Elmer J. Eklund Post Friday night, the remaining committees, about 12 in number, to be selected later. The committees will consist of Legion members, citizens and members of the Legion Auxiliary.

F. E. McGinn of the Farmers & Merchants State bank is chairman of the general finance committee, the other members of whom are: Math Barzen, E. M. Bennes, Alfred Bredeson, H. S. Dahlen, R. L. Ericson, Herbert Fuller, F. F. Haynes, Fred Herrick, L. R. Johnston, Albert Lonson, O. C. Paulson, Dr. G. A. Penney, Theo. Quale, L. M. Rayson, O. R. Sande, P. J. Wedge, J. P Peterson of Grygla and Miles Jackson of St. Hilaire.

The publicity committee, headed by Attorney G. Howard Smith, consists of Dr. H. W. Froehlich, Mayor J. S. Arneson, Dreng B. Bjornaraa, H. W. Protzeller, Scott Laird and Theo. M. Thronson.

O. C. Paulson is chairman of the transportation committee of which the other members are: M. T. McFarland, W. W. Prichard, Jr., P. O. Myhrum and George Russell.

Those in charge of the tour to Winnipeg are Oscar R. Smith, chairman, Commander H. O. Chommie and Mayor J. S. Arneson.

An effort is being made by the post to have every detail of the convention well taken care of by competent and working committees.

Francis Burns was selected chairman of the committee in charge of showing the "Lost Battalion" film here under Legion auspices Dec. 27.

The membership campaign is going over with a great deal of pep and indications are that the 200 mark will be passed in 1925 enrollments. The four teams are working hard to lead in the race which closes Dec. 20, the two losing teams being obliged to entertain the winners at a "feed."

A strong membership is of particular importance at this time when preparations are being made for the state convention and it is hoped to enroll every ex-service man in the county into the ranks of the Eklund post. More than 60 memberships have already been turned in to the adjutant and additional ones are forthcoming every day.

LOCAL GUERNSEYS TO BE ADVERTISED THRUOUT COUNTRY

Editor of National Guernsey Journal Gets Data Concerning Lady Bruce

Pennington county Guernseys will be made known to breeders thruout the country as a result of a visit by F. Robinson of Petersboro, N. H., of the Guernsey Breeders' Journal, who was in the city last week to get a complete history and data of the F. B. Conklin dairy herd, particularly regarding Lady Bruce of Clovercrest, Minnesota's champion producer in her class.

Mr. Robinson is traveling thruout the country for the purpose of getting material for write-ups in his magazine, calling on the owners of all the leading dairy animals and herds. Having heard a great deal about Pennington Guernseys and particularly regarding Lady Bruce he made a special trip here to get the desired information and pictures. The article will appear in the March 1 or March 15 issue. He also visited the herds of Peter Engelstad, Albert Johnson, Stuart McLeod and Harry Woolson, and declared that he was very favorably impressed.

Teachers and Pupils Begin Two Week Christmas Recess

Tomorrow is the last day of school for 1924 and many teachers and students leave during the following day or two for their respective parental homes, and homes of friends, for their annual Christmas recess. The schools of this city, and many of the rural districts, will be closed for a two week period, opening again for another long period of study Monday, January 5.

TOTAL TAX RATE FOR CITY GIVEN INCREASE OF 5.1

Taxpayers in Thief River Falls Will Pay 114.6 Mills Compared to 109.5 Last Year

SCHOOL RATE UP 8.1 BUT CITY-STATE REDUCED

County's Assessed Valuation Falls Off $343,629—State Rate is Only 5.78 Mills

Taxpayers of Thief River Falls will pay a slightly higher rate the coming year than in effect the past year, the total rate on which 1924 taxes will be paid being 114.6 mills, compared to 109.5 last year and 109.8 mills in 1922, according to figures obtained in the county auditor's office. The total rate for the county has been placed at 13.82, an increase from 13.4 in 1923.

The increase in rate is due to the slump in valuation, the taxable property in Pennington county in 1924 being given an assessed valuation of $5,122,587, compared to $5,486,116, in 1923, a drop of $343,529, after the assessments had been raised according to the changes of the state tax commission. Personal property is valued $121,271 lower than in 1923 and real estate $242,255 lower.

The assessed valuation in Thief River Falls this year is $1,464,392, a drop of nearly $90,000 from the 1923 figure.

The state tax this year is 5.78 mills compared to 8 mills last year. It is divided as follows: State revenue, 4.5; state school, 1.23; teachers' insurance, .05.

The other rates are distributed as follows: County—revenue, 5; road and bridge, 5.8; bond and interest, .82; sanatorium, .1; sinking fund, 1.2; City—current, 20.5; auditorium, .7; sinking fund, .4; poor, 2.8; interest, .8; library, 2.1; hydrant, 1.4; paving, 4.1; improvement, .9; band, .5; state loan, .9; School—special, 45.6; state loan, 15.3; local one mill, 1.

The levy for city purposes is fixed at $49,000, city schools, $70,000 and for county purposes, $60,595.02. The county levy as fixed by the commissioners is distributed as follows: County revenue, $25,612.94; road and bridge, $29,711; bond and interest, $200; sanatorium, $5,122.58 and sinking fund, $6,147.10. The county revenue was slashed $8,000 and road and bridge fund $1,000 from last year's figures.

Rates in 12 out of the 21 townships in Pennington county have been reduced, which is indicated by the following figures:

"Girl of Today and To-Morrow" Topic of Dean M. Beatrice Olson Here

Members of the Womans and Girls Community clubs met jointly Monday night and listened to one of the most interesting and timely addresses they have been able to arrange for, when they gathered at the Legion hall and heard the talk on "The Girl of Today and Tomorrow" by M. Beatrice Olson, dean of women at University of North Dakota.

Dean Olson gave a finely balanced and well organized talk, taking into consideration things not ordinarily touched upon as concerning the present day girl and what she expected the girl of tomorrow should be, and would be if properly directed, in respect to dress, the use of cosmetics, their freedom of manner in the presence of the opposite sex and general conduct.

The speaker did not condem the present day girl, nor her modern conduct. She compared the present mode of dress with that of a decade or two back, or even more. She favored the modern dress designed for comfort as well as beauty in preference to the former "wasp" effect waist. She told the girls, and women as well, that while too low-necked party dress was not to be condemned, that it had a place and out of that place its use was a vulgarity. Clothes should be designed for beauty, whether a party dress or street suit, and if care was not used to avoid it, the high necked and long sleeved dress could be more suggestive than the party gown. "In all events, dress to suit the occasion, and wear becoming and well designed clothes that avoid suggestive appearances."

Cosmetics were touched briefly and in so doing she did not wish to be understood to discourage their use. However, she pointed out that there is a vulgarity in their misuse. "Use them artistically", she said, "for a woman has a right to make her self as beautiful as she can, but when beauty is destroyed by over use and misuse of cosmetics, vulgarity is the result."

"The present day girl is repeatedly reprimanded by the older generation for her freedom with the opposite sex, and unjustly so", was the opinion of the speaker. "That a girl hid behind the curtain with shyness when in the presence of others in the days gone by is no proof of virtue, nor is the fact that the modern girl can be at perfect ease with a gentleman in the presence of others any more proof that she is vulgar."

SEVEN POSITIONS IN ONE WEEK

The Union Commercial College, Grand Forks, No. Dak., sent seven students to positions the first week in Dec. These calls came in from such big concerns as the Moore Auto Co., N. Dak. Wheat Growers Asso., Remington Typewriter Co., G. A. Bangs, attorney, etc. Make your own services in demand by taking a business course at this ACCREDITED SCHOOL. The cost is very moderate. Many earn back the first month out of school the entire tuition cost. When you can do this the expense of acquiring this business training is pretty reasonable isn't it? Students of the U. C. C. are doing it month after month. New Term starts after the New Year. Send for free catalog and find out how you can become successful. 46tf

Ole and James Helle, students at the University of Minnesota, will arrive Sunday morning to spend the Christmas holidays with their parents at Erie and friends in this city.

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

Christmas is coming around again—that blessed day when all refresh themselves with the friendships they have made; Christmas, when the dross of life sinks and only the best in folks shines forth.

Charles Dickens said of Christmas time:

"I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come around, as a good time, a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time, the only time I know of in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely. And, therefore though it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it has done me good, and will do me good; and I say, God bless it."

And as it did Dickens good, it has done countless other millions of Christian lands good; it has brought out the best in men and women because it has aroused in their breasts a desire to serve.

For, after all, the happiest Christmas is the one that you make for someone else; for the little child whose faith in Santa Claus has never been shaken.

Of course, there are always some gumps who grumble about Christmas spirit because they do not realize that it comes from within; that it is the thing they give and not what they receive that makes Christmas.

Christmas and its joys are in the hands of little children and the grownup folks who bind their souls to that indefinable, mysterious something that lifts man above the beasts.

If you have caught the vision of Christmas—that giving, not getting, is the secret of true happiness, share some of your material prosperity with unfortunates who have not been blessed so richly as you.

Christmas can be made much more pleasant by shopping deliberately than by postponing the buying of gifts until the last few days before December 25.

Now the stocks are fresh and the assortments are large. But they will not remain that way long. Scores upon scores of shoppers have profited by the mistakes of other years and are buying early this year. They realize the folly of waiting until the choicest gifts have been purchased by wise shoppers.

If you have not prepared a gift list, don't put off doing it another day. Write down the names of those whom you expect to remember at Christmas time and jot down some suggestions. Then visit the stores of Thief River Falls where you will find a greater variety of gift things than is to be afforded the shoppers of trading centers much larger than this.

WEEKLY SERMON

(By J. O. Jacobsen, Pastor of the Scandinavian Ev. Free Church.)

"And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be fond of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever." 1 Chronicles 28, 9.

These were the words David spoke to his son Solomon, shortly before he died. It was words of importance, because Solomon was to be the King of Israel after his father's death. David knew from his own experience, that if his reign was to be successful, he must know the Lord and have fellowship with Him.

The question comes to us. How must we know the Lord Jesus?

First, We must know Him as our Saviour from sin. "But he was wounded for our transgression, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. "All we, like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all." Isaiah 53, 5-6.

Again, we must know Him as the way. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." John 13, 6.

He will lead us in the right way, out of darkness and bondage in to His marvelous light.

Again, We must know Him as the light. "Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying: "I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life."

As the sun is the light to the natural world, so Jesus is our spiritual light.

Many a man gets credit for being smart by just sitting still and listening.

"Alfalfa Day" Marks Epoch In Advancement of Farming Hundreds Attend Big Event

broke, laying the blame for such publicity to pessimists and designing politicians.

Mr. Wallace's address was concise and sensible and well received by the large audience.

T. O. Ofsthun, secretary of the Minnesota Rural Credits bureau, talked on farm credits and why the farmer who diversifies makes a better loan risk than the one-crop farmer. He advocated the organization of cow testing associations as the best means of raising production of cows and culling out the unprofitable ones, which was also pointed out by Mr. Wallace.

A. B. Lyman of Excelsior, grower of Grimm alfalfa seed, told the beginner in alfalfa culture how to prepare his ground, select his seed and care for the crop in its early stages. He stated that the soil in this locality has sufficient lime but advised inoculation as insurance against failure to catch properly.

Harry Funston, land commissioner of the Soo line, explained the railroad's part in community building. He showed that a farming community not only needs producers, distributors and consumers, but also transportation facilities to carry the surplus to points of demand.

A feature of both gatherings was the community singing led by Maude L. Johnson, musical director of the local schools, at which two alfalfa songs predominated. The Boys' and Girls' glee clubs of the high school also added to the occasion with their splendid singing.

The music by the city band, strengthened by a few Warren musicians, created a great deal of pep both at the afternoon and evening sessions. Thier snappy music put everyone in a happy mood.

"Alfalfa Hutch" Speaks

The principal speaker on the evening program was Charles R. Hutcheson of the Northwest Farmstead, who took an active part in the alfalfa campaign here a year ago, and was introduced to the audience by Dr. H. W. Froehlich, chairman, as "Alfalfa Hutch". Mr. Hutcheson showed his hearers that alfalfa is the one crop that fits most perfectly in the rotation of crops most essential for future prosperity of agriculture.

It was pointed out that a survey shows that Pennington county is in a lime belt and is particularly adapted for alfalfa—lime being essential for growing the crop successfully. "This fact is a great boost for this territory", he said. "Not a county in the state has as well balanced soil as Pennington," he continued, predicting that within 10 years the land in this section will sell for $200 an acre. Growing methods were also discussed.

Hans Anton, prominent farmer near the city, urged improving the livestock and advised farmers to study conditions so as to realize the most from their land. "Feed the alfalfa to your livestock", he said, which was also part of the theme of Dan Willard of the Great Northern railway, who spoke in a humorous vein. He told of how great deposits of lime were brought here by the Great Glacier from Manitoba and urged his hearers to keep up God's work by growing valuable soil building crops. "Support your home creamery; its the greatest wealth producing institution you have", he declared.

W. E. Sherlock, staff correspondent for the St. Paul Dispatch, was also among visiting newspapermen and gave lengthy writeups in the Dispatch and Pioneer Press on "Alfalfa Day".

Orders for about 35,000 pounds of certified Grimm Alfalfa seed have already been received and more are forthcoming this week. Some bankers are signing up as little as five pounds in order to get farmers started in growing the crop.

Claim of Local Man Disallowed

"Charley" Carlson, chef at the Soo cafe since last spring, returned Saturday from Fargo where he was plaintiff in a damage suit. Mat O'Neil, farmer living a few miles south of Fargo, defendant in the suit, was found not guilty of negligence in a collision in which his car struck Carlson shortly after he alighted from a street car in Moorhead, where he was formerly chef. The accident occurred in September, 1921. A jury in Cass county court last Thursday disallowed Carlson's claim for $10,000 damages which he sought to obtain from O'Neil. Carlson alleges his health had been seriously impaired since he was injured in the accident and claims that it was caused by negligence on the part of O'Neil. The case may be appealed to the supreme court.

Loading Beets at St. Hilaire

D. Robinson of Grand Forks, representative of the Minnesota Sugar company, was in the city Tuesday to confer with County Agent J. J. McCann, local field man, regarding the loading of the remaining beet crop in this district, a call having been issued that all beets must be shipped to the refinery this week. The Prichard Company was somewhat delayed by the cold weather and loading operations did not start at St. Hilaire until yesterday. With the shipping of 540 tons at that station the moving of the 1924 beet crop will have been completed in this community.

The annual meeting of the Minnesota State Dairymen's association, of which L. Jensen of Clearbrook is president, will be held in Wadena Jan. 20, 21 and 22, it was announced last week. An extensive program is being arranged.

Writes Check Without Funds and is Held to Dist. Court

Thomas Rogne, who has operated the Square Deal grocery store in this city the past year, faces a charge of issuing a check without funds, at the next term of district court, as a result of a hearing in municipal court before Judge N. W. Tarrant Friday, when he was bound over to the February term under $500 bonds. He was arrested by Sheriff O. L. Ihle and was an inmate of the county jail until Monday when he was able to furnish the required bonds.

The complaint was entered Nov. 28 by Iver Solheim, farmer east of the city, to whom Rogne had issued a check in the sum of $12.60 on the Farmers and Merchants State bank on Nov. 26 without having sufficient funds in the bank. The check was in payment of meat purchased from Solheim. Time was given for settlement but Rogne failing to fix up the matter was finally ordered arrested. A number of other worthless checks have been issued by Rogne and are now outstanding, according to officials.

The store on LaBree Avenue operated by Rogne was closed Thursday by the sheriff by the execution of a judgment secured by H. Rosenblatt & Son, a Duluth wholesale concern.

Fire Department out Twice.

The fire department was called out twice during the past week to assist in putting out small fires. Last Thursday a blaze started up in the back room of the Kleanall Tailor shop, which was extinguished with a few pails of water, and yesterday afternoon flames did slight damage to the barn owned by Andrew Dybvig on Atlantic avenue. The fire in the Dybvig barn was confined to the roof, and was caused by a stove in the adjoining chicken house.

PETER PAULSON DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Father of Alderman Paulson Passes After Few Days' Illness—Lived Here 23 Yrs.

Friends of Peter Paulson, a resident of this city and vicinity since 1901, were grieved Thursday to learn of his death following a few days' illness. Death was attributed to acute encephalitis, a disease of the brain. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Swedish Lutheran church, of which he was a member, and interment made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. Paulson was born in Sweden, May 20, 1852. Forty three years ago he came to this country and settled in Grant county, near Elbow Lake, where he operated a farm until 1901. He was married at Elbow Lake to Miss Hannah Bjerklund in 1891. From his farm there he moved to this city and for ten years was engaged in the dray and transfer business and as teamster at the saw mill. He resided at 120 Markley avenue south. He then bought a farm a half mile east of this city and built up a good home there. In 1919 he sold the place to Gust Kirby and moved back to this city, making his home at 124 Tindolph Avenue south.

Mr. Paulson has always been an energetic and hard worker and well thot of and respected by a large acquaintanceship. He has enjoyed good health practically all his life and the last few years, despite his age, has enjoyed fair health. He was taken ill a week ago Saturday and Monday night found it necessary to confine himself to his bed. Death came the following Thursday.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Alderman Oscar Paulson, and Alfred Paulson, both of whom are employed at the American Railway Express company.

Despite the cold weather Sunday, a large number of people attended the funeral Sunday afternoon at the Swedish Lutheran church, to pay the last respects to Mr. Paulson. The pall bearers were C. M. Wilson, K. A. Sundahl, Alfred Olson, John Fellman, Emil Johnson and J. Johnson.

Boys Must Attend School Is Order of Judge Tarrant

Mr. and Mrs. George Halvorson, residing on Knight avenue across from the high school building, were brought before Judge N. W. Tarrant in municipal court Saturday morning, charged with failure to keep their sons, Richard and Edwin, in school, the complaint being entered by Supt. I. T. Simley. The judge decided to hold the case open for 30 days with the understanding that the children be sent to school regularly. This was the first case of school law violation in the city this term.

Bazaar a Success

"Advertising made our bazaar a success," declare those in charge of the bazaar put on by the ladies of the Presbyterian church last Friday. The church was crowded all afternoon and it is estimated that about 250 persons were served supper. Practically every article placed on sale was disposed of and the event is declared the best ever. Much credit is due to the effective work of the various committees.

Mrs. Alexander Resigns From Teaching Post. Miss Lindgren Appointed as Her Successor

A regular meeting of the school board of District No. 18 was held Monday, Dec. 8. Selmer Gangness was awarded the contract for hauling wood and Ole Winson was the successful bidder for sawing. It was decided to open bids for coal and wood supply some time in January. The Tribune was designated for the publication of school board proceedings during the coming year.

The board approved upon recommendation of the superintendent, the appointment of Miss Anna Lindgren of St. Paul to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Theresa Alexander, Fifth and Sixth grade instructor in the Northrop school. Miss Lindgren was a member of last year's teaching staff in this city. Mrs. Alexander, who will not be back on the job after the holidays, was obliged to resign for personal reasons. Her departure is regretted by parents of children in her classes as she is held in high esteem as instructor.

Reports from the various departments were received and routine matters attended to.

Many at Luncheon

Alfalfa boquets were on hand and alfalfa cigars were furnished by the Pennington County Auto club. A large number of farmers were present, the luncheon being one of the best club gatherings ever held.

Roseau Man Kills Mill City Realtor When Refused Money

A Roseau county farmer, Henry P. Emrich, 46, was the principal in a terrible crime Wednesday of last week when he shot and killed Harry T. Daniels, head of the Northwestern Mortgage company in his Minneapolis office. The shooting was done during the rush hour as hundreds were leaving their offices and Emrich was apprehended as he was descending the stairs. NO "PROGRESS"

Due to there being no school during the next two weeks, and as a consequence there will be no material for the "Progress" the high school paper will not make its appearance in the pages of The Times for the next two weeks, but will be published again after the holidays.

CHEER

At no other time in the year is there so much good will and friendship shown by the people as there is during the Christmas and New Year season. This good cheer seems to be an essence of that reason itself and if it were not for that essence then there would not be such a thing as "the holidays." At this time of the year all the people who can are going back to their old homes to visit their parents or relatives, and they are bringing with them presents for everybody at home. Their relatives will also express their good will by giving each other presents as a symbol of their good will. Perhaps all cannot give gifts, but they can express the feeling of the season with cheerful words as they pass each other by on the street.

Students Honor Alfalfa

Last Thursday, Alfalfa Day, the entire body of high school students were dismissed from school to attend the exercises in the Auditorium at two o'clock. The entire balcony was reserved for the students and they filled it to its capacity.

ALUMNI AGAIN DEFEATED BY LINCOLN

High School Behind in First Half, But Comes Back and Wins 11 to 13

Fighting an up hill battle, the Lincoln high school basket ball team was victorious over the Alumni by the close score of 11-12.

The high school was behind in the scoring during the greater part of the game but in the last part they climbed up steadily and went over their opponents lead. Both of the teams played a far better game than they did in the first encounter when the high school was also victorious. The Lincolnite's defense showed up far better than in the game with Middle River and the thermometer predicting a fine basketball team has risen greatly after the game with Alumni. The backers of the high school can feel assured that their team will give a very good account of themselves in the conference games which will begin December 19, when they meet Warren on the local's floor. This game will no doubt be one of the best of the season.

DECLAMATORY WINNERS

The winners of the elimination declamatory contest which was held at the high school last Tuesday, are as follows: Ruth Mellby, Rita Fiterman, Maxine Johnson, Ruby Aaseby, Gladys Weeks, Lylian Arnold, Dorothy Swedenburg and Esther Bennes. The Misses Agnes Sands, Anne Tharaldson, and Linna Borchert acted as judges. There will be a final oratorical and declamatory contest after Christmas. The order in which the contestants will speak has not yet been announced.

Prowler Staff Elects

Due to the resignation of two members of the "Prowler" staff, a meeting was caled last Wednesday evening for the purpose of electing two members to fill the vacant places on the staff. Esther Bennes was chosen to be assistant literary editor, while Bernice Erickson was advanced to literary editor. Maurice Holzknecht was selected to be business manager. These three people are very well qualified for their positions and they will no doubt, carry out their work in a most commendable manner.

H. S. Debaters Leave For Ada to Argue Tonight

This morning the high school debate team left via bus for Ada, where at 7:30 p. m., they will uphold the honor of Lincoln High as well as the affirmative on the League of Nations question. It is rumored that Ada's debaters are unusually good speakers, but because of the hard work, the known ability, and the good coaching the local debaters have received, they should make a good showing.

The question to be debated is one of wide-spread interest, with the arguments on both sides very convincing. With such a good question it is certain to be a lively and interesting one.

Look me over! Don't crowd, please, I admit, I'm the "Berries" but please don't crowd. I am the bird you read about in advertisements. I am one out of the five who doesn't have pyorrhea. My teeth glisten. You see I use only Colgates. I have that "skin you love to touch" thanks to Pompeian. My hat is made by Gordon; shoes by "Florsheim", and suit by "Hart, Schaffner & Marx" and I use only "Arrow Colars." I use Ivory because "it floats," Postum because "There's a Reason," and smoke Chesterfields because "They Satisfy." For colds, I use and endorse Smith Brothers. My glistening hair was educated by "Hair Groom" and I use only "Mennens" for shaving.

I gained my education at the International Correspondence Schools and made my millions selling subscriptions to the "Saturday Evening Post." I gained my charming manners from the famous book of "Etiquette" and I learned to dance by Arthur Murray's dancing lessons. I originated cross word puzzles and have read all of Dr. Elliot's shelf of books. I drive a Chevrolet because it's economical transportation and use Goodyear's because they are "Best in the Long Run." I gained my wonderful development by taking "Lionel Strongforts" lessons and by eating Fleichmann's Yeast. I sure am a wonderful guy but I have my troubles. My wife was killed in a car accident because she didn't have "Weed Chains" and I can't get another because I have "Halitosis."

Yours truly,

3158 SEALS SOLD

The special attraction last week was the selling of the Red Cross Christmas Seals. Miss Minnie S. Leavitt supervised the selling during the entire week, and each class in the school had a chance to sell some seals. The freshmen were the salesmen Monday, the sophomores Tuesday, the Juniors Thursday. The sale closed Friday morning. The goal was not reached, which was to sell 5,000 seals. The total number sold was 3158.

Several of the stores in the city have seals for sale where those who wish to buy them may do so.

Juniors to Stage Play "Arrival of Kitty" at Auditorium January 30

"The Arrival of Kitty" a three act farce, will be the play given by the Junior Class on January 30.

It has long been the custom of the junior class to stage a play for the purpose of making money to finance the Junior-Senior banquet.

The Junior play and the cast were selected by Miss Doreen Finegan, Miss Mildred Thompson and Principal Morris Bye. The leading characters in the play are Mary Alexander and Henry Arneson. Following is the list of the other characters: Leigh Anderson, Charles Booren, Lylian Johnston, Millard Myrin, Ward Mathewson, Maverette Hilson and Dorothy Swedenburg.

Other amateur plays staged in the city have been attended by a capacity crowd, and there ought to be a large audience to witness "The Arrival of Kitty."

SCOOP

It was the day before Christmas in the office of a large city newspaper. The great presses throbbed and groaned in their efforts to "get out" the paper before midnight. In the front office silence reigned except for the clicking of typewriters and the jangling of the telephone. Through the doors, however, came the sounds of the editor calling instructions, several men proof reading, and of some one whistling.

The special reporter, Jerry, was "blue." Yes, indeed, "blue" was the only name for it. Here he was, a hundred miles from home, no money, and an even chance of losing his job.

He had, to be sure, lost that murder story, but it wasn't all his fault. How was he to know that the train would be snowed in and he wouldn't make his connections. But the city editor couldn't see it that way. He had kindly informed Jerry that he was paid good money to make those connections and that he had wonderful prospects of being minus his job before the end of the year.

He lounged, moping by the city editor's desk, answering telephone calls, and acting as office boy generally.

That telephone again! Answering it he heard a voice saying, "Scoop story, address, 308 Fourth Street, Dick." Then the voice ceased. Jerry slipped into his overcoat and snatching up his cap, pencil, and notebook started out the door, first leaving a short note explaining his absence on the desk.

Outside a fierce storm was raging, the snow driving down the wind swept street momentarily blinding him as he left the office. At last after a breath-taking fight through the drifts he reached the address.

The gloomy, forbidding look of the house gave it the appearance of a prison. Ringing the bell he paused a moment and hearing no sound within, he opened the door and walked slowly into a huge hall with a musty odor. At the end of the hall rose an old fashioned staircase covered with a motheaten carpet. Seeing no door he ran up the stairs at the top of which he found a man bound and gagged whom he recognized as "Slippery Pete." Removing the gag he at once questioned him and received as an answer the story that he had been double-crossed by his companions and he had been left to the mercies of Dick Hamilton a fellow reporter on the "Journal." Hamilton followed the rest of the gang after having secured him there and called up the office.

It was a "scoop" story and a good one. It would cover about three columns and might regain his lost job. The principal of the affair was a wealthy politician who had long been suspected of under hand deals. He had met "Slippery Pete" in this house, quarreled with him, and then left the place with Dick trailing him.

Jerry unbound him and escorted him to the office where he was forced to make a signed confession.

Jerry walking to the train the next day thought of his mother who he would see in a few hours, of his new position at the "Journal" office and last of all his Christmas gift of a hundred dollars from the boss safe in his pocket that would buy his mother the nicest silk dress in town.

Their Christmas Gift

It was Christmas Eve and a hush was spread over the city of Albany. Inside the Belding home a small Christmas tree stood in one corner of the neat little room, and in another corner a fire crackled and burned in the fireplace. Suddenly the silence was broken by footsteps coming down the stairs.

"Merry Christmas mother!" explained Bonny as she ran joyfully down the steps; but suddenly she stopped short as she looked into her mother's tearful blue eyes, "Why mother how pale you look. What has happened?"

The slender little figure edged slowly towards her mother. She was a girl of twelve, her real name was Boncile but she was called Bonnie by all. Her mother did not raise her head and smile into the face of her child. No, a mystery had come into her life and fear with it, therefore she remained silent.

Bonnie saw a slip of paper in her hand and slowly drew it out. A letter was written on it in a strange hand, yet there seemed something familiar about the writing. Hurriedly she read:

New York, N. Y.
Dec. 22, 1918.

My dear Mrs. Belding:

On Christmas Eve, Dec. 24, meet the 8:30 train with Bonny. It will be necessary for you to do this to have a happy Christmas Day. Remember! At 8:30, December 24 at the Union Depot.

Sincerely,

Who had sent it? From where did it come? Bonny could not interpret the mystery, but one thing was clear and that was that something had to be done immediately. She pulled down her cap over her golden locks and wrapped her cloak around her. Carefully she folded up the letter and slipped it into her pocket and then rushed out of the door.

Outside the moon was shining brightly and the stars in the sky looked peacefully down upon her. Flakes of snow were slowly descending from the blue heavens above, altogether a perfect Christmas Eve, and she felt somehow that God was closer to earth now than ever before. Bonny remembered the mysterious disappearance of her father two years ago on a night exactly like this one and a thought flashed through her mind. It was now eight-twenty and there were six blocks between her and the depot. But her mother! She recalled the scene when she came down the steps. But alas! Here she stood. She ran again into the house. Her mother put on her wraps and soon they were on their way to the depot.

Exactly at eight-thirty the train from the south arrived. The last one off was a calm-looking man. He carried himself erect with look of inquiry and mildness in his eye. Bonny seemed to recognize the calm, loving face. The man came towards them and Mrs. Belding ran up to him exclaiming, "My husband." Immediately father, mother and children were at last in kind embrace.

That evening was one of joy and thanksgiving to God for the gift he had given to them. But especially praise was given to Him who had come to earth on Christmas Day and as her father's voice again read the gospel from the worn family Bible, the Christmas Spirit once more reigned in the Belding home.

IT HAS LASTED

Thief River Falls People Must Believe Such Convincing Testimony as Mr. Krogstad's.

No one in Thief River Falls who suffers backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains or distressing urinary ills can afford to ignore this twice-told story of a Thief River Falls resident. It is confirmed testimony, telling of lasting benefit from Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. It's evidence that no man or woman in Thief River Falls can doubt.

E. L. Krogstad, railroad brakeman, 523 State Ave., N. says: "Every morning I woke up with a terrible pain through my kidneys and my back became weak and lame. It hurt me to stoop or bend and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills fixed me up in good shape."

THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Krogstad added: "The cure I received by using Doan's Pills has been permanent."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills — the same that Mr. Krogstad had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

An Outstanding Service

The development of the Cracking Process by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is one of the outstanding achievements in the progress of the petroleum industry.

The history of cracking, as a commercial development, is written large in the annals of this organization.

It is impossible to calculate the good which—directly or indirectly—has come from the development of this scientific process for increasing the world's supply of gasoline.

Without it the great automotive industry, which has influenced to so striking a degree the every-day life of the people of this country, never could have attained its present gigantic proportions.

In 1913, American refineries produced about 1,000,000,000 gallons of gasoline, which constituted about 12½% of the crude oil run in refinery stills.

In 1923, American refineries produced about 7,500,000,000 gallons of gasoline, which constituted about 30% of the crude oil run in refinery stills. A substantial part of this increase was made possible by the Cracking Process.

The Burton Process, developed in the laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), is acknowledged to be the first commercial process available and, while others have developed processes to achieve similar results, the greater part of the gasoline made by the Cracking Process comes from Burton stills.

While developing the Burton process, for increasing the production of gasoline from a given quantity of crude oil, is an outstanding service, it is but one of the many services rendered by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to keep the supply of gasoline sufficient to meet the demands of the motoring public.

Poultry Co-op Ships Five Carloads For Xmas Market Dress 550 Turkeys Daily

A crew of a dozen pickers were busy preparing turkeys for the Christmas market at the headquarters of the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry association here last week, up to 550 turkeys being dressed daily. Heavy receipts were reported up to Monday, the last day for receiving birds for the Christmas trade. Poultry is now being received for New Years and no shipments of live poultry are being made, a few pickers being retained to dress the smaller quantities which are being received now.

This association will handle at least 85,000 pounds for the holiday market. Two carloads of dressed turkeys were shipped last week and two more this week. A car of live poultry was also shipped last week.

The birds are in much better condition now than they were for the Thanksgiving trade, according to Mr. Norby, and indications for a favorable market are promising at this time.

Egg receipts are increasing this week, officials of the local association report.

U. C. T. Give Third Annual Children's Christmas Party

Children of U. C. T. members will frolic together at their third annual Christmas party Saturday afternoon when their mothers gather with them at the regular meeting place at the Masonic hall. A program of a Christmas character will be given, beginning at two o'clock after which the younger generation will enjoy themselves at games, followed by a Christmas dinner. The parents will banquet directly after the children, after which the children will be taken home and the "old folks" will return for a social time.

These parties have become annual Christmas events with the U. C. T.'s, who have found it convenient to celebrate the great holiday season with the children, instead of leaving them out of their lodge entertainments.

Aldermen Receive Monthly Reports at Meeting Dec. 9

A brief session of the city council was held Tuesday of last week, the proceedings of which appear elsewhere in this issue. The last meeting of the year will be held Dec. 23.

The monthly reports were received and ordered filed. The November report of City Dairy Inspector L. R. Twete shows that he had examined 31 samples of milk of which three were found illegal, while two out of the 11 samples of cream were not up to the required butterfat percentage. The sediment test showed 27 clean and four fair, none being poor or dirty. All city dairies were approved as being over the required 3.25 per cent butterfat contents in the milk. All dairies have been looked over and examined for physical conditions and the animals tuberculin tested. All were approved except two, which will be checked or stopped, the report states.

The monthly report of the library for last month indicated 730 juvenile fiction books loaned, and 475 non-fiction. Adult fiction books totaled 782 while non-fiction for adults is given as 283, a total altogether of 2270, or an increase of more than 200 books over the previous month. The reading room attendance was estimated at 4090, while the report also indicated 12 new adult and 15 new juvenile patrons.

The report of the city clerk showed a balance of funds on Dec. 1 of $3,451.84, the lowest for some time. The balance the first of the previous month was $6,967.85, there having been receipts of $4,960.17 and disbursements of $8,476.18. The light department indicated earnings of $5,351.25, an increase of more than $1,000 over October.

Municipal Judge N. W. Tarrant reported collections of $71.20 during the month and Chief of Police A. D. Ralston reported five arrests during October and only three in November. Two of the November arrests were for drunkenness, namely J. S. McGueth and Chas. Smith, each of whom were fined $10.

Large Portion of Turkeys Handled by State Exchange Shipped from This Section

Out of the 150,000 pounds of dressed turkeys handled by the Minnesota Co-operative Egg and Poultry Exchange during November, one-third came from the Thief River Valley association with headquarters in this city, according to B. O. Norby, manager of the local association, who returned Monday from Minneapolis where he conferred with officials of the state exchange. Shipments are received from 12 district organizations. This section is known as the turkey section of Minnesota and the state exchange is enthusiastic over the tremendous volume handled here from the outset. A total of 700,000 pounds of poultry was shipped by the state exchange in November.

Mr. Reederick, foreman for the De-Sota Creamery and Produce company, the past 15 years, has been secured to take charge of the inspection of eggs and poultry for the state exchange.

Many View New Creamery Now Nearing Completion

Out-of-town visitors at the "Alfalfa Day" celebration here last week were loud in their praise of the new creamery now nearing completion. Visitors were shown around in the new plant during the entire day.

The building will be ready for occupation some time in January, according to present indications, the opening to be celebrated by fitting exercises. Contractor Norby and his men are now laying the surface floor and doing other finishing work. The plumbing is being done by Ed. Lee, who installed the heating plant last week.

Heavy Holiday Shipments

Beginning Wednesday of last week and continuing thru this week poultry shipments transferred and loaded at the local express office average about 80,000 pounds daily. Direct cars are loaded to Minneapolis and Chicago.

On the Right Track

You have been told that the majority of disease is caused by nerve pressure. When this pressure is relieved by Chiropractic Adjustments, given with the bare hands alone, the vital force flows uninterruptedly to the various organs, which then function normally. The new instrument, the Neurocalometer shows exactly where this interruption to transmission is located, and when the adjustment is given it not only registers a considerable reduction, in some cases zero—positive proof that the pressure has been relieved. You then know that your chiropractor is on the right track.

REGULATION OF BUSSES-TRUCKS URGED BY CLUB

Sentiment at Commercial Club Favors Taxation and Regulation of Bus Lines

PROPOSED BILL IS PRESENTED TO CLUB

Quale and Chommie Discuss Child Labor Amendment. Proposal Misunderstood

Commercial club members in attendance at the luncheon last Thursday discussed two important questions which are slated to come up before the next session of the legislature which convenes in January—namely, what is known as the Child Labor Amendment and a measure to regulate the bus and truck transportation on the public highways.

There was unanimous sentiment in favor of bus line regulation and a motion was passed naming W. A. Barnard, Math Barzen, Theo. Quale and the heads of the local railroad men's unions as a committee to draft a suitable resolution for passage by the club at the next meeting.

Mr. Barnard, superintendent of the local division of the Soo Line, presented to the club a brief abstract of a proposed bill, which carries the endorsement of the four train and engine service organizations of all the roads operating in Minnesota.

This bill requires trucks and busses to obtain a certificate of necessity from the railroad and warehouse commission before they are permitted on the public highways. The commission has power to regulate the rates charged, the schedule and the safety of operation, including stops at railroad crossings and rate of speed, subjecting transportation on highways to the same rules and regulations required of the railroads.

The proposed measure prohibits duplication of transportation service between the railroads and the highways of the state, declaring that railroad transportation service, local freight and passenger, is essential and must be preserved.

The public must be protected by a bond or insurance policy in an amount fixed by the railroad and warehouse commission.

It does not attempt to impose taxes or cost of upkeep upon the busses and trucks nor does it attempt to regulate weight of machines to be used. It provides that bus lines shall furnish adequate waiting rooms at villages and cities along the route.

It was pointed out that acts somewhat similar to this have been adopted in more than 30 states in the union.

Busses and trucks pay no adequate tax to the state for use of a highway furnished free, club members were told, the communication read by Mr. Barnard stating that a separate bill will be introduced imposing a gross earnings tax upon bus and truck companies for the purpose of compelling them to pay their fair share to the upkeep of the highways of the state, calling attention to the damage done by heavy trucks and busses to the roads. "The railroad companies pay 5 cents on every dollar taken in to the state as a gross earnings tax", the statement continued. "The state does not furnish roadbed or rails on which the trains are operated. It has been estimated that a 25 per cent gross earnings tax would be fair."

"We can not afford to build up two systems of transportation," Marius Waldal of Plummer, representative from this district, told his hearers during the discussion. "A heavy tax must be imposed on trucks and busses to reimburse the state for the use of the roads." He stated that as a member of the motor vehicle and motor

L. LETNES AWARDED TROPHY AT SCHOOL

Pennington County Youth Leads In Home Project Work at Northwest Ag. School

Honors again come to Lawrence Letnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jens Letnes residing near the city, who has been awarded a silver cup for the highest score among the boys in home projects, at the Northwest School of Agriculture, Crookston. This is his second year at the farm school. Lawrence had an acre plot of alfalfa, seeded last summer, and one and ½ acre Irish Cobbler potatoes. In his report he showed that the potato plot where the seed had been treated yielded 200 bushels an acre while on the part where the seed was not treated with formaldehyde the yield was only 156 bushels an acre. He states that the ground for alfalfa was inoculated and is getting a good stand. Lawrence arrived Friday to spend the holiday vacation at his home. The school opens again on Jan. 5.

Elmer Miller of Erie was among those who received football letters, honorable mention being given Oliver Howard of Highlanding. They are also home for their vacations. Other Pennington county youths who are students at the Aggie school are: Arnold Aakre, Ralph Erickson, Myrtle Erickson and Theresa Aakre, Goodridge; Sophie Brelland, Hazel; Gunda Gullingsrud, Kratka; Mathilda Kotrba, Alice Parnow and Odella Johnsrud, Erie; Emma Satre, St. Hilaire; Alfred Dybvig and Einar Hornseth, Thief River Falls.

TIMES PRINTED DAY EARLY

As Christmas Day comes on the Times press day, this issue is printed on Wednesday, to allow the force to properly observe the occasion.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ALSO HAS HOLIDAY VACATION

There are no meetings of the Commercial club this week or next owing to the fact that both Thursdays fall on a holiday, Christmas and New Year's Day. Activities will be resumed again after the holidays and the next regular luncheon held on January 8, according to announcement by Dr. H. W. Froehlich, president of the club. The club has enjoyed a most active period during the past year and after a little "vacation" and an increased membership an equally if not more effective program of activities will be carried on during the ensuing year.

ALUMNI REUNION TO BE LIVELY AFFAIR MANY WILL ATTEND

Large Number of T. R. F. High School Grads in City For Reunion Friday Night

With a large number of Lincoln high school graduates in the city during the holiday period, every indication points to a well attended reunion of the alumni association at the Sons of Norway hall Friday night, Dec. 26. Last year about 100 of the 800 graduates of the school attended the affair and this year it is expected that the attendance will be increased. Expressions from alumni in the city indicate that each class since 1901 will be well represented.

A large number of Lincoln graduates reside in the country surrounding Thief River Falls and many of them are expected to be in the city to meet classmates and former school friends to talk over the "good old school days."

"Do you remember when"— etc., etc., will be heard on every hand when members of the various classes meet to exchange reminiscenses.

A large number of graduates who are attending universities and colleges, teaching or otherwise employed elsewhere, have been coming into the city the past week to enjoy Christmas vacation at their parental homes and with friends.

Announcements were sent out last week to members of the association whose addresses are known by the committee, but graduates who do not receive an announcement should nevertheless consider themselves invited as every graduate is eligible to attend. Graduates who are married may bring "their other half" even not members of the association.

A short but interesting program of talks, singing and music has been arranged and but for a brief business session the time will be taken up in social diversions, chiefly dancing. Excellent music has been provided for the occasion. A lunch will be served during the evening.

Officers of the association this year are Francis Burns, president; Stephen Arneson, vice president; Doris Richter, secretary and George Mostue, treasurer. Alumni are requested to return the card indicating whether or not they intend to attend the reunion at once.

In addition to the alumni there will also be a better representation of the senior class than has been the case in former years, about 20 having announced their intentions of being present.

SIEMS' HOME DESTROYED BY FIRE

Flames of Unknown Origin Claim Residence of Mr. and Mrs. Siems Friday

The house occupied by Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Siems, north of the fair grounds, owned by Mrs. E. Phelps of Stevens Point, Wis., was completely destroyed Friday afternoon when fire of unknown origin broke out on the second floor. Mrs. Siems and their baby were home at the time but the fire was not noticed until it had gained considerable headway.

The fire department was unable to effect any battle against the flames there being no water hydrants in that vicinity. The furniture on the first floor was saved but nothing from the second floor or basement. No insurance was carried.

Mr. and Mrs. Siems and baby have been residents of the house since this spring. They are now making their home with his mother, Mrs. H. Siems, residing near there. Mrs. Phelps, owner of the building which was destroyed, was until two years ago a resident of this city.

Norse Lodges Plan Holiday Festivals During Next Week

The Sons and Daughters of Norway lodges here will observe the holiday season with two events during the coming week.

On Sunday afternoon, Dec. 28, at three o'clock the children will be entertained at a Christmas tree festival at the hall at which a brief program will be given and gifts and goodies distributed among the youngsters.

A banquet for lodge members and their families has been arranged for on Tuesday, Dec. 30, the last social event of the year. This promises to be an interesting affair and a committee is preparing a short program for the occasion. Tickets are being sold in advance by a committee and indications are that it will be well attended.

Many New Books For Children

Legion Membership Drive Extended Until January 9. Many Are Being Signed Up

"Every ex-service man in Thief River Falls and tributary territory shall become a member of the Elmer J. Eklund Post for 1925," is the call issued by Commander H. O. Chommie to the four teams in the membership drive which is now bringing a number of new members into the ranks of the local unit.

In order to give all members of the four competing groups ample opportunity to do their utmost in getting 1925 members signed up the closing date for the drive has been postponed from Dec. 26 to Jan. 9, when the next regular meeting will be held. The number enrolled so far is not available at this time but indications are that the post will exceed its 1924 list by a considerable margin.

INGEBORG NYSTUL REPORTED SAFE AT MISSION STATION

Daughter of O. A. Nystul, Goodridge, Missionary in China, Flees From Bandits

Miss Ingeborg Nystul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Nystul of Goodridge, missionary in China who was reported captured by bandits about a month ago, is now said to have reached Fuchow in the province of Honan where she is quartered together with a number of other missionary fugitives in Harlequist school. When bandits looted the missionary posts in the western part of Honan foreigners had to flee with only what they wore.

Miss Nystul and Miss Elizabeth Berglund of Hopkins, formerly a teacher in the Minneapolis schools, were alone at the outpost of Juchow when it was raided November 27 and their fate was unknown for several days, according to press reports. Miss Nystul was later reported safe with friends at Kaithsien and Miss Berglund was reported safe at Fuchow. They evidently had returned to Juchow, believing the danger over.

Miss Nystul has served 16 years in sion fields of China for 16 years under the auspices of the Augustana Synod. She has visited with her parents east of this city while on furloughs and is known to a number of local people. A sister, Miss Anna Nystul, is employed in the Goodridge State bank.

W. A. Bishop Again Becomes Defendant in Personal Damage Suit Following Quarrel

Suit for assault and battery, asking damages of $1,000, has been started by August Carlson, local taxi driver, against W. A. Bishop, proprietor of the Dairy Lunch, for injuries alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff when Mr. Bishop struck Mr. Carlson over the head with a flash light while awaiting passengers at the Soo Line depot.

Papers were served recently by Sheriff O. L. Ihle, but as yet no answer has been returned by the defendant. The matter will likely come before the next term of district court.

The complainant alleges that Mr. Bishop took the flashlight which he dropped and struck him over the head. A number of persons witnessed the quarrel and will likely be heard in testimony at district court. Carlson also asks $5 for doctors fees and $2.75 for the broken flashlight.

Two years ago Mr. Carlson brot suit against Mr. Bishop for assault and battery, asking $7,500 damages, settlement being made out of court for about $500.

Attorney G. Halvorson of this city will represent the plaintiff and S. W. Murphy of Wheaton will represent the defendant.

Viking Soldier Tells About Thrills in 'Lost Battalion'

ALFRED SIMONSON

Three helmeted Germans, who walked up to him within a few feet from where he was crouching, his heart beating so violently that he feared that they would hear it, furnished the greatest "thrill" that Alfred Simonson, a member of the famous "Lost Battalion" in the Argonne forest in France, was accorded the week his outfit was lost.

Mr. Simonson, who is a son of Tom Simonson of Viking and a member of the Warren post of the American Legion, is believed to be the only soldier in this section who belonged to that outfit. His experiences as told recently in the Warren Sheaf are of interest in connection with the showing of "The Lost Battalion", the film which will be presented here under auspices of the Elmer J. Eklund post Saturday afternoon and evening this week. The film is based on the actual experiences of the battalion during October, 1918.

Mr. Simonson was on a message post on the night of his encounter with the Germans, according to his story in The Sheaf.

A fellow solider went to the neighboring post with a message. He never came back and Simonson went out to investigate. When he heard voices he thought it might be the sentinel coming back but he instinctly kept silent.

The first intimation that they were Germans came when one of them lit a piece of paper. This was against army orders and Simonson was at the point of calling him on it but was unable to find his voice. A moment later the outlines of a German helmet became visible and it was at this point that Simonson's heart started on its mad gallop. After a moment of reflection he decided to keep quiet. He knew that he could not hope to kill all three of them single handed. So he waited until morning and then wormed his way out and back to the signal company of Americans where he informed the commanding officer of his discovery. A group of Americans were then led back by Simonson to the place where he thought the Germans were. They were greeted by a hail of bullets but dodged behind the massive trees of the Argonne.. The skirmish lasted until one of the Americans saw the outlines of a German helmet and then several hand grenades ended the engagement.

"We did not find enough remains of the Germans to tell what had happened", Simonson explained.

Simonson left Viking May 27, 1918, for Camp Lewis, Washington, in company with a Marshall county draft contingent. On Aug. 9 after having trained in Camp Lewis and Camp Kearney in California, he went overseas.

The outfit, the 158th infantry of the 40th division, landed in Cherbourg, France, and proceeded towards the front by train. They were billeted at Nerrondes, where part of the outfit was selected as replacement units, Simonson being one of the soldiers chosen.

Then started the final trip to the front. A train on which the soldiers were riding was wrecked and they set out on foot, hiking seven nights and stopping in the day time for sleep.

Details of the battalion's experience are given in the picture, which will be shown at the Lyceum. Mr. Simonson was wounded and sent back to a hospital after the battalion was rescued and was just getting back to the front when the Armistice was signed.

Simonson was an interested spectator at the showing of the film at Warren a short time ago.

A feature of the performance here will be a soldier's song by Herbert Hanson, member of the local Legion post, who will appear at intermissions. The song has 53 verses and is of his own composition. Those who have heard it declare it a "hit."

LANE INJURED IN FALL FROM COASTING BOX CAR TUES.

Local Conductor, Acting Brakeman, Suffers Broken Arm and Internal Injuries

Ira G. Lane, 55, well known resident of Thief River Falls, suffered a broken arm and severe internal injuries Tuesday noon when he fell from a moving box car at the yards at Ardock, N. D., while transferring some cars on freight train 58, bound for this city. He did not lose consciousness but was rushed to a hospital at Warren immediately.

Mr. Lane, conductor, was working as brakeman and at the time of the accident was transferring a few cars at the yards at Ardock. He mounted the coasting box car at one end and was walking to the other end to apply the brakes, when it is believed, he tripped on a nail and fell to the ground, breaking one arm and suffering severe internal injuries. He was picked up by the crew and immediately taken to the hospital by Engineer D. C. Hanson. The fracture is a minor matter, however, the internal injuries being of a nature that it may be some time before he will be able to be about.

"It is the best advertising ever given this community and everywhere it is being talked about," Mr. Bjornaraa declares. "The stories of what is being done in agricultural lines here are reaching residents of other Minnesota communities, many of them less fortunate than those in Pennington county, and the effect will be far-reaching in bringing new settlers to this section."

Facing a severe storm and 20 below zero weather all the mail carriers on the city and rural routes made their regular trips Monday, distributing the large volume of Christmas mail. The past week has been an unusually busy one at the local post office, according to members of the force, a record amount of holiday packages and other mail being handled. In spite of the tremendous increase in business the mail is being distributed promptly and to everyone's satisfaction.

The windows in the post office will be open from 11 to 12 on Christmas Day. No mail will be distributed that day after the noon Great Northern mail is handled.

DECISION REVERSED BY SUPREME COURT

New Trial Ordered in Singer Vs Farmers State Bank of Goodridge Case

A reversal in the decision of the Stephen Singer vs. Farmers State bank of Goodridge case, which was decided in favor of the plaintiff in district court here last June, was ordered Friday by Chief Justice Wilson of the state supreme court. Attorney J. M. Bishop of this city represented the Goodridge bank, the victors of the supreme court decision.

Judge Wilson's opinion follows: John Eidelbes was the owner of the chattels. He gave a chattel mortgage to Joe Eidelbes which was promptly filed for record in the proper office. The mortgagor remained in possession and later employed the defendant to conduct for him a public sale of the chattels. The sale was had. Defendant collected the proceeds of the sale and applied the proceeds upon a note which it held against John Eidelbes. The mortgagor and mortgagee were brothers. The mortgagee assigned his cause of action against defendant to plaintiff. The case was tried to the court without a jury. Defendant has appealed from the judgment entered in favor of the plaintiff. Defendant was a creditor of the mortgagor.

Under Section 6966 G. S. 1913 a chattel mortgage, where the mortgagor remains in possession, is presumably fraudulant as to the creditors and purchasers of the mortgagor. But not as to others. In this case the plaintiff made no effort to meet this burden which the law placed upon him. Before he can recover he must prove the execution and delivery of the mortgage in good faith. This failure on the part of the plaintiff necessitates a new trial which is ordered.

Green Succeeds Gompers

William Green of Coshocton, Ohio, secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America since 1912, has been elected president of the American Federation of Labor to succeed Samuel Gompers, who died Dec. 13.

Laborers thruout the country last week paid their last tribute to the grand old leader of the Federation. Deep regret of his passing is expressed by leaders in all fields, his foresight in directing the policies of the Federation being considered as responsible to a large degree for the betterment of labor conditions, having waged a constant fight for the cause of American workmen.

Succeeding is a matter of personal methods—not time and territory.

Many earn back the first month out of school the entire tuition cost. When you can do this the expense of acquiring this business training is pretty reasonable isn't it? Students of the U. C. C. are doing it month after month. New Term starts after the New Year. Send for free catalog and find out how you can become successful. 46tf

WHAT OTHERS THINK

The following editorial, given first place in the St. Paul Dispatch under the caption, "Mixing Men and Alfalfa," tells in plain words what is thought of Pennington county, Thief River Falls, its Commercial club, its live boosters, farmers of the community, alfalfa and community spirit. It is a tribute every Pennington county resident can well feel proud of. It is one of the far reaching results of the "Alfalfa Day" celebration in this city, which attracted the attention of the rest of the state and opened the eyes of many as to the great possibilities of this county and community.

The wide-spread publicity given the event and the alfalfa movement in Pennington county thruout the press of the state will boost this section more than any other undertaking ever put over by the enterprising citizens of Thief River Falls.

Following is what the Dispatch says:

"Tucked away in the northwest corner of the state is Pennington county, in area one of the smallest in the state, with its thriving county seat, Thief River Falls. It could easily have remained in the background but it is as difficult to keep hidden as a city set on a hill. Agricultural experts, railroad magnates, bankers and business men were drawn to it Thursday out of their beaten paths, to celebrate "Alfalfa Day." It fills the eye of the entire state for what it has accomplished.

"Pennington county was as other counties in the Red River valley are. It was sick of wheat. It had its taste of depression, of abandoned farms, of discouragement. The secret of its prominence is—that it had men. It had first its Peter Engelstad, the alfalfa pioneer, who has been growing alfalfa there for 21 years, raising cattle and escaping the one-crop penalty. It has its commercial club at Thief River Falls, where business men and farmers sat knee to knee, as members, and where the problems of both were discussed and united action taken. That resulted in the purchase by bankers of 30,000 pounds of Grimm's alfalfa seed in 1923 and the beginning of a new era. It has its boosters and publicity men, typified in its mayor and editor, J. S. Arneson, who see that the good news is spread at home and abroad. There is no way of beating such a combination of fighting men.

"One of the results of that co-operation between town and country is seen in the alfalfa carnival, Thursday, with its crowds of farm people rubbing elbows with their city neighbors, their community songs, their speeches and their feasting.

"Alfalfa may yield $80 to $100 a year for each acre. It may bring about the building of a $25,000 co-operative creamery. It may make some men rich and the community prosperous. But these returns are merely by-products to the real crop of friendliness, of mutual interest, of unity, and of warm hearts and happiness that Pennington county is harvesting."

tax committee in the lower house last year he had made an effort to bring about the passage of measures regulating bus and truck transportation in the last session. He pledged himself to work for such a measure in the coming session, declaring that it is of particular importance to this northern section of the state. He pointed out that if the railroads' volume of business is reduced the rates will be increased.

The following amendment proposed by Congress was discussed comprehensively by Attorneys Theo. Quale and H. O. Chommie, both sides of the question being presented: "Section 1. The Congress shall have power to limit, regulate, and prohibit the labor of persons under 18 years of age. Section 2. The power of the several states is unimpaired by this article except that the operations of the state laws shall be suspended to the extent necessary to give effect to legislation enacted by Congress." Before this can be done the amendment must first be ratified by three-fourths of the states.

Mr. Quale in explaining the proposed amendment stated that there is a great deal of misunderstanding regarding its provisions and urged his hearers to look upon it in its true form.

Following Mr. Quale's brief explanation, Mr. Chommie presented arguments against the passage of such a measure, pointing out at first the dual form of government in this country, namely the state and national or federal. It was shown how in the forming of a central government certain powers were delegated from the states to the federal government.

The object of the amendment, Mr. Chommie said, is to transfer the power of child labor control from the states to the federal government and the issue is governmental and not sentimental. He spoke emphatically against efforts on the part of the government to reduce the powers of the states and pointed to what might be done in regard to child labor control should the amendment pass. The amendment would simply give Congress the power to legislate, but such legislation might turn out to be of an objectionable nature, especially as to labor on farms.

He gave his reasons for opposing the amendment as: It is against states rights and home rule, it means further centralization of government, it offers unwarranted interference and meddling in family affairs, and finally, that it is not necessary and the states can handle the problem more efficiently and effectively. The speaker declared that in the majority of states adequate child labor laws are already in operation, Minnesota being one of the leaders in this welfare movement.

Several present voiced their opinion as opposed to the amendment, expressing the same views as Mr. Chommie.

Regarding the Child Labor amendment Mr. Waldal stated that he had not yet made up his mind as to what stand he would take in the matter but that his mind is still open to convictions and that he would not express himself until he had made a more thoro study of the question, looking at both sides of the question from a broad viewpoint.

Alfalfa Campaign Here is Praised at Conference of Minnesota County Agents

Pennington county came in for considerable commendation on its extensive alfalfa campaign at the annual state conference of county agents and home demonstrators held at the University Farm, St. Paul, last week. The conference was attended by J. J. McCann, local county agent, who returned Saturday morning. About 125 agents and demonstrators of Minnesota communities were present to hear lectures by prominent agricultural men and to outline activities for 1925, a program similar to that of the past year being stressed.

Special mention of the alfalfa campaign in Pennington county was made in an address by Dr. Alway, soils division of the Minnesota university, who delared that it is setting an example for other counties in the state. He also pointed out that the importance of sufficient phosphate and lime for alfalfa culture, stating that no lime applications are necessary to this locality which makes alfalfa growing an easy matter.

Farmers of Minnesota were advised to continue wheat growing by Prof. Andrew Boss, vice director of the Minnesota Experiment Station, who also said that potato growing should not be abandoned even tho the market this year is very unfavorable, as conditions may be changed next season. The flax acreage should be increased, he said, and sugar beets should be grown where the soil is adapted and the acreage can be contracted.

Cow testing associations are gaining in numbers in Minnesota, it was brought out at the conference, and are considered as the best methods of improving dairy practices and herds. County extension work is also advancing, many communities having decided to engage a county agent the past year.

A Tribute

A couple weeks ago I met a farmer friend of mine, Ole, is his name, down by the creamery platform bringing his can of cream in a brand new Ford. Nothing unusual about that, is it? Not at all, but at the same time, as I was a little surprised, it brought to my mind many things, which I had observed before.

Often have I seen this very farmer coming into the creamery from his 15 mile drive in cold weather as well as in warm weather with his can of cream on the load having endured at least a four-hour's tedious drive. In the summer it was generally the job of his wife to make the weekly trips to town with cream and other things to be disposed of for other necessities. The creamery was generally the last place to call at before leaving town to get that empty cream can and many times have I seen this woman heading for home rather late in the afternoon with an old plug of a horse on this 15 mile drive.

Coming home late, long after dark, sometimes with some chores facing her both inside and outside and finally through, she would have a chance to sit down and look back upon a long day.

Having as much knowledge and experience of pioneer life as anyone in this locality and remembering also what this family has had to contend with, it did me really good to see this change cutting the distance to one-fourth of the time between home and town for many a trip. If there is a man under God's sun, who needs a car or is rather entitled to one, it is the farmer who lives out quite a distance from town. The unusual thing about it is this: When every section of the country has been sending out S. O. S. calls for financial assistance and favorable legislation for agriculture, Ole has managed his farming in these times of depression in such a way that he could buy his Ford—not on monthly installments either.

Another thing worth mentioning, Ole does not specialize in alfalfa raising or dairying either, which goes to show that a man can be a good farmer without practicing along these special lines. Ole is not the only one of this kind of good farmers. There are many. My hat off to every one of them.

When laurels are heaped high on alfalfa raisers and so-called bigger dairymen, let us not forget the many good farmers located here and there and everywhere who practice diversification in their farm operations successfully along different lines.

Ole, I congratulate you. May you and your sturdy; industrious and faithful helpmate live long enough and enjoy health long enough to wear out that Ford good and plenty. The way you will use it, it will take you a mighty long time.

P. Engelstad.

What Russellism, or Millennial Dawnism, Teaches

I. M. HALDEMAN, D. D.

Russellism teaches that death is non-existence.

All who have died, have ceased to exist.

They have been utterly destroyed—body and soul.

God created the Archangel Michael. He was the beginning of the creation of God.

In obedience to the will of God, Michael gave up his spirit being, and was born of the virgin Mary as a human being.

He who was known on earth as Jesus, was, according to Russellism, none other than the Archangel Michael.

He had but one nature—an animal, human nature.

He was precisely like Adam before Adam fell.

He came into the world to be a substitute for man, die in his stead, and redeem the whole race from death.

As death is the extinction of being, when Jesus died on the cross, He ceased to exist.

His humanity was destroyed forever.

On the third day God caused Him to be created again as an invisible spirit, he was then, for the first time, made a partaker of the divine nature.

The body in which He died was never raised from the dead.

Russellism says it may have been dissolved into gases.

The body in which Jesus appeared to His disciples after His death was a body created by Him for the occasion.

The clothes He wore on that body were manufactured by Him for the occasion.

When He was done with the specially created body, it dissolved into thin air.

The clothes also dissolved into the air.

Jesus Christ is no longer a man.

Although He is an invisible spirit, He is called the Second Adam, and will be the father of mankind during the Millennial Age.

This is the age of election.

Through the Gospel God is now calling out a select number to be members of the "Body" of Christ.

They are justified by faith and "reckoned" as Adam was before he sinned.

They become members of the body of Christ only as they devote the Adam nature to death.

They devote it to death by crucifying self.

Those who deny self will be given "inherent" life—that is—the divine nature. Attainment to this divine nature is purely a matter of personal merit and human perfection.

Those who break their consecration will not be lost.

They will cease to be members of the Body. They will no longer be elect, but in the Millennium they will be permitted to live forever by eating food.

The seventh thousand year of the world began in 1872.

Jesus Himself came back to the world in 1874.

He has been invisibly present in the world ever since.

In 1878 all the Apostles, and all the dead who had consecrated their human nature to the Lord and lived the perfect Adam life, were raised from the dead and changed into spirit beings like the Lord.

Russellism agrees perfectly with Hymenaeus and Philetus.

Hymenaeus and Philetus taught that "the resurrection is past already." (2 Timothy 2:17, 18.)

The call to the elect ended in 1881.

But as some of the elect have fallen by the way, and others no doubt will, people may go on consecrating themselves in the hope that they shall be allowed to take the places of those who have failed.

"The Times of the Gentiles" will end in 1914.

The prayer, "Thy Kingdom Come," will be fulfilled in October, 1914.

In October, 1914, the Lord will set up His kingdom in power.

In October, 1914, the kingdoms of the world will become the kingdom of this invisible, spirit Lord.

The inauguration of the kingdom will take place in the midst of national, political, social, and financial storms.

These storms will be the proof that the kingdom in power has begun.

These will be the Lord's judgments in the earth by which the nations are to learn righteousness.

The invisible Lord and His invisible Church will be at work regulating the affairs of the world.

Abraham and the patriarchs will be raised from the dead as visible, glorified men.

They will be the "princes in the earth."

They will act as the intermediaries between the invisible Church and the world.

They will be the agents of the invisible Church to carry on the work of righteousness.

In 1914, the Jews will be restored to their own land and be the head of the nations.

Jerusalem will be the capital of the world.

Every living person will be on trial for everlasting life.

Those who accept the Lord and own Him, will be given at least one hundred years in which to make progress backward to the State of Adam before he fell—to become perfect in Adam nature.

If at the end of the hundred years they have made no progress they will die and be blotted out of existence.

Those who conform "outwardly" to the laws of the kingdom, may continue to live till the end of the thousand years.

At the end of the thousand years they will be tested.

The test will be "heart loyalty" to the Lord.

If they can stand this test, they can go on living forever.

They will live forever, not by virtue of "inherent" life (that belongs only to the elect of this age) but by eating food.

All the dead who have died since the beginning of the world (and Russellism estimates them at fifty thousand millions) will be brought to life again. Each will be given a certain measure of health and strength. This resurrection will not be simultaneous. It will occur continuously through the Millennium.

It is true—they have been, some of them, non-existent for thousands of years, body, soul, and personality, destroyed.

This presents no difficulty to Russellism.

Not even the total destruction of personality.

All who shall be made alive again, will be brought to know the Lord.

All shall know Him from the least unto the greatest.

Each will be given an opportunity to live the perfect Adam life.

Like the living, they will have an opportunity for, at least, one hundred years in which to make this effort.

If they see fit to conform "outwardly" to the laws of the kingdom, they may live on to the end of the thousand years.

At the end of the thousand years, they may choose eternal non-exisence, or live forever.

Russellism illustrates this doctrine of the dead who are called to life by citing Nero, Emperor of Rome.

Russellism quotes a passage in Daniel twelfth, wherein it is stated that the time is coming when many that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, "some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt."

Although, according to Russellism, Nero has been dead and utterly annihilated for two thousand years, yet he will be "awakened."

He will be awakened from the dead with exactly the same character in which he died.

He will be given a measure of health and strength.

All will have read or heard of his poison contracts with Locusta, his reported incest, and the unspeakably abominable and brutal murder of his mother.

He will find himself, in this new era of righteousness, covered with shame, and the object of contempt.

But the experience he has had in sin and wickedness will be a "valuable asset" to turn him in the direction of righteousness.

If Nero sincerely seeks to make progress toward human perfection; if he do nothing more than keep his life "outwardly" decent, he can live in good health and comfort for a hundred years.

Then, if he wish, he can go back into non-existence.

If he prefer, he can go on living till the end of the thousand years, growing every day in favor with the world.

At the end of the thousand years, if he is willing to surrender himself to the will of the Lord, he can go on living forever by eating food.

He will then enjoy life just as he did in the old days when he feasted sumptuously at the banquets in his royal palace, or ate and drank in his splendid villa at Baiae; but, this time, in cleanness and righteousness, honored in heaven and in earth.

Thus, Nero will be awakened to shame and everlasting contempt; just long enough to prove that neither the shame nor the contempt are everlasting, and that Daniel made a mistake when he said so.

That is Russellism.

The Dominican monk, John Tetzel, in the days of Luther, offered indulgences of the Pope to all who would buy them.

For a certain sum of money you could buy forgiveness of any sin you wished to commit.

With the Pope's indulgence in your pocket you could commit your sin, look at the indulgence in your pocket, and be assured you were forgiven—your sin wiped out.

With all his offered premium on sin, Tetzel did not offer it on nearly so large and generous a scale as Russellism.

Russellism teaches that you can live like Nero, commit all his crimes, die, and meet no greater punishment than the extinction of being. After that you will be brought again to life. You will come forth in health and strength. You will be permitted to live a hundred years; that is, if you are careful not to commit "outward" sin. If, after living a hundred years, you prefer to be annihilated, you can have your wish fulfilled in the second death. If you would live forever, you need only come out fully for the Lord. You will then be permitted to live in a world where Christ is ruling, where all evil is restrained; where every man has his own vine and fig tree.

You can maintain this life by eating food.

Your daily meal will be the guaranty of your eternal life.

Russellism is the message that brings glad tidings of great joy to every criminal, to every robber, every murderer. It takes away the fear of the hangman's rope and the dread of the electric chair. The criminal can afford to laugh at them. Even if he should suffer death by either of these means, he would not suffer afterwards. To him there will be the peace of non-existence till brought to life again; and if, then, he is tired of sinning, he may turn over a new leaf, and live forever in that age of ages where he shall have nothing to do but eat to live and live to eat.

Here is a religion that offers a premium on every crime in the calendar, guarantees eternal life and felicity to every wicked man who ever lived, and assures the wicked of today that his very wickedness will be a great advantage, a "valuable asset" to help him to live a life of joy and peace forever.

All this is offered in the name of our Holy Bible, and in the sacred name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

No better way to encourage the elements of crime in human nature could be found than by circulating the books and preaching the doctrine of Russellism.

Lest any should doubt the Nero illustration, I would state it may be found in Vol. 6, page 712-718 of "Studies in the Scriptures," published by the "Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society," Brooklyn, N. Y.

Farmors Urged to Assist Farm Census Enumerators

R. J. McKercher, farm census enumerator in the southwest corner of Pennington county, completed his work Monday, according to County Agent J. J. McCann, who reports that the other enumerators are still busy getting data from the farmers in their respective districts.

The enumerators deserve all possible consideration from the farmers they call upon, according to Paul H. Kirk, agricultural statistician. They receive only 25 cents for each farm and can barely make expenses at the work. Farmers should be urged to study the census blanks which they have received and be prepared to facilitate the enumerator when he calls, Mr. Kirk says. The work is particularly strenuous at this season when the weather is often unfavorable.

COMMUNITY NEWS

ROSEWOOD

Mrs. Adolf Haugen

Mrs. Adolf Haugen, whose maiden name was Minnie Sorenson, was born on her parent's farm two miles north from Rosewood on January 31, 1889. She grew to maidenhood in this community and attended the local grammar school. She was married in the fall of 1915 to Adolf Haugen also of this place, who survives together with three children, Eileen aged 8, Harvey 6, and Dorothy 2 years. A baby was born a week ago Sunday evening which died immediately and on Monday complications set in together with convulsions of the abdomen which ended the young woman's life on Tuesday night. Dr. J. T. Bowers assisted by a trained nurse from the Physicians hospital of Thief River Falls were in attendance but little could be accomplished except to somewhat alleviate the terrible pains. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon from the Rindal church and was attended by about one hundred persons. Rev. Geo. Larson from Thief River Falls delivered a brief sermon and the funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker Carl B. Larson. A profusion of beautiful flowers covered the casket. Two appropriate solos were sung by Mrs. R. Sagmoen and Mr. Peterson. The following excerpt from the minister's sermon fully covered the general sentiment: "The untimely death of this splendid wife and loving mother from a sorrowing family circle can only be classed from a human standpoint as a brutality, but in the opinion of the Almighty as a necessity."

Hanson-Mellem

Emil Mellem of this place and Miss Hanson whose home is in the town of Numedal were united in marriage at the home of Rev. Werner Drotts at Viking last Monday afternoon, and were attended by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hauglid of Numedal, Mrs. Hauglid being a sister of the bride. The newlyweds will make their home at Rosewood where Mr. Mellem has recently completed a new residence on his farm southeast of town. The community's congregations are extended.

The directors of the Rosewood Livestock Shipping association met at Rosewood last Saturday evening but owing to the extremely cold wind that evening only three directors and the secretary were present. O. J. Dahl was re-elected president for the coming year and Carl Mellem, vice president. No new manager was appointed at this meeting as it was thought advisable to have all the directors present at a later meeting which will be announced.

Christmas tree festivals are the order of the day, and many beautiful programs have been rendered and many a child's heart has bounced with joy. On Friday evening the Christmas tree and program was given at Willowdale under supervision of the teacher, Miss Milda Shefveland, and on Saturday evening Columbia celebrated with Mrs. Thos. Jackson at the helm. Both evenings were successful. On Friday, Dec. 26, will be given the union Rosebank school and Rindal church festival with Miss Ruth Halvorson on the program committee and assisted by several local people. This promises to be a very attractive evening and the public is cordially invited. Next Tuesday evening, Dec. 30th will be held the annual fest of the Union Sunday school at the Swedish Mission church in town. This will be the only program directly in Rosewood, and much is on the program of unusual interest. All programs have free admission and the public is invited.

Miss Lilly Holson who has been employed in North Dakota this summer arrived last week and will spend the holiday season at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carl Mellem.

Among outsiders who attended the Mrs. Haugen funeral last Saturday were noted: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Anderson from Warren; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Strobble from Angus; Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mosbeck and Oscar Blomberg from Crookston; Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Copp; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mosbeck from Thief River Falls and Albert Hellquist from Newfolden.

Mrs. Barney Peterson from Thief River Falls spent Saturday here to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Thoreson and also attended the Haugen funeral in the afternoon.

Rudolph Sagmoen and Ted Nelson left on Friday evening for Bemidji where they will attend to business matters for a few days.

Miss Olga Grytdal returned on Friday evening to her home at Silverton after visiting here briefly with her brother, A. S. Grytdal and her sister, Mrs. John Hanson.

J. S. Sorenson was at Thief River Falls between trains last Thursday shopping and attending to business matters.

A carload of flour and feed was shipped in at the Hanson & Barzen elevator this week and the car will be reloaded with wheat and shipped out by the manager, A. C. Vorseth, in a few days.

Miss Elsie Vorseth arrived home on Saturday morning from high school at Thief River Falls and will spend a two weeks vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Vorseth, in town.

Mrs. T. Mellem has been on the sick list all week with a severe cold and is not much improved at this writing.

John Ranum is home from the Warren hospital and somewhat improved from blood poison affection of his arm. His home is under quarantine this week, some of the children being ill with chicken pox.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson and son, Earl, from Thief River Falls arrived on Saturday morning to spend the day visiting at the J. E. Hellquist home and also attending the Haugen funeral in the afternoon.

Miss Emma Sorenson arrived home on Tuesday from Thompson, N. D., where she has been employed also this summer. This is Miss Sorenson's ninth year employed on the same farm near Thompson.

O. J. Dahl had the misfortune of driving into the ditch with his Ford near his home while returning from Thief River Falls one afternoon last week. The windshield was fogged from frost and Ole misfigured the correct turn from the main road unto his farm road. The Ford was somewhat damaged and Mrs. Dahl who also was along was slightly bruised.

McIntosh Wins

McIntosh high school basketball team defeated East Grand Forks high at McIntosh Friday night by a score of 14 to 6. East Grand Forks defeated Fosston the previous evening.

WARREN BEATEN IN FAST GAME 16 TO 13. LEAD IN FIRST HALF

Old Rivals Overcome During Last Half of Lively Contest. St. Hilaire Beaten

In the fastest game of the season, the Lincoln high school basket ball team won over the strong Warren aggregation by a score of 16-13. The game was featured by a great many long shots from both teams, neither team being able to pierce the other's defense.

After the first tip-off the ball was brought back and forth on the floor, no team being able to slip the ball through the hoop. Towards the end of the first quarter Boardson sunk in a long shot from a point past the middle of the floor. Then Thief River shot two free throws and the score was again even, but not to remain that way very long. In a short time Warren had brought the score up to eight by three more field baskets and two free throws. "Melly" Anderson made the majority of the points. During the same time Thief River managed to make one more free throw. At the end of the first half the score was Thief River Falls 3 and Warren 8.

The first play at the beginning of the second half gave Penney the ball and he slipped it through the hoop without touching the rim. In short order another field basket was rung up for the locals by Parenteau. Then Warren with a free throw and a field basket brought its score up to 11. At this point Warren was held helpless until near the end of the game when the visitors made another field basket, their score then being 13. The locals seemed to be able to ring up points at will from the center of the floor. Mulry made a field basket, Penney did the same and then Bjorkman made the score for the locals two points more by a long throw from the center of the floor. Zeh also made a field basket.

Boardson and "Melly" Anderson starred for the visitors, while Penney, Parenteau and Mulry did outstanding work for the locals.

The Thief River Falls and Warren teams each made five field baskets, but the locals made six out of 11 free throws, while Warren made three out of six. "Pinks" Penney made nine out of the 16 points scored by the locals, having two field baskets and five free throws to his credit. Anderson made the most points for the visitors, caging three field baskets and two free throws.

E. O. Tandberg, Middle River superintendent and coach, officiated at the game to everyone's satisfaction.

During intermissions the high school band entertained the crowd, which was the largest for this season.

Thief River Falls		Warren
Larson	F.	Anderson
Penney	F.	Morud
Mulry	C.	Peterson
Parenteau	G.	Boardson
Bjorkman	G.	Palmer

Substitutions — Thief River Falls: Bennes for Mulry; Zeh for Larson.

As a preliminary the St. Hilaire high school team played the local second team. St. Hilaire was defeated by a score of 9 to 3. The game was slow at first but towards the end the contest became quite interesting.

Following is the lineup:

Thief River Falls		St. Hilaire
L. Anderson	F.	Nelson
Kiland	F.	Bilden
Froseth	C.	Hackett
Jaranson	G.	Hovet
Erickson	G.	Beebe

Snyder, Helgeland, Mostue and Oen substituted for the locals and Wilson, Johnson and Bengtson for St. Hilaire. Thief River Falls made three field baskets and three free throws, two field baskets being made by Jaranson and one by Anderson, and the free throws by Kiland, Jaranson and Mostue. St. Hilaire scored with a field basket and a free throw.

On Friday, Jan. 9, the Thief River Falls team will clash with the Argyle quint, on the local floor, in the first game after the holiday vacation period.

H. E. Nelson to Attend Penney Co. Convention

H. E. Nelson, manager of the local J. C. Penney company store, plans to leave on January 14 to attend a four-day convention of the Penney store managers to be held in Atlantic City, N. J. In Chicago he will join the special train bound for the eastern coast resort city.

Establishing man on a higher plane of efficiency thus enabling him to carve out a place in the busy, throbbing business world where service and competence will earn their just reward, is having more and more attention from the large mercantile and industrial organizations throughout the country.

The old way of measuring a man's qualification by the extent of his physical endurance, has passed out of use in the big, progressive institutions of today. A notable illustration of the expediency of man training is found in the selling organization of the local J. C. Penney company store.

This nation-wide institution of department stores with its 571 co-operating member stores, not only looks carefully to its man power but in a very definite way, trains men and women in all the requisites of successful merchants and salespeople.

The company has long maintained an educational department and a business training course which are instrumental in creating a desire in the minds of its associates for advancement in the higher ideals of service to one another and to the public at large. It materially helps them to attain that desire.

Therefore, it is quite natural that the co-partner-managers of this great organization should assemble at Atlantic City next month for a four-day inspirational convention when man building, self-building and the man power in business will be discussed by some of the most able speakers in the country.

Six cases of whiskey were discovered in the car driven by these men when they were caught after knocking down and running over Helen Rand, six year old, in East Grand Forks. The child was not seriously injured.

Local High School Debate Team Looses to Ada Thurs

By an unanimous verdict the Thief River Falls high school debate team was defeated by the Ada high school team last Thursday evening. The locals upheld the affirmative of the question, "Resolved that the United States should join the League of Nations as it existed on July 1, 1924."

The Thief River Falls teams consisted of Lylian Arnold, Emmett Shanahan, and Ward Mathewson. They were accompanied by their coach, Lawrence T. Mickelson. Members of the Ada team are Myrtle Olson, Frances Zanzow and Otto Logan. The debate was held in the Ada gymnasium before a very large crowd. Before and after the debate the high school orchestra played a number of selections. After the contest a lunch was served to the debaters, judges and coaches.

The judges were Supt. G. Holmquist of Warren, Supt. Bohlander of Moorhead and Rev. C. W. Annestad of Twin Valley.

Former Residents Are Left Destitute When Home Burns

Fire starting from a defective chimney in the residence occupied by the V. R. Hicks family at Red Lake Falls, until recently of this city, Saturday, Dec. 13, completely destroyed the dwelling and practically all the contents, leaving the Hicks family with their five children and their boarder, Merle Wheeler, homeless and without food and clothing, according to the Red Lake Falls Gazette. The family were all sleeping downstairs and were able to save very little. The fire started at about 10 o'clock at night and the flames were too far advanced by the time the fire department arrived.

The family was given shelter at the John Mahey home and the county welfare committee is assisting in bringing relief to the destitute family, citizens joining in supplying necessary clothing and food, all their money having been destroyed in the fire.

The Hicks family lived in this city for a few months the past year and left last fall for Warren, from where they moved to Red Lake Falls.

Magazines Distributed

A considerable number of used magazines are being distributed among rural school districts and individuals in Pennington and eastern Marshall county by the local library. A great deal of good reading material is in this manner made available to persons who are not in position to subscribe for the more expensive magazines and country schools, particularly, are taking advantage of this opportunity. The supply so far has been sufficient to meet the demand, Librarian Myrland reports.

Engages Barber

Joe Hogquist of River Falls township has been engaged as barber at the barber shop on LaBree avenue recently opened by D. L. Hanson.

H. Quistgard of Warren is Given 90-day Jail Sentence

A sentence of 90 days in jail and $300 fine and costs, commitment to be immediate was imposed on Hunter Quistgaard of Warren, who was convicted by a jury at the regular term of court there last fall on a charge of having and keeping in his possession for transportation intoxicating liquor, by Judge Grindeland of Warren, at a hearing given Quistgaard Saturday afternoon in the judge's chambers. If Quistgaard does not pay his fine he must serve an additional 90 days in jail, Judge Grindeland ruled.

A motion made for a new trial was denied by Judge Grindeland, who ordered that Quistgaard start serving his term immediately. A. N. Eckstrom of Warren, represented Quistgard in the absence of John Quinn of St. Paul, his attorney.

Quistgard, who operates the Warren pharmacy, was convicted on Dec. 2, but was given a stay of sentence until Dec. 17 to give his attorney time to prepare an appeal which, it is understood is to be made to the supreme court.

Quam-Grinde Case Heard in Municipal Court Last Week

The action brought against Lars Grinde, Reiner farmer, by Mrs. Clara Quam, guardian ad litem for Carl Quam and Oscar Quam, was given hearing in municipal court Tuesday of last week and a jury of eleven brot in a verdict in favor of the defendant.

Mrs. Quam filed suit against Lars Grinde Nov. 26, stating that the defendant had wrongfully used money raised from the sale of crops belonging to Oscar Quam and Carl Quam, minors in her charge, to satisfy a debt owed to Mr. Grinde by Mrs. Quam.

The evidence was brot to show that the crops were Mrs. Quam's, not the minor boys', and the jury declared the settlement of debt by the sale of the crops as in accordance with the contract.

H. O. Chommie appeared for the defendant and G. Halvorson for the plaintiff.

Poultry Receipts Are Low During Holiday Season. Men Employed in Plant Go Home

Light receipts of live and dressed poultry are reported this week by the Thief River Valley Co-operative Poultry Association. Manager B. O. Norby announces that poultry will be received at any time but that the association prefers to have turkeys, which are in condition for marketing, now or the first part of January so as to make shipments in time for the Jewish holiday trade.

George Whaley, who has been in charge of the packing department since Nov. 15, left Saturday for his home in Winnebago.

Harry Scharborough, leading picker at the plant during the Thanksgiving and Christmas rush, left last Thursday for St. Paul. Mr. Scharborough, with the help of "pinners" picked up to 64 chickens an hour and he picked 75 turkeys a day.

A number of local men have been taught the trade of picking poultry to a fair degree of efficiency since the plant here started operations. Oscar Stadum is employed here as picker at present.

Library Closed

The public library is closed on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day in observance of the day.

Escaped Moonshiner Caught

Frank Reese, Belgian beet worker near Oklee, who escaped from Red Lake county officials last month when they attempted to arrest him on charges of making moonshine, was apprehended last week. Sheriff Fellman had received word that he had returned to Oklee and could probably be found at the Adolph Cloutier farm, where he was nabbed by officials and placed in the Red Lake Falls jail. Alphonse Piter Dismith, said to have been together with Reese in his operations is now serving a thirty-day jail sentence.
